HOME NOTES.

The Exchange Bank opens every morning at 8 o'clock standard time and closes every day at 4 o'clock standard time; Sundays and holidays excepted.

How does Mayor Smith sound anyway? Alderman T. B. Smith is not so bad either.

Miss C. M. Cline, of Detroit, has been visiting with Capt. and Mrs. Still, of The Maples, the past week.

The work on the inside of the Franklin church is progressing. They are getting ready to lath and plaster.

A span of work mares for sale. Weight, 3,000 pounds. Seven and eight years old. CHAS. PARKS, R. F. D. No. 4. 22mar

Read the list of books printed in another column and see if we can afford to withhold such reading from our people.

Clyde Brooks, of Detroit, made this office a pleasant call Monday last and cheerfully contributed his dollar to the worthy poor.

The next meeting of the art needlework class will be at the home of Mrs. W. Bray, Thursday, March 14th, from 1:30 to 4 p. m., standard time.

Martin Potts and danghter, formerly of the Troy Peabody farm, made their many friends a short, pleasant call Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

R. J. Coryell enjoyed the horticultural meeting at Farmington this week and says it was a pronounced success and a most enjoyable instructors' meet.

The W. F. M. S., of Frnnklin, met at Mr. Bingham's hall, Thursday of this week. The ladies made preparations for the branch meeting held in April.

A shadow social given by the Freshman class, on Friday evening, March 8, at Mrs. Frank Evans'. All come. Prices restricted to $1.25. Chickenpie supper.

The Rev. Dr. Mockridge, rector of the Church of the Messiah, Detroit, will preach in St. James church on Friday evening. The service will begin at 7 o'clock.

The ladies of the dancing class will give a "topsy-turvy assembly," Friday, March 15, to which all the young men of the dancing class are cordially invited. Music by Guy.

The best farm in Southfield can now be rented. It is the P. C. Simonson farm. Call at this office for particulars, that is, we will place you in communication with its owner. 15mar

In honor of her guest, Mrs. E. J. Ruelbach, from St. Louis, Mo., Mrs. Jas. L. Todd gave a luncheon and entertained her guests with "500." The St. Louis lady did enjoy her Michigan visit.

The Ladies' Aid Society, of the Baptist church, will hold their monthly business meeting and dinner Wednesday, Mar. 13th, at Mr. Miller's just east of Circle City. All are cordially invited to attend.

The early bird catches the worm of course. The early pullet is the one that will make the strongest layer. A Bradley incubator will get you early chicks and strong ones. Ask N. B. Blumberg for catalogue.

Last week Thursday a lady of our village lost, either on the trolley car at 6 o'clock, or in the village, or on Adams Avenue, a handsome, valuable handkerchief, valued as a keepsake. Finder please leave at this office.

It didn't take John Barclay, Sup't. of the D. U. R. here, long to raise $15 for the destitute Patchett family. Being a case of "got to," he simply went out and got the money very easily. The boys were all willing.

The ladies of Mary D. Hive, 393, are to entertain the ladies of Big Beever and Royal Oak Hives, this Friday afternoon and evening at Maccabee hall. All members are urged to be present and furnish something for the table.

The ladies of the M. E. church are making elaborate preparations for a banquet to be given Monday, March 18, in memory of St. Patrick's day. This joyful occasion will occur in the basement of the church. Further particulars next week.

The executive committee of the K. of P. party, held last Friday evening, want to give thanks to the ladies who decorated the K. of P. hall, and also to the K. of P. ladies who baked the cakes, and also to the K. of P. boys for their kindness and their help.

The dancing party at Dan'l Allison's last week was a grand success. A large number of Mr. and Mrs. Allison's friends surprised them, had a dance, a nice supper, and in departing wished them the best of luck on the M. B. Armstrong farm near North Farmington.

Aaron Perry, attorney for the village of Birmingham, commenced a civil suit against William Parks, in Justice Campbell's court, Mar. 4, 1907, to recover costs for building the side-walk adjacent to his property on Chester Street, in said village.

H. A. George, of near Big Beaver, has bought Frank Shoup's grocery. Mr. George will maintain the good standing of the store, and The Era bespeaks for him a continued good patronage. Mr. Shoup will remain in the store for a while.—Rocester Era.

Married, at the home of the bride's parents in Redford, Tuesday afternoon at 4 p. m., Miss Mary Forker and Geo. C. Douglas, by Rev. H. G. Patterson. Fifty guests were present and a merry time was had. The happy couple left amid showers of rice, old shoes, etc.

The caucus was a tame affair at the Town Hall last Monday night. Not much serious wrangling and when the meeting broke up they had nominated the following citizens' ticket: For president, Edward R. Smith; for clerk, G. H. Satterlee; for trustees two years, Phillip Schlaack, Theron B. Smith, E. A. O'Neal; for assessor, T. H. Cobb.

John Stabler and Ed. Dean, of near Petoskey, returned from Nine-mile Pointe Sunday with about 400 pounds of fresh trout that they caught during the three days they were there. Mr. and Mrs. Stabler remembered Mr. and Mrs. Mudge by sending by express two fine fish which weighed about 8 pounds, all ready for dinner, which they enjoyed very much.

Cast your eye over the newly revised real estate column this week and if there is anything there that excites your curiosity, just ask the man at the bank and he will tell you all about it. Honest, there are some prices there that will be the means of your death if you take them to heart, specially n imbers 215 and 214 and particularly 210. That's the cheapest ever.

A rice, pleasant call was received by this office lately from Richard Millard, of near Pontiac, and his brother, Robert Millard, of Kanawha, Iowa. These brothers had not met for over 18 years, and the visit of Robert was a surprise, he having come to Chicago with a couple of carloads of hogs and cattle and took it into his head to run over and surprise his brother. He did.

Elephant librarie I belive the people are hardly Sick of having the owners of the building called the Library trying to unload it on the people, having seen and talked with a good many tax payers I Bliеve the owners wil find in the End they are trying to Sell suthin the Tax Pair duzzent want nohow I do nt Bleive your library has in creosed the property in the villige Sihce it waz bilt. a tax payer.

M. H. Blunt, auctioneer, will sell for Mrs. Sophia Jonas and Louis Jonas, on their premises known as the John Jonas farm, one mile north and one and one-half miles east of Royal Oak, on Saturday, March 23rd, at 10 o'clock, sharp, the following property: two horses, 8 head of cattle, 4 shoats, all farming tools, two top buggies, lumber wagon, harnesses, cauldron kettle, hay forks, heating stove, etc., etc. Lunch at noon. Waldo Blunt, clerk.

New books in our library—the library that we want to save the people: "Famous Men and Women for Young People;" "Diargo, or the Age of Fire;" "History of the Johnstown Flood;" "Life, Speeches and Public Services of Abraham Lincoln;" "Some Children of Adam;" "Our Country in Peace and War;" "Our New Possessions;" "History of America;" "Nineteen Beautiful Years," by Francis Willard; "Sports and Pastimes for Boys and Girls;" "The History of Man:"

Samuel Cromey is going to have an auction sale, on Tuesday, March 19th, at 10 o'clock, a. m. Having rented his farm, M. H. Blunt, auctioneer, will sell on the premises, two miles north and two and one-half miles east of Royal Oak, and one-half mile south and two and one-half miles west of Warren, his entire plant consisting in part of 5 horses, 7 head of cattle, all farming implements, 700 bushels of corn, 100 bushels of oats, 1 steel range, some household furniture, 4 tons of hay and very many other things. Lunch at noon, of course.

The mass meeting at Library Hall, Tuesday night last, to discuss the library question, made clear to many befuddled intellects, just what the Ladies' Library Association are willing to do for the village. It is great. All those not in favor of the plan should have been present and heard it explained clearly by W. D. Clizbe. His article in another column tells the story. The attendance that evening was light, owing to the weather, but with one or two exceptions, all were unanimously in the thought that Birmingham has a great offer at her door. Retiring Mayor Dr. D. M. Johnston made the speech of his life and it is too bad that everyone opposed to the gift was not there to hear the talk.

The annual K. of P. ball and card party last Friday evening, was distinctly the event of the season in this village. Eighty couple participated and everybody pronounced it the very finest. The dancing was in this order: a quadrille, a two-step then a waltz. This gave every dancer plenty of his favorite. The daintiest lunch was served in the K. of P. lodge room, across the way, and the waiters were in three relays under, Drs. J. L. Campbell, D. M. Johnston and N. T. Shaw. Three seatings gave all a chance to enjoy a substantial supply of chicken sandwiches, cakes, fruit and ice cream. This way of serving the crowd was an original feature and heartily enjoyed by all. The Chamber of Horrors, conducted by Wiley Bell, Phil Schlaack, Dan Johnston, Ed. O'Neal, and a few such, made big money. The dance broke up at two and a delighted but tired crowd went happily homeward.

Pale, Thin, Nervous?

Then your blood must be in a very bad condition. You certainly know what to take, then take it—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. If you doubt, then consult your doctor. We know what he will say about this grand old family medicine.

This is the first question your doctor would ask: "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that daily action of the bowels is absolutely essential to recovery. Keep your liver active and your bowels regular by taking laxative doses of Ayer's Pills.
