Every customer, whether buyer or seller, who has done business with the real estate department of the Exchange Bank; will tell you if they have been well treated or not. Ask them. But if you have real estate to sell, ask the man at the Bank. If you sell the property yourself, he won't expect or ask any commission. Ask him.

Petitions are numerous in our midst and all are signed regardless. The latest out is for the marshal to change from day to night work. I. Lee Truax is the circulator and reports only three as refusing to sign it. Their reason is good too. They would prefer to have the pumping station run all night rather than shut down. We will hurrah for that change also.

Henry Blair, of near Orion, called on us a few days ago and made THE ECCENTRIC treasury rejoice. He has a fine farm of nearly 80 acres right near this favorite summer resort. Has two likes on his farm and part of another. Raises all kinds of farm products and can catch fine pike and not trespass on anybody. He is real well, happy and glad he's living. What more can one ask?

The Fred M. Warner Cheese Company recently filed articles of association to manufacture cheese and other products at Farmington, Franklin and Novi in Oakland county; at Pigeon and Kilmanagh in Huron county, and at Plymouth and Livonia in Wayne county. M. H. Blunt, auctioneer, will sell for Mrs. Sophia Jonas and Louis Jonas, on their premises known as the John Jonas farm, one mile north and one and one-half miles east of Royal Oak, on Saturday, March 23rd, at 10 o'clock, sharp, the following property: two horses, 8 head of cattle, 4 shoats, all farming tools, two top buggies, lumber wagon, harnesses, cauldron kettle, hay forks, heating stove, etc., etc. Lunch at noon. Mrs. Henry Ward, of Pontiac, has begun two civil suits in Justice Snowdon's court against Joseph Erard and Lee Kramer in which she charges them with fishing in a part of Square Lake, belonging to the Ward property after they had been forbidden to do so. Mrs. Ward objected to the defendants' fishing on the lake, claiming they are professional fishermen. She says they caught the fish in great quantities and sold them to Pontiac fish markets.

James Robinson and family are all comfortably settled in their new home on Woodward Ave., the Quick house. Mr. Robinson has made some needed changes in his new home and as time rolls around will make a few more and then will own the pleasantest spot on Woodward in the village. Mr. Robinson for years and years has been a conductor on the D. G. H. & M. R'y, and we are pleased and proud to have him select Birmingham for a home. Good sense.

Being about to quit the mill business I will sell on the premises, known as the James Parks' farm, five miles south of Birmingham, on the Southfield road, on Monday, March 25, 1907, commencing at one o'clock p. m., the following property; three work horses, 1 thoroughbred Jersey new milch cow, 1 fat hog, lumber wagon, buggies, cultivators, one sleigh, harness, etc., etc. Will close out everything. Fred Brace, prop'r. M. H. Blunt, auctioneer. Waldo Blunt, clerk.

Being about to quit farming, on account of poor health, I, C. A. Kelley, will clean out everything at auction, on my premises, known as the old I. Mabee farm, 2½ miles west of Troy Corners, on Tuesday April 2nd. '07, commencing at one o'clock p. m., sharp, the following described property; span of brown geldings, wt. 2400 lbs. one Needle colt, coming two years old, one one-year old Needle colt, four cows, 40 Plymouth Rock hens, all farming tools and implements, sett of double harness, two sett of whiffletrees, and many other articles. The ladies of the M. E. church have reason to be proud of their very successful St. Patrick's banquet held at the church parlors last Monday evening. Dr. Ryan, of Detroit, presided as toastmaster and made the hit of the evening. All toasts were entertainingly responded to and everybody had a most enjoyable social evening. The attendance nearly put the promoters into a state of panic by their numbers. Tables were reset and all supplied and more tickets could have been sold as many disappointed ones were turned away. Financially, socially and oratorically the event was satisfactory to all. Next year the ladies propose to lay covers for 200. The Irish day is a big thing for the Birmingham M. E. ladies,—bless 'em.

Gilbert A. Watkins, general manager for Michigan of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Co., of Philadelphia, for nearly thirty years, died Sunday night at the family home, 176 Bagg street. He was 69 years of age and seven years ago sufferered a stroke of paralysis, and though later he partially recovered he never regained his strength. He was one of best known insurance men in the country. Mr. Watkins is survived by his widow and three daughters, Mrs. Abbie Major and Mrs. Abbie Dunk, both of Detroit, and Mrs. W. C. Wood, Jr., of St. Paul. Mr. Watkins was owner for years of the celebrated Watkins' pony farm, adjoining our village on the west side, and had a host of warm personal friends, in this vicinity, who sympathize with the afflicted family.

Last Thursday, while Capt. and Mrs. Hiram Still, of the Maples, corner of Adams avenue, and Beverly road, were enjoying home surroundings, and the peaceful, simpler life, their just due, down upon them swooped, without a note of warning, the following happy jolly and noisy crowd; Capt. A. J. McKay, Commodore of the great D. C. Line, and Mrs. McKay, Capt. L. M. Stoddard, wife and mother, Capt. W. H. Campau and wife, Capt. H. C. McCallum and wife, Capt. Wm. McLean and wife, Capt. W. H. Williams and wife, Capt. F. C. Hart and wife, Capt. W. H. Oades and wife and Mrs. C. L. Wilson. This annual "Talkfest" is a trick of this nautical crowd, visiting first the home of one member and then another. They always carry their own provisions, and all sat down to a six-o'clock Cadillac dinner, and in good time returned to their respective homes, full and very happy.

Worked Like a Charm.

No inflammation followed; the Salve simply healed the wound." Heals every sore, burn and skin disease. Guaranteed at Whitehead & Mitchell's and Cobb & Cobb's, druggists. 25c.

Does Your Heart Beat

Yes. 100,000 times each day. Does it send out good blood or bad blood? You know, for good blood is good health; bad blood, bad health. And you know precisely what to take for bad blood—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Doctors have endorsed it for 60 years.

One frequent cause of bad blood is a sluggish liver. This promotes constipation. Poisonous substances are then absorbed into the blood. Keep the bowels open with Ayer's Pills.
