

Girlhood and Scott's Emulsion are linked together.

The girl who takes Scott's Emulsion has plenty of rich, red blood; she is plump, active and energetic.

The reason is that at a period when a girl's digestion is weak, Scott's Emulsion provides her with powerful nourishment in easily digested form.

It is a food that builds and keeps up a girl's strength.

ALL DRUGGISTS; 50c. AND $1.00.

FRANKLIN

Old March is here, and according to the old adage "came in like a lamb, and will no doubt end like a roaring lion." Miss Addie Sly will soon leave for an extended trip to her former home in Wilkesbarre, Pa. Her many friends wish her a safe journey and return.

The rural delivery carriers are very much pleased in receiving news that their salaries are to be raised. All join in wishing them the best of luck along this line.

Mrs. Belle Pirie's auction on Wednesday, March 6th, was a large one and many of her friends will miss her from this place. A genuine surprise was given her a few evenings ago.

Many from here were in attendance at San Jose lecture given at Farmington on Tuesday and Wednesday of Mar. 5th and 6th. It was without doubt a great benefit to all interested.

The Foresters of this city banqueted at Pontiac on Tuesday evening, March 5th. An elegant time was reported by those in attendance. It is said that in a society of 900 members at Pontiac, not much musical ability could be found but the little village of Franklin society, (organized but a short time,) a fine orchestra was summoned and dispersed elegant music throughout the evening which was a surprise to the Pontiac lodge. Franklin has always been noted for her vocal talent.

Miss Addie Sly, assisted by her sister Sarah, gave a house party to a few of her friends on Thursday, March 7th. An elaborate dinner was served. The center-piece consisted of white hyacinths and covers were laid for 12. Place cards were at each plate representing different cities, for each guest to study out while the hostess was serving up the dinner. In due time all were solved with the exception of one or two difficult ones, one of them being helped by a teacher. The guests were highly delighted to know that they had won out first. After dinner Miss Sadie, as guide, took the guests over the spacious, new house of Miss Addie's, which is a credit to the architect as well as a beauty in every respect. With music and social conversation and other amusements, the day was all too quickly passed. After which all left for their respective homes. It was a day long to be remembered.

AT THE THEATRES. LYCEUM. "Me, Him and I." Hurtig & Scaunon's successful spectacular musical comedy sensation, featuring the trio of quaint comedians, Watson, Kelly and Arlington, which comes to the Lyceum Sunday afternoon for a week's engagement, might bear the subtitle of "A Trip to the Klondike," since the party has to do entirely with the efforts of an assorted band of prospectors and adventurers to reach the Northwestern "Eldorado." There is continuous laughter every minute, bright, snappy music, and handsome costumes.

The engagement opens with a Sunday matinee, in addition to which the regular Wednesday and Saturday matinees will be given.

"The Burglar's Daughter," from the pen of Owen Davis, will be the offering at the Whitney for one week, commencing Sunday afternoon. In writing this play Mr. Davis has aimed to reach the people and excite interest of the most exacting theatre-goers by presenting a series of sensational events woven into a story full of human character studies, and in this he has been singularly successful.

The engagement is for one week with matinees daily except on Wednesday.
