

A Boston schoolboy was tall, weak and sickly.

His arms were soft and flabby. He didn't have a strong muscle in his entire body.

The physician who had attended the family for thirty years prescribed Scott's Emulsion.

NOW:

To feel that boy's arm you would think he was apprenticed to a blacksmith.

ROYAL OAK CHURCH NOTES.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL... Dr. W. J. St. John, Pastor, Sunday-Morning service, 10:00 a.m.

Congregational Church Notes.

The reception given the pastor and wife, by the Ladies' Union and invited friends, was certainly a well-planned and pleasurable affair.

As was fitting for St. Valentine's day, hearts were the order of the evening, making it a very "hearty" affair.

Let their teachers follow, and you all will be on the right road.

There were three days last week that N. H. Rogers, the R. F. D. No. 5, driver, had to wait for a piece of road, just west of Mrs. Martha Brooks' farm.

It took one man to lead the horse, and another to keep the wagon from slewing around. Just ask Mr. RFDs how many times he measured his length along the highway, one day last week. I think he registered four flatter-junks.

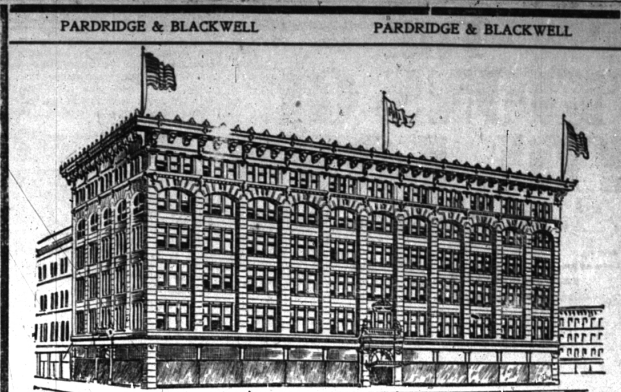

Our good old friends, Mr. and Mrs. William Stevenson, on the John L. Keyser farm, on or about March 20th, will take up their residence in Detroit, where William has a good position awaiting him. Our best wishes go with them. We understand that a Mr. Johnson from north of Pontiac, will step in and take the management of this most excellent farm, as it is as good a producer as there is in Oakland Co.

There will be a social for the benefit of the Franklin cemetery at F. P. hall Friday evening, Feb. 28th. It is the wish of the members of the society that there be a goodly turnout to help the much-needed cause along. Come and help them to swell the funds for this work.

Sickness has been the order of the few weeks back and several homes have been bereaved of their loved ones. The many friends of Mrs. Adam Johnson were shocked to hear of her death while on a visit to Quebec, Ont., many not knowing of her absence, until word was received of her demise. The family has the deepest sympathy of this place.

The bazaar at Bingham's hall given by the W. F. M. society was a success in every way. An elaborate dinner (as only the ladies of this society are noted for) was served. About 45 were in attendance. A great deal of credit is due Miss Sadie Sey, as she was saleslady for the occasion and disposed of all articles furnished by the society, which with the other collections netted the society about $15. Anyone having any thing of this order will do well to engage Miss Sadie.

At the theatres. LYCEUM. Theatre-patrons who are musically inclined to musical comedy will enjoy the announcement that "Peggy from Paris," is coming to the Lyceum, Saturday afternoon for a week's engagement.

Those who saw it last season, will remember its worth, and those who did not will undoubtedly be glad of a chance. This musical comedy is one of the pronounced successes of George Ade, the Hooper humorist, with lyrics, which are said to contain some of his brightest wit and keenest satire, is enhanced upon this production. The cast is headed by Wm. Cameron, supported by a strong company.

The engagement opens with a Sunday matinee, in addition to which the regular Wednesday and Saturday matinees will be given.
