Congregational Church Notes.

The entertainment given this Friday evening by the Children's Society, of the church, known as "The Children of the King," promises to be a very entertaining affair.

The young people have decided to go to "The Beaver" with their entertainment, given at the town hall a short time since.

The men departed themselves very creditably in their effort at serving the public, at their supper given at the town hall last week.

Respect for the old-time Sabbath seems to be losing its place in the minds and hearts of the people, as the great ebb and flow of people on the Sabbath day gives evidence.

to be given by the Children's Society next Friday evening, promises to be a most entertaining affair, as the children and assistants are putting forth their best efforts to make it pleasing to those who attend.

William McCavey got a judgment in the Circuit court, Tuesday, against the Volig Brewing Co., of Detroit, of $4 cents and $56. costs.

The Hudson & Haman plot has finally been accepted by the village officials, but not until all streets were opened, the owners of this subdivision having kicked against streets being opened on their property.

Mrs. H. Carew is fitting up the old house owned by her on the corner of Third and Center Streets, that was occupied for several years as a saloon.

There are now four churches in this village; the M. E., the Congregational, and two German Lutheran churches, and the St. Mary's Catholic church with a very large membership.

The long successful term of school in the German district will soon close for the summer vacation. With Miss Skinner at the head of the school, the pupils are looking forward to the last day which closes with a picnic at Orchard Lake.

The dedication services of the M. P. church took place on Sunday, May 19th: A large crowd was in attendance and the result was that the big indebtedness of $1,500 or more was lifted before leaving the edifice, for which the people of Franklin feel highly delighted, and very thankful to those who responded so quickly.

Miss Amy German has her coat, not yet one year old, made quite well broken, and on pleasant day for a drive.

Only three degrees above freezing here Sunday night after the rain.

The Rampton house is still for rent. Inquire of George Rampton, Utica, Mich.

Our school closed last Friday after the exercises. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. P. Brand entertained the Ladies' Aid at her home Thursday instead of Mrs. G. C. Clark.

Miss R. Sagendorf, of Pontiac, Sunday at her grandmother's, Mrs. Jane Niles, who is well of late.

Oliver Phillips is very sick with the mumps. He was exposed to them while in Farmington recently.

Miss R. Niles is home again after an absence of three weeks in Detroit caring for her aunt, Mrs. E. S. Donaldson.

Erna Bailey is back home, having spent several weeks in Virginia. He hopes to return to a warmer climate in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Castleton and children, of Utica, were Sunday callers at J. Hadden's, also Mr. and Mrs. George Harris, of Colerain.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter have suffered a severe loss of clothing and household goods. The young couple had recently gone to housekeeping.

Hiram Terry, wife and daughter, May, are at the Hadden home. They were from Saginaw to attend the funeral of Edward Terry, of Utica, who died Friday after a prolonged illness.

Kidney complaint kills more people than any other disease. This is due to the fact that the disease begins so insidiously that it is recognized only when it is too late to prevent the development of fatal disease if taken in time. All druggists.

Mrs. A. Harf is on the sick list. Herman Busch was a Pontiac visitor several weeks in Virginia.

Mrs. A. Jenny was buried at Warren last Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Grimms is very poorly at this writing.

Mrs. Charles Wilson was on the sick list last week.

Artists have no trouble in securing good photographs. The best have discarded cameras and have become models in face and form since taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea.

Franklin ...

D. E. Pins is staying at G. Benjamin's for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Irish have bought them a very pretty home in Farmington.

Angie Irish, who has been attending school in Tennessee, is soon to return to her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. McKinney have been visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Dunbar.

The Aid Society which convenes in June, will meet with Miss Gaylord Forman for tea near Orchard Lake.

The busy days of house-cleaning will soon be over, and the pretty month of roses will soon be with us again.

Myrtle Laura Midgebey and sister, Myrtle of Pontiac, were in attendance at the dedication services at Franklin, and will remain for a short time with friends here.

Maggie Sealey, who has been working at Parko, Davis & Co.'s, Detroit, is visiting friends in this vicinity, and expects soon to go to Grace's home, where she expects to remain for some time.

The many friends of Arch Adams, of Pontiac, were surprised to hear of his marriage on Wednesday, May 22nd, to a young lady of Davidsburg. Please accept the congratulations of Franklin friends.

The many friends of Lurine Irish who will be graduated from the high school in Sterling, Kansas, and in September will attend college and take up the study of Latin mostly.

Mrs. S. I. Slade and daughter, Helen, of Detroit, are guests at the home of the parents of the former, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ruell. They are intending to return to their summer home near this place in June.

The German district will soon close for the summer vacation. With Miss Skinner at the head of the school, the pupils are looking forward to the last day which closes with a picnic at Orchard Lake.

Some in this vicinity have had the misfortune to lose their peach trees just coming into bearing by the cold hard frosts of winter. Surely it discourages after looking forward for two or three years to the time of fruition.

Franklin ...

Mrs. Joseph Croft, and Mrs. Henry Croft and son were in Birmingham last Saturday.

Louis Granzow has finished a ditch on the north side of his farm, to let off some of the water.

Uncle Matthew Shafer will move into his new quarters the last of this month or the first of June.

Mrs. Dickinson, of Birmingham, is visiting her son, Fred Harris, of Southfield for a few days.

Last Monday C. G. Jackson drilled in about 16 acres of corn,—one of the very first in this parts.

Mrs. M. J. Parks has just finished a good road fence west of her house, and will soon replace it with a better one.

V. B. Miller has two good hired men for this season, and the good work goes gaily on, whether V. is in sight or not.

James Edgar and sons of the famous Evergreen farm, have set out a good many apple trees to fill out the old orchard.

H. A. Miller will build 80 rods of new wire fence on the west eighty, in the near future, as the posts are all on the ground.

E. L. Parson has removed his old fence and soon replaces it with a new one that will be an ornament to his large and beautiful farm.

James Sharp is giving his large house a fine coat of paint, the effect is grand as applied to that artistic wielder of the brush, Mr. Elmer Monroe.

Caleb G. Jackson has set out an acre of strawberry plants, and pretty soon it will be strawberry socials, instead of ice cream. So prepare yourselves.

John Cavanaugh has painted his barns, and it makes a big improvement, and John truly says it pays to keep up your fences and buildings.

George Code and son are bustling this spring. They have their own feed mill and when out of feed, all they have to do, is to steam up and let 'er go Gallogher.

An ice cream social at Caleb G. Jackson's this Friday night. Everybody is invited. You will have a good time. Don't miss it. Big house. Lots of room. All welcome. Lets go.

Miss Minnie Bell has just returned from New Concord, Ohio, where she has been visiting our old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hillman.

Last week Charles D. Marter bought a Holstein bull from H. M. Russell. It is a registered thoroughbred, Charles shows good judgment in this getting in line for a fine string of milkers.

Clark Blumberg is "breaking" a fine three-year-old buck, he is rounding him of the good old days, years ago, when every farmer raised from two to four colts, and winter time was colt-braking time.

There was a birthday party at the residence of William Shepherd, and in honor of himself. We are glad to know that William is just sweet 39 last Friday, and there was a jolly good bunch of friends with him, to properly observe the day.

Well, well! our old friend Earl S. Timmon has moved back on the old homestead, and is happily at work and gaily singing, "there's no place like home, sweet home. He has rented one near four hundred acres.

Mrs. Ann Duffy celebrated her 77th birthday last Friday. A few of the old neighbors were invited, and a very pleasant time was spent telling of the happenings 40 years ago and more.

Mrs. Duffy is hale and hearty, and bids fair to see the 100 mark.

AT THE THEATRES.

LYCEUM.

"All on account of Eliza," is the offering next week, of the Vaughan Glasser & Stock Co. at the Lyceum. This famous company is playing to crowded houses at every performance. This play is conceded to be Louis Mann's and Clara Lipman's greatest success. Boldly however Mr. Glasser will launch into this grotesque comedy and do nothing as he fits the role, having played it a number of times in other cities, that next week's patrons, will think more than ever of the man who produces the best of plays at cheap prices. Mr. Glasser sinks completely into the part, he is a doddering old man of whims, weakness and fancy. He not only looks the part but talks, walks, breathes and looks it. Other parts in the play are well taken by the different members of the company, and the introduction of several children in the school room scene is an interesting feature of the performance. The engagement opens with a Sunday matinee, in addition to which the regular Wednesday and Saturday matinees will be given.

WHITNEY.

The management of the Whitney Theatre begs to announce the first appearance in Detroit, of the Yiddish or Yiddish Yiddish Opera Company, direct from the Windsor Theatre, New York City. This company is headed by the greatest living Yiddish prima donna, Mrs. Regina Fryger and the celebrated Yiddish actor and tenor, Mr. K. Javiler, supported by their own company of players, under the management of Mr. Edwin A. Reikin. They will give two performances only, Sunday matinee and evening, May 28th.

WHY NOT

Let your wife or daughter open an account in her own name and pay all her own bills and the household expenses with her own check. She will like it and it will help her business education. You may not live always, and your wife may have to take charge of what you have. A little previous experience will be an advantage. We will take pleasure in receiving the account.
