HOME AND NOTES

The Exchange Bank opens every morning at 8 o'clock standard time and closes every day at 4 o'clock standard time; Sundays and holidays excepted.

Austin Parks is around again as good as ever.

Massive blocks of purest ice is being harvested.

William Randall, of Pontiac, is again in charge at the handle factory.

Miss M. Baldwin had gone for a month's visit with relatives at Elgin, Ill.

Girl wanted for general housework. Apply at house, Maple Avenue. A. P. JACOBS. 2t

Persons interested in poultry raising should ask N. B. Bloomberg about the new Bradley incubator.

Mrs. Mary Grandy, of Detroit, is visiting with I. N. Baker and family and enjoying herself as well as Isaac and Clara.

Don't forget the chicken supper at the Baptist church, Friday evening, February 1st, from 5 to 8. Supper, 25 cents.

The art needle-work class will meet with Mrs. Morris Blair, Thursday, Feb. 7th, from 1:30 to 4 o'clock p. m., standard time.

Asa J. Marble, of near Milford, called on his Wednesday. The whole family are pleased and satisfied with their Mound farm home.

C. A. Miller, of Southfield Burg, now owns the late home of Mrs. Prowdley, having just bought the property and will go deeper than ever into business.

All girls, who are interested in joining a physical culture class, are invited to meet at the Johnston-Shaw hall, Friday afternoon, Feb. 1st, at 4 o'clock.

Ice harvesting has begun on the mill pond. Eli Holloway is the chief and is delivering beautiful cakes of the crystal about 13 inches thick. Farmers, attention!

Tonight, Friday, Feb. 1st, the Sigma Tau girls have a shadow social at the Elliott Farm, Miss Effie Mason, hostess. A good time is promised to all who attend.

FOR SALE—Thoroughbred cockerels, barred Plymouth Rocks—also a trio of Mammoth Toulouse geese and 25 Reg'r Star incubator. Will sell cheap. MRS FRED E. BROOKS. 5t

"Rebecca's Triumph" was repeated Wednesday evening, Jan. 23rd, to a very liberal Birmingham audience. The play was a success and a neat sum was added to the treasury.

Tonight at the M. E. church A good sermon and fellowship meeting, conducted by Rev. Kishpaugh. All invited. The revival meetings still continue and are largely attended.

Visitors at the home of Wm. Howthorns in this village, are Frank Howthorns, Billy's nephew, and Mrs. Wm. Hawthorns, a daughter-in-law from Chicago. Good times for all.

An Ideal Laxative.

Physics and Cathartics which purge, unload the bowels, and give temporary relief, but irritate, and weaken the digestive and excretive organs. Laxative Fruit-Salt Tablets are as different in effect as truth is from falsehood. They positively tone the bowel muscles and nerves, giving them strength and vigor to do the work of nature, and thereby effecting a permanent cure by perfectly safe and natural means. The best laxative for children. Chocolate coated tablets, easy to take, never gripe or nauseate. 10c, 25c and $1.00 at all drug stores.

Halsey L. Stevens, a Southfield boy, writes THE ECCENTRIC a very interesting letter from the far West. Glad he got away early from the pretty ladies at the Crescent City. Here's hoping him a good time and a safe return.

New books in our library: "Essays on Human Nature," by Strickler; "An Old Maid's Love," by Martin Martens; "The Sheroda," by McCutcheon; "The Awakening of Helena Richie," by Deland; "The Promotors," by Smith; "The Man from Glengary," by R. Connor.

Senator Guggenheim, Colorado's latest addition to the Rockefeller branch of the American Congress, is credited with having started life as a barefooted boy. Shucks! That is nothing to talk about. To the best of our recollection we also came into this world without socks on our feet.

A chicken supper will be served in the basement of the Baptist church, Friday evening, Feb. 1st, from 5 until 8. Menu: Fried chicken, mashed potatoes, biscuits and gravy, baked beans, pickles, cabbage salad, fruit jelly, orange sherbiet, cake, coffee. Every one invited to attend.

Last Sunday Phillip Lambert and wife grabbed their hats and started out to visit their daughters in Detroit and they did have a most enjoyable day. They visited Mrs. Charles Miller and Mrs. Will Schnitker and their respective families and every participant had a most delightful day's visit.

A postal from Miss Mollie G. Smith to a friend reports her safe arrival at the scene of her new duties at Danville, Ill. Before leaving the employ of M. Levinson her employer presented her with a beautiful pearl-handled, silk umbrella, and the clerks, a fine pair of kid gloves to show her their appreciation.

Paul Beach, hay dealer, is now a resident in town, having moved into Mrs. M. Kings house, east of the steam railway. He will make a business of buying hay from the farmers and team it to Detroit. If you want to know the market price of hay call Paul, the first at 80-J. He will be pleased to quote you prices.

The Sunday-News Tribune of Jan. 27th last, published a fine article on the Ladies' Library offering to the Village of Birmingham, handsomely illustrated with a half-tone of Miss M. Baldwin and a fine view of the library building which will be donated to the village by the ladies if the tax-payers say vote at the coming charter election.

Edward Banks, who was arrested some time ago for jumping his board bill and accommodations at the National hotel; the defendant changed his plea in Justice Campbell's court and plead guilty thereto. The court in due form passed sentence, that he, the said Banks should remain imprisoned in the county jail, for a period of ten days, including the day of sentence.

One day last week the apartment house on Porter Street and W. Grand Boulevard, Detroit, in which Dr. Geo. P. Ravlale lived and had his office, was burned to the ground. Loss, $16,000. Eight families were routed out very early on a cold morning and nearly all lost heavily. Dr. Geo. P's loss was mostly from water, as he had more time than the other tenants to save his property.

Recently, a Franklin bachelor bought a pair socks in this village, and found attached to one a paper with these words: "I am a young lady of twenty and would like to correspond with a view to matrimony." The name and address were given. The bachelor wrote and in a few days got this reply: "Mamma was married twenty years ago. Evidently the merchant of whom you bought those socks did not advertise, or he would have sold them long ago. My mother handed me your letter and said possibly might suit. I am 18."

Chas. H. Schlaack surprised his wife and family, and his many friends, by returning unexpectedly from the gold mining fields of South America, at Caceres, Dept. of Antioquia, Colombia. He was called home by his company, to consult about new mining machinery, and expects to return in the future. His trip home was consumed a little over three weeks, being shipwrecked, and the large German steamship, the Prince Wallermin, going entirely lost, but after many thrilling, and hair raising adventures, all lives were saved, the crew as well as passengers. All this happened on the reefs near Kingston, on the island of Jamaica. He landed on the second day after the great earthquake, and says the suffering was something terrible to witness. All the newspaper criticisms of the English governor, Swettenham, is well deserved by that freak. It was from Sir Arthur Jones magnificent private steamer, that many of these maimed, wounded and dying victims were taken, and laid out on the dock, in the broiling hot sun, because some of the ladies aboard the vessel were disturbed in their sleep by the moaning and groaning of the victims of the quake. These sufferers were put ashore on the dock, Tuesday morning, Mr. Schlaack saw them there Thursday suffering pitifully in the sun and just black with flies. A man died before his eyes, whom Charley thinks would have lived, could he have had just a little timely aid. His experience has not changed him one whit, and his health is much better than it was on his return from his first trip to this tropical country. During the past three years Mr. Schlaack has travelled land and water over 35,000 miles; which is 10,000 miles more than once around the world.

An Insidious Disease.

One of the worst features of kidney trouble is that it is an insidious disease, and before the victim realizes his danger he may have a fatal malady. Take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first sign of trouble, as it corrects irregularities and prevents Bright's disease and diabetes. All druggists.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society, of Franklin, will hold their regular meeting Thursday, Feb. 7th, at Bingham's hall. Dinner served at 1 o'clock. They also intend to hold a bazaar at the same time, the proceeds of which is a thank offering.

Notice is hereby given that a mass county convention of the Oakland Co. Prohibitionists will be held in the Court House, Pontiac, on Tuesday, February 5th, at 10 a. m. and 1 p. m., to nominate a candidate for County School Commissioner, elect twelve delegates to the state convention, to be held at Ionia, February 12th., discuss methods of ending the saloon, and for the transaction of any business that may come before the meeting. E. W. Mason, Chairman. Nelson Shattuck, Secretary.

An auction sale of extra good and fine household furniture will take place Saturday, Feb. 9th, on the premises, second house south of D. U. R. power house, commencing at 1 o'clock p. m., sharp, at which time will be sold, a piano in good condition, book-case and secretary combined, oak dining table, dining chairs, bed room suite, dressing table, parlor suite, 5 pieces, and writing desk, tables, stands, kitchen range with water front, etc., etc. Sale everything. M. H. Blunt, auctioneer. Mrs. Helen E. Brey, proprietor.

Improve and Beautify the Complexion.

The principal ingredients in Dainty Laxakola Tonic Tablets are cascarin and dandelion which is one of the safest complexion beautifiers known. Forty little chocolate-coated laxative tablets; 25c. Whitehead & Mitchell and Cobb & Cobb.
