

COUNTRY EDITOR AN OLD PIONEER AN AGREEMENT HE CAN'T SEE IT

The Country Editor in His Own Paper Upholds Decency, Progress, Enlightenment and Morality.

It occurred to us to write as we ran over our 40 or 50 exchanges to note the moral tone in them. These papers are of all sizes and grades, from every variety of town, and are edited by practical men who are pretty well acquainted with the world, the flesh and the devil.

Mrs. Elvira Hamilton Roosevelt, the First White Child Born in Oakland County, Dies in Detroit.

Mrs. Elvira Hamilton Roosevelt, whose interment took place last week Monday at Flint, was the widow of Cornelius Roosevelt, a cousin of President Roosevelt.

Since the grandfathers of President Roosevelt and Mrs. Graham were, brothers, and she was proud of the fact that she was the second cousin of the nation's chief executive, and the wife of his chief executive.

W. B. Clizbe Tells why the Library Proposition is a Good For Our Aspiring, Growing Village.

The Ladies Library Association agree that when the Library Board, and the Village Board get a suitable offer for the present building, and the land it occupies, together with 40 or 50 feet of land fronting on Woodward Avenue, at the south end, it may be sold and the proceeds devoted to constructing a new Library and Municipal building on the corner. This makes a reasonable early date and without the village ever raising a dollar for building purposes.

Perhaps We Could If He Had a Pair of Opera Glasses—Yes—Now We Wonder.

I believe the people are heartily sick of having the owners of the building, called the Library Building, trying to unload it onto the people, having seen and talked with a good many tax payers. I believe the owners will find in the end that they are trying to sell something the taxpayer does not want.

And of these editors, we know many personally, and of all those we know not one is a drinking man, not one is a gambler, not one is a libertine. Most of them are well read, most of them good judges of people and events.

SOME GOOD RULES

About Rural Delivery Routes and Post-offices That Everyone Should Read.

- 1. Do not stamp letters, especially in winter, as the carrier has taken off his mittens and will spend some time looking for pennies.
2. Avoid placing the correct change in the box as the carrier always carries a national bank in his vest pocket.
3. If you desire a two-cent stamp, a postal card, three stamped envelopes, do not write your needs on a slip of paper and thus annoy the carrier.

REMINISCENCES

A Few Incidents in the Life of Mrs. Mary Chase, One of the Pioneers of Oakland County.

My first recollections of Mrs. Mary Chase was one Sabbath morning, when I saw a lovely, young, stranger lady in the choir of the Baptist church at Royal Oak, she always attended there as she was a Baptist.
