The "Rummage Sale" in Detroit, on Tuesday conducted by the ladies' Guild was marked by various interesting and somewhat novel incidents, and was fin racially most successful as well. The ten ladies who had the sale in hand came before tired but happy.

hand came home tired but happy.

A man said to me once that the charch tells you to believe things impossible to believe, and ministers preaching is all about things impossible to prove. No doubt there have been such teachings from the church, and preaching from the ministers. But such things need not be, and once to be Religion that is real commends itself to a man's conscience and his resiston too; and peaching that is sound seat forth things that you and any man can test and prove.
