

Nothing I Ate Agreed With Me.

WHY SHE REFUSED HIM

By Tom Masson

(Copyright by Joseph B. Bowles.)

"Well, maybe you did that for me or maybe the governor got mad. I don't know which. If he lived so much by himself, of late years, and the old fellow is crabbled, I guess. But he did turn me down hard."

"I don't know that I can vouch for it all—it was some time ago. But the main point was that, if I married you, I should disinherit me. My allowance would continue, but no more. He must have gone direct to you to make a sure thing of it, didn't he?"

"Yes," she said, "several times. He doesn't want you to marry me. Not a bit."

"Well, it doesn't make any difference to me whether he does or not. I can go out and hustle for myself. Money isn't everything."

"The boarding house bell rang—not an unusual occurrence. Outside there was the slow snoring of an automobile."

"Helen drew," he said, "what's the answer?"

"See brushed away a tear. 'I cannot marry you,' she said. 'You're too good for me.'"

"Helen drew," he said, "what's the answer?"

"That's a good joke," he said. "Too good for you? Ha! Look here! Let's be honest with each other. I've had"

"What you mean," he said, "is that if I thought it best to consult the governor first, and that you wouldn't stand with him, before I found out where I stood with you?"

"I was," she said, "I was sure of myself. I knew the girl I wanted. That is everything in love."

"You seem to have gotten very wise all of a sudden."

"I was," she said, "I was sure of myself. I knew the girl I wanted. That is everything in love."

"I know what it is," he said. "It's your pride. Never mind I can wait for you. You don't care anything about the money, of course, but your conscience troubles you about my losing it naturally. Well, never mind. I'll show you. But now, dear, can't you give me some little word of encouragement?"

"I'm afraid," she said, "there is no hope for you. You see, I am going to marry this gentleman."

"The governor!" he exclaimed.

THE NEW INSURANCE AGENT

He Comes in With the New Law. Paul Morton on His Opportunity.

The new insurance law of the State of New York has opened up a promising field for both men and women with brains and energy in the sale of life insurance.

The prohibition against rebating and extravagant allowances to agents has driven out of the business the old type of insurance agent, who in many cases virtually bought his way with large rebates, instead of selling his place in business to professors, lawyers, school teachers of both sexes, and others, and that's just a beginning.

Paul Morton, president of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, has taken the chief part in bringing about this reorganization that is in keeping with the demands of public sentiment, and the standard he has set for his company. He says "I want no new agents, but men and women, but none except energetic, able and truthful people need apply. For such there is a splendid opportunity."

Mr. Morton's policy of injecting new and vigorous blood into the agency force of the Society is meeting with success in all parts of the country.

"Whiskers." "Whiskers," a word formerly used to designate the hair on the upper lip. Scott more than once speaks of "whiskers on the upper lip" and so does Defoe in "Robinson Crusoe". Johnson defined a "whisker" as the hair growing on the upper lip or cheek unshaven; a mustache. It seems to have taken its name from a comb which resembled a small brush, to which "whisker" properly meaning to sweep, and a "whisker" having been a particular kind of feather brush—used in the slaps of a former time, a switch or whip. In the seventeenth century a "whisker" signified among other things a brazen lie, a "whopper."

Seven Billion Gallons of Milk. The 7,000,000 gallons of commercial milk annually consumed represents an enormous white river pouring across the U. S. In every direction and in two new directions it is fast becoming a veritable river. It is fast becoming a veritable river. It is fast becoming a veritable river.

His Favorite Descent. "But why do you care to take children?" asked the lady who was hunting for a fat. "Because they take up so much room in the elevator," grumbled the despotical janitor. "Well, my little boy won't use the elevator. Will that satisfy you?" "No, if he don't use the elevator, he'll scratch up the steps every time he comes down. 'What? he won't come down the steps?' 'No, he will slide down the banisters.'"

SPECIAL TRAINS. National Editorial Association and Christian Endeavor Conventions. Personally conducted special trains via the Chicago, Union Pacific & Northwestern Line leave early in July for the Pacific Coast. Special excursion rates at very low rates for round trip, including sleeping car accommodations, meals, etc. All the advantages of a delightful and carefully arranged tour in congenial company. Write for literature and full particulars. S. A. Hutchison, Manager Tourist Department, 212 Clark Street, Chicago.

All Misfortune. "Pop," said Farmer Kortop's little boy, "what does it mean when you say 'misfortunes never come singly'?" "Well," replied Farmer Kortop, "the first time it comes, it's just the first of a lot. The best remedy for it is to get a well spilt that'll spill the tomatoes and then comes a dry spell that spays everything else."

Squaring Accounts. The man was near starting to declaim the sermon in his mind and he was trying to collect. He said the world thus: "You see, nature is pressing me with that I owe her a return. The world laughed: 'You pay the debt of nature first and then I'll come after.'—Kansas City Times.

On the Scents. Crismon Hambley: "Are you bringing gasoline in that automobile mister?" Sparks: "No, my friend. I'm bringing alcohol just for an experiment." Hambley: "What for?" Sparks: "Would you mind me hargin' on behind for a mile or so, just for de smell?" Puck.

DR. TALKS OF FOOD. Pres. of Board of Health. "What shall I eat?" is the daily inquiry of the fœdite is met with. I do not hesitate to say that in my judgment a large percentage of our people are fed by poorly selected and improperly prepared food. My personal experience with the fully-cooked food, known as Grape-Nuts, enables me to speak freely of its merits.

BACKACHE IS KIDNEYACHE.

Cure the Kidneys and the Pain Will Never Return.

Only one way to cure an aching back. Cure the cause, the kidneys. Thousands tell of cures made by Dr. Don's Kidney Pills.

My back ached day and night. I was languid, nervous and lame in the morning. Don's Kidney Pills helped me right away, and the great relief that followed has been permanent.

"Tainted Money" No New Thing. "Nay, nay, nay!" said the archbishop, waving a white, jeweled hand as the chief began to divulge some of his larger plans.

Face and Neck Covered with Inflamed Skin—Cure by Cuticura Remedies. "My baby's face and neck were covered with itching sores, eczema, and she suffered terribly for over a year. I took her to a number of doctors, and also to different colleges, to get her cured. Cuticura Remedies were recommended to me by Miss G. I did not use it at first, as I had tried so many other remedies without any effect.

WOMEN SUFFER

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing that their health is being ruined by their immediate assistance.

How many women do you know who are suffering from these symptoms? The cause may be easily traced to some feminine derangement which manifests itself in depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere or do anything, backache, dragging sensations, flatulency, nervousness, and sleeplessness.

These symptoms are bad warnings that there is danger ahead, and unless healed, a life of suffering or a serious operation is the inevitable result. The best remedy for all these symptoms is

MRS. LENORA BODENHAMER

Mrs. Lenora Bodenhamer, R. F. D. 1, Box 99, Kennerlyville, Mo., writes: "I suffered with stomach trouble and indigestion for some time, and nothing that I ate agreed with me. I was very nervous and experienced a continual feeling of uneasiness and fear. I took medicine from the doctor, but it did me no good."

"I found in one of your Peruna books a description of my symptoms. I then wrote to Dr. Hartman for advice. He said I had caught the germ. I took Peruna and Manly's Kidney Pills, and can now say that I feel as well as I ever did."

"I hope that all who are afflicted with the same symptoms will take Peruna, as it has certainly cured me. I have written similar letters to Dr. Hartman. Just one such case as this entitles Peruna to the candid consideration of every one similarly afflicted. It is the best of the testimony of one person who would ought to be the testimony of hundreds, yes thousands, of honest, sensible people. We have in our files a great many other testimonials."

A Counter Irritant. "I have made arrangements to prevent fraud in the circulation of 'No. 1,' answered Senator Sorghum: "I couldn't quite manage that. But I've done the next best thing to defeat the opposition's trickery. I've made arrangements that'll make their fraud so insignificant by comparison that it won't be noticed."

A Dig at Her. "O! dear," sighed Miss Maud, "I wish I knew of an effective way to prefer my complexion."

"If you keep the box in a cool place it will be all right, won't it?"

Mr. J. G. Haver, of 95 Willow St., Chicago, says: "I was sick for a week and a half, and I was very nervous and experienced a continual feeling of uneasiness and fear. I took medicine from the doctor, but it did me no good."
