A NEW FISH STORY

A True Friend of The Eccentric Tells the Following Fish Story-Now Can You Believe It.

Hello! Hello! Who is this talking? Mr. Mitchell, of THE ECCENTRIC? Well, what can I do for you, Mr. Mitchell?!'
"I want to know if there is any news

"I want to know if there is any news out your way. There is plenty of news, but I don't tell everybody. But if you can keep a secret, I'll put is fles in your ear. I'll tell you a good fish story. "You might have heard that one about how Jonsh swallowed the whale. You have heard that Y Well, there is other news. Have, you heard about that main in New York, by the name of Thaw? How he got—Ohl, join have heard shout thim. Well, you are well-peated. But there iskness ure fish story abouts chap here who thinks he is some pumpkins on the fish. Well, they say he casight 12,000 in one day, and I know right where he hid them (sill he could not eat.)

he engight 12,000 is one day, and I know right where held them (all he could not eat.)

"Now, Mr. Mitchell, you must promise not to tell Webb Brity, nor Mr. Wilstehead, nor those doctors. If you do, our scheme is spoiled. Now, there is to be no one in this club but you, Mr. Balley, Mr. Ballard, of Detroit, and me. Mr. Ballard was here with his high-laced boots on, and they say he helped stach and helped hide these fish. There is also a young fellow by the of Clarrene Helb, who is a worthy nimred to belong to our dub. He was out all day with his old girty and idd ig good work watching where these 12,000 trout were hid. Now that's all the members ing editor. But keeps the the sporting of the service of t

Boom! Boom!! Boom!!!

That's the way Grant's guns thundered af Vicksburg and Lee's guns thundered at Fredericksburg. Each of them thundered a little louder than the other fellow at each place and won the battle. The war is o'ver long ago, but booming still wins.

Make this town and

Make this town and the country around it your battleground, and then boom!

If you boom loud enough, people will come from afar off to find out what's up. Then a littly more booming will take them prisoners and add them to the population. Then they will begin and other willing cang, and other willing cang.

tory of every town on earth that amounts to anything more than a hill of beans.

Booming may be done in many ways. A board of trade can do it. A commercial club or business men's club can do it. You can do it individ-y.

If you don't believe in this town, why do you live here? If you do believe in it, why don't you boom it? Every new family means money in your pocket if you re in business here or own property here. If you make your living by working here, every increase of population tends to, increase your weages, every new industry brought to town tends to enlarge your opportunities for making a good living.

Batteries in a battle boom together. If only one gun booms now and then it helps some, but when they all local together something big is going To happen right off. It's just the same with town booming. When we all boom eighter, the things we desire to have happen will begon happening.

Now, suppose you who read this suggest through the colours of this paper some method of massing our boom batteries and making anoise that will bring people running into this town to go into pusiness, start a factory, develop some of our natural resources.

ABOUT FORESTRY COME, WAKEUP Prof. Roth, of Ann Arbor, Lectures

Before the Women's Literary Club and B. H. S. Literary Club.

Last Thursday evening the Women's Literary Club and the High School Literary Club held a meeting in the high school room. The roll call consisted of a forestry catechism. The first question was, "What can trees do for you?" Ans—"Trees beautify your home. After roll call Prof. Roth, State Forester and done than $800 to your home." After roll call Prof. Roth, State Forester and done than $600 to your home." After roll call Prof. Roth, State Forester and Brof. Roth, State Forester and Forestry at Am Arbor, gave an interesting talk on that subject. The professor is thoroughly in sympathy with his theme and is an isous that Michigan should awake to the needs of the hour. Many enjoyed the lake and we hope some day to have him with us again.
