Most people know that if they have been sick they need Scott's Emulsion to bring back health and strength.

But the strongest point about Scott's Emulsion is that you don't have to be sick to get results from it.

It keeps up the athlete's strength, puts fat on thin people, makes a fretful baby happy, brings color to a pale girl's cheeks, and prevents coughs, colds and consumption.

Food in concentrated form for sick and well, young and old, rich and poor.

And it contains no drugs and no alcohol.

ALL DRUGGISTS; 50c. AND $1.00.

ROYAL OAK CHURCH NOTES.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL—Dr. W. I. St. John, Pastor. Sunday—Morning service, 10:30; evening service, 7:00; Sunday School, Clara J. Lee Roy, Sup't, 11:30 a. m.; Y. P. S. C. E., 6:00 p. m. These meetings are free unless otherwise previously announced. They are addressed by good speakers from various professions on a variety of topics. Previous announcement of speakers and subjects will be given. All men and boys are cordially invited. All services and meetings on stan lard time.

Congregational Church Notes.

The talk given by V. P. Randall, Sunday evening, was certainly interesting. The subject, "The Experience of a Meddler," was rather enigmatic, but, like any other well-behaved enigma, unraveled itself when in skillful hands. He took his audience with him into a portion of three years' personal experience among the down-trodden in New York City, especially into the "sweat shops," where child-life is at a discount and the dollar no harder than the heart of its grasping worshipper who grinds the child-life out.

Men and women, already interested in the cause of humanity, would do well to hear Mr. Randall upon this subject; and those who are careless as to "how the other half live," might have their sympathies aroused should they hear him.

On Wednesday, the 27th, at 3 p. m., the Ladies' Union met for its semi-monthly gathering. Supper was served at the usual supper hour. At this meeting was held the regular preparatory service prior to communion, which will be observed Sunday morning, March 3, at the usual service hour. There will be several to unite with the Church at the time of this communion.

A prayer circle has been established in connection with the Church, which every earnest Christian, of whatever denomination, is asked to join, without money and without price. The only consideration being a willing spirit, in accord with the spirit of Christ's prayer, John 17th, "That they all may be one;" and with His command—"This is My commandment, that ye love one another, as I have loved you." The controlling chapter is the 17th of John; the controlling verse John 15:7; the controlling command John 15:12.

The hour for this united prayer is on Wednesday evenings at 7:30 standard, and we earnestly request all Christian people to join with us at that hour, that the spirit of the Master, expressed in His commandment, even the "as I have loved you," and his prayer be fulfilled in us.

It's a good old world after all;
If you have no friends or money,
In the river you can fall;
Marriages are quite common, and
More people there would be,
Provided you take Rocky Mountain Tea.

ON $1,250 A YEAR.

His salary was $1,250 a year, and he had just proposed to Miss Clare Lighthead and been accepted and they were both exquisitely happy until she said:

"And you don't know how lovely our home will be, George. It shall be a home indeed for you; a place of rest and joy and comfort! I'll ring the housekeeper up every morning, and—"

"The housekeeper?"

"Yes, yes, dear. Now, don't interrupt, you naughty boy. I'll tell the housekeeper to tell the cook to—"

"The cook?"

"Of course; and I do hope we can get a French cook. I love French cooking. And I'd like the parlormaid to—"

"The parlormaid?"

"Yes, yes; I'd like a brisk, tidy, rosy-cheeked girl. I don't care so much about the housemaid."

"Why, my darling, I'm afraid—"

"Now, now, you bad old boy; you must let your little girl have her own way when it comes to the house servants. You can engage the butler, if you like, and of course you'll get the coachman; but when it comes to the laundress and seamstress and—why George, what a dreadfully long face you have! I don't like it!"

It looked longer as he sat in his 10 x 12 room an hour later trying to "figure out" how the wages of the cook and housekeeper and butler and all the rest of them were to be paid on $25 per week. He hasn't calculated it yet.

Thankful, Indeed!

The prodigal son stood in the doorway after his long absence. "I have come, dad," he said, choking with emotion—"I have come back with a reformed conscience and a reformed disposition."

The old gentleman shouted himself hoarse and danced a jig.

"Thank goodness, lad!" he ejaculated. "Thank goodness, you haven't come back with reformed spelling."

And then the old gentleman went out and killed the fatted calf.—Chicago Daily News.

FARMER ST FROM GRATIOT TO MONROE AVE. "THE HEART OF DETROIT"

AT THE THEATRES.

LYCEUM.

A performance as pure and wholesome as can be produced, yet really funny and intensely dramatic, is promised in the big musical drama, "Little Dolly Dimples," which the dainty comic opera star, Grace Cameron, will present at the Lyceum next week, commencing Sunday afternoon. A good consistent story, with a pure wholesome plot and refined comedy situations with unique character drawing is some rare in these days of nonsensical entertainments. Incidental to the play is introduced the great musical specialty, Llein, Ott Bros. and Nicholson; also the Church City male Quartette, and Rita Curtis, the celebrated violiniste.

The engagement opens with a Sunday matinee, in addition to which the regular Wednesday and Saturday matinees will be given.

WHITNEY.

"Queen of the Convicts," which scored such a hit last season returns for a weeks engagement, commencing Sunday afternoon. There are two reasons for the success of this play, one is, that it is strong in its scenes; and the other is that the leading role is played with all the vigor and enthusiasm with which a capable actress could invest the character, Miss Selma Herman assuming the responsibility. The story is based on the events leading up to the assassination of Queen Draga of Servia.

The engagement is for one week with matinees daily except on Wednesday.

An Ideal Laxative.

Physics and Cathartics which purge, unbalance bowels, and give temporary relief, but irritate and weaken the digestive and expulsive organs. Chocolate coated tablets, easy to take, never gripe or nauseate. 10c, 25c and $1.00 at all drug stores.

A person who has visited several small towns in Michigan of late, says, "each librarian has told her that their busy season began when school was out, and she herself, has seen the boys and girls rush in, get some book bearing on to-morrow's lesson and spend hours over it."

Hunting for Trouble.

"I've lived in California 20 years, and am still hunting for trouble in the way of burns, sores, wounds, boils, cuts, sprains, or a case of piles that Bucklen's Arnica Salve won't quickly cure," writes Charles Walters, of Alleghany, Sierra Co. No use hunting, Mr. Walters; it cures every case. Guaranteed at Whitehead & Mitchell's and Cobb & Cobb's drug stores. 25c.
