

ON DOLLAR PER TRAIN TO AVONDA... BIRMINGHAM, FRIDAY, JUNE 6.

It is a mighty poor state that cannot scare up a favorite son. Does the Aero club know that hot air has gone out of fashion in ballooning?

Europe can't out what as usual this year, but it will have to pay the price of loose change to prevent big farmers from taking it to the Rio hotel.

Isn't there some substitute that will make him forget his troubles? A South Dakota man advertised for a wife who is dumb. It were superfluous to add that he is a widower.

An Italian in Pennsylvania committed suicide because he was tired of "America." And presumably he came over because he was tired of Italy, hard to suit.

In view of the fact that Mars is to be nearer the earth this summer than it has been before for 17 years, it seems a particularly appropriate time to hold the peace conference at The Hague.

William E. Corey's purchase of a steam yacht is assurance that he has enough loose change to prevent big farmers from taking it to the Rio hotel.

Some clergymen in Philadelphia are anxious to whether the "pews" or "benches." Our experience is that she doesn't do either when you want her—and you can't always put dependence on an incubator.

George Bernard Shaw is a great lover of music. He was invited by a friend one day to hear a string quartet from Italy. Throughout the programme he sat with a stony look on his face.

Something alleged to be brand new in airships was tested at the Jamestown exposition the other day, when the machine machine in the air, and the ground, starting, moving about in any desired direction and alighting with ease and accuracy at the point of destination.

Leibnitz, one of the great men of literature, who died in 1716, wished to join a society of alchemists who were prospecting a mine in the Philippines. He was rejected by the philosopher's stone. He compiled a dictionary from the writings of the most celebrated alchemists and sent it to the society. The letter contained the title and most obscure terms he could find, and he himself, he said, did not understand a word of it. Alfred to be thought ignorant, the society had to make it its meetings and made him secretary.

Liverpool servants are not protesting against the national capital. Last winter not a single official household maintained the yellow or crimson garbed females, and even the most illustrious embassies and legations have tended down the gorgeous, satin and velvet of their saloons. The Pierre Lottis and the Belmonts and the George Vanderbilts still hold out against this decree toward the simpering, the hostesses and the waiters at the capital are content with their house servants in plain black clothes.

It has been declared by a lecturer to the Mothers' club of New York city that the official color of this country should be shown in artificial designs, is pulled to the head and breast, and the fact that the female eagle is larger and stronger than the male. Nevertheless, most persons think of the metaphorical bird as a male. Ornithologists say that the conventional color does not indicate the sex, and the law is plain. In the decorative style accepted by the continental powers, June 20, 1782, the pronoun "he" is used three times with reference to the bird.

Father Bernard Vaughan, the noted English priest, recently referred to the manner in which some women who, by bleeding poverty, afflicted free treatment for her child. He said that she had a motor car with the money thus saved.

It is estimated that Fricke took $200,000 in the recent stock market. The Pittsburgh magazine should be glad that he was so industrious and saving in his youth or he never would have had that much money to lose.

CHILD FOUND BURIED IN SAND PIT AS DREAMED BY WOMAN.

Monroe's Celebration. Monroe, not being satisfied with pulling off a huge muskrat carnival every winter that surpasses any event of the kind in the history of the city, decided to celebrate the centennial of the birth of the great man on the 14th of July.

Refused Diplomas. The graduation of the '07 class of the Bellevue high school was marked by the fact that none of the graduates received diplomas because of their refusal to attend the school board. Some time ago the board decided that each of the graduates must attend the school board.

Rockwood business men are preparing to hold a fair this fall. It is said in military circles that the moment Gov. Warner signs the bill regarding the National Guard of Michigan will technically drop out of existence, and that efforts will be made to reconstitute the National Guard in Michigan as a provision is made for continuing the present organization.

Two thousand lanterns have been added to the guard post in the city of Russia in his palace at Tiarosco. Doubtless this is a wise precaution. But if it is not, it is a sign that the czar's life included a plot against his immediate military family. The czar's life included a plot against his immediate military family.

Wine Buildings Wrecked in Bay City. A terrific wind and rain storm Saturday night struck Bay City and for half an hour the streets were so full with flying debris that it was impossible to travel was unsafe. The wind was accompanied by rotary gusts, one of which assumed the proportions of a cyclone in the south end of the city. Show four houses from their foundations, unroofed several more and blew down smokestacks, chimneys and the works.

Street car traffic in the south end was brought to a standstill and the water supply service in the city was interrupted for several hours, a number of poles being blown down, carrying with them poles and trolley wires. Only a portion of the street car service is in operation, and a portion of the fire alarm telegraph system is out. The telephone systems suffered severely.

Beven Drowned. Oscar Carlson, 23; Gustav Hamner, 23; and Abraham O. Carlson, 23, were drowned in Muskegon Lake Sunday afternoon. The party started out from the shore in a large flat-bottom boat about 3 o'clock. All were Philanders and none apparently knew how to swim. The boat was owned by Oscar Stenberg, who was out in a sailboat with a companion near the shore.

Lightning's Freaks. Mrs. Chester Mosser and her mother, Mrs. Butler, were at dinner when a bolt of lightning struck the roof, set fire to the curtains and set the refrigerator, scattering the Sunday dinner, wrecking the kitchen and setting the house on fire.
