Dr. Walter McBride is home for short vacation.
Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Roy are enjoying an outing—camping out at Pine Lake.
Mr. and Mrs. Schmuck, of Cleveland, Ohio, are guests at the home of Thomas Ward.
The Epworth League will hold a food sale, at A. R. Parks' market, Saturday afternoon.
Miss Cora Storz of Royal Oak, was the guest of Miss Ethel Johnston, a part of last week.
Mrs. Edick Parks, who has been seriously ill at her home on Pierce Street, is slowly recovering.
Mrs. Charles J. Mills passed a pleasant day Monday visiting with her mother, Mrs. John Baldwin.
Robert Hulbert, Fred Blending and John Campbell are fishing expedition to Elizabeth Lake last Saturday.
Last week was pleasantly passed by David Hanna, of Fairgrove, visiting among his relatives and "shaking" old friends.
It is a very cruel and bold robbery. It is a very cruel and bold robbery. It is a very cruel and bold robbery. It is a very cruel and bold robbery.

If the party who took the framed picture, "John and His Bear," from the wall in this office, will please return it, they will receive $1, the cost of the picture—and no questions asked.
The house of Mrs. Marc C. Tabor on Brown Street is rapidly approaching to a finish, and it is a beauty to see. The work engaged on the job has all done fine work and the result proves it.
Born, Wednesday June 19th, very early in the morning, to Mrs. Jno. Hanna, a son. Perhaps the young gentleman will be called Lyman P. Hanna. A good name is better than great riches.
The kindergarten class, of our high school, are covering themselves with glory by a fine exhibition of their handwork in their room all day to-day, Friday, June 21st. Every body interested in this work is invited to call.
Mrs. J. B. McCallister, of Brighton, Ont., visited her sister, Mrs. Stuffer, last week and took Leah and Bart home with her to spend a month, while their mother goes on a trout fishing trip with B. F. through northern Michigan.
Peter Kerr has under construction a fine home on the east side of Woodward Avenue. It will be of double veneer cement block variety, and when completed will be an ornament to the street.
Wm. G. Cray has this cement block contract and is nearing right on with the finished product.
The Michigan Pioneer and Historical Society will hold their annual meeting at Lansing Wednesday and Thursday, June 28th and 27th. The boys' Industrial School will furnish music and a delightful program will be furnished. Historical reminiscences will be recited and the thinning ranks of the pioneers will receive the honor due them.
Mrs. Ellen F. Peabody, of Detroit, is at the Pennsylvania Sanatorium at Detroit, now fully recovered from an attack of nervous prostration accompanied by a high fever. She had failed for several weeks before going to this cure and is delighted with her move and is due this week to return home. Her many friends will rejoice with her over her recovery.
The Baccalaureate sermon, given by the Rev. John Good at the U. M. church last Sunday evening, was one of the most interesting of its kind ever listened to by a Birmingham audience. The church was crowded to its limit, and all enjoyed the excellent words of advice spoken to the graduating class of 1907. The choir sang several fine selections and Dr. John Rainey rendered a solo in his usual pleasing manner.
About 50 couples enjoyed the dance given at the Johnston-Shaw hall last Friday evening by the young men of Birmingham. Fine music was furnished by Finlay's orchestra, of Detroit. The best of town guests were: Misses Adams and Winifred Couch, Miss Bowman and Mr. Lane, of Detroit; Miss Laura Donaldson, Miss Lillian Newman and Mr. Page, of Pontiac; and Harold Corson and friend, Mr. Walsh, of Ann Arbor.

Kind Greetings
Miss Mary Hulbert surprised at her home by a Large Party of Admiring Friends.
Last Monday evening the Hulbert home found itself suddenly filled with our townpeople, was for a time took complete possession, announcing that they had come to express to Miss Mary Hulbert their appreciation of the work she has recently done for the children of the young people and the good of the whole village. Papers to this effect were presented, signed by hundreds of our citizens. Those in charge stated that they had been unable to reach many of those who wished to add their names and that many had telephoned asking that they be added to the list. Miss Hulbert, in thanking the people for their approval, stated that hers had been no easy task as she had much criticism and that many had misjudged her motives, but that through all she had received the kind assistance of the school board and the loyal support of a great majority of the parents.

A NEW MAN IN OLD QUARTERS.
Vill Merrill, who recently leased the blacksmith and carriage repair shop of F. Richardson in Birmingham, has moved his family into the former residence of Mrs. Houghton, on Southfield Avenue.
Mr. Merrill comes to Birmingham from the far west, having long been a resident of Wyoming and Montana, where he has been in the "hoos" and blacksmith business nearly all his life. His father before him having operated a smithy for many years. The young man is said to be an expert in horse-shoeing as well as general blacksmithing and carriage and wagon repair work, and no doubt will receive a goodly share of local patronage. For some years Mr. Merrill was a member of Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show, being one of the famous scout's principal aides of having broncho-broke it was while performing in London, Eng., that his eldest daughter, was born. Wild west life, however, has become too strenuous for Mr. Merrill, and he is now settling down to sterner realities. He says he never came to Birmingham, a desirable residence than Birmingham, and therefore is more than pleased at being able to lease the Richardson shop for a term of years.
Mr. Merrill is possessed of a fund of hair-raising stories concerning life in the west.

OBITUARY.
Mrs. JOHN HAGERMAN, Died, at her home in this village, Tuesday, June 11th, 1907, Mrs. John Hagerman, aged 89 years. She had been in poor health for some time, and her death was due to a complication of disease and old age.
Adaline Angell was born in Warren Co. N. J., coming to Mich. with her husband, John Hagerman in 1863. They located at Bloomfield Hills, then known as Bloomfield Center, where they resided until they came to Birmingham, thirty two years ago. Mr. Hagerman died in this village eighteen years ago, since when Mrs. Hagerman with her daughter, Anna D. have lived very happily ever since.
Deceased is survived by five children: Mrs. W. H. Smith, Frank Hagerman and Miss Anna D. all residing in this village. William A. of Bloomfield Hills, and David A. of Houston, Tex. Her funeral was held from her late home on Thursday last at four o'clock p. m. Burial in Greenwood cemetery. She was truly one of old Oakland's real pioneer, staunch and true, one of the class whose ranks are being rapidly thinned by death.

The Song of the Hair
There are four verses. Verse 1. Ayer's Hair Vigor stops falling hair. Verse 2. Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the hair grow. Verse 3. Ayer's Hair Vigor cures dandruff. Verse 4. Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the scalp healthy, and keeps it so. It is a regular hair-food; this is the real secret of its wonderful success.
The best kind of a testimonial—held for over sixty years—made by the proprietors of the hair. Also made by SARGENT & WELCH, PHILADELPHIA, PA. PREPARED BY AYER'S CHEMICAL CO., LOWELL, MASS.

To the Public
Having leased my Blacksmith and Carriage-Repair Shop in Birmingham for a term of years to Vill Merrill, I bespeak for him the patronage of the friends and acquaintances in the vicinity whom I served for so many years. I assure the public generally that Mr. Merrill is a competent workman, and that his charges will be reasonable. F. F. Richardson.
