TO EVA

Eva. dearest—this I call you,
For you seem so near to me,
As though, we were bound together.
By the tie of sympathy—
How I prize your little verses—
How I read them o'er and o'er,
Finding each timé some new beaut;
That I did not spe before.

That I did not see before.

Lowing friends who are around us
Think they sympthize, that's tru
Oaly placed in our position
Can they tell what we go through.
Gone, it seems, is all protection—
None can fill that vacant chair
And the yearning of our heart-strin
Tells the vacant place left there.

Tells the vacant place left there.

Spring-time melts the snow of win
Summer flowers. too, decay;
But the lonely, yearning feelings
Never seem to pass away.

Seems to me I'm always watching,
Waiting, for some one to come;
Though a crowd may be arround me
Still I feel I'm all alone.

Still I feel I man alone.
Still I feel I must not murmur—
Feel that I must not complain—
Bravely may be are my burden
Until we shall meet again.
There'a a friend, if we will trust. Him,
That will comfort you and me.
As He calmed the troubled waters
Of the Lake of Galilee.

Time, you know, is swiftly fleeting Life is passing like a dream—
We are floating to that harbor
Like a leaf upon the stream.
When the cross our Savior carried,
To the brow of Calvary—
The key that opened heaven's gate.
That all might enter free,

That all might enter free,
There we'll never think of sorr
When we hear the Savior say
When we knock upon the port
At the realms of endless itsy
If He only bids us welcome
To the mansions of the blest.
There we all lay down life's bu
There the weary all find test.

The Swastika

It is the oldest known symbol and is found in pre-historic ves and ruins in all quarters of the globe. It is carved upon the solid rock in the mountains of India painted upon the walls of the canons of Arizina and and painted New Mexico.

It is dug up out of the ruins of ancient Greece; from the graves of the Mound-Builder Indians in Ohio; found on the pottery of the Cliff Dwellers in North America, and upon pre-historic pottery in Brazil, and is common in China and Japan."

Japan.

Thomas Wilson, Curator of the U.S. Museum, in his book, "The Swastika," says of it: "What seems to have been at all times an attribute of the Swastika is its character as a charm or amulet, as a sign of benediction, blessing, long life, good fortune and good luck."

At the present time the Navayo Indians use it aymbolically in some of their religious ceremonies, and also weave it into theirs blankets, and make it in silver charms, pins and buttons.

Miss ESTREE SWAN.

"Gone from the frost of earth," another pure sool; stilled forever the beating of another loving heart.

In the death of Esther Swan, we have lost a public-apirited citizen, one who was quietly working for the good of everyone. It was from her girden that flowers were sent to the sick; it was fee hand that placed the early blossom on many a neglected grave in was the hand of the common of the common

Marry—A Baliny Affair. A daintily appointed and most plear and event took place last week Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, at the home of many one-half miles west of Royal Oak, at which time their daughter, Miss Marcia, and Kinot Young, of Reese, were unitted in marriage. The home was beautifully decorated with maple boughs, ferms and orangle blossoms. The bride and from entered with maple boughs, ferms and orange blossoms. The bride and from entered the parlor to the strains of the weding march played by Miss Minnie Bell. Both were unattended and during the ceremony which was performed by Rev. H. G.
