To Our Friends

When looking with any of our advertisements, either in Birmingham, Pontiac or Detroit, it will be a great favor to us if you will mention the name of the paper in which you saw them. It will be a great favor to us if you will mention the name of the paper in which you saw them. It will be a great favor to us if you will mention the name of the paper in which you saw them.

HOME NOTES

There is always a bunch to boost you. While at your money they flatter. But you will find them all gone. On that cold gray dawn, When the fringe arrives on your pants, Wanted, more water. Wanted, a street sprinkler: A new preacher at the Methodist church Sunday morning and evening, FOR RENT—Two good rooms in Library Building, on west side of Lybary building, on west side of Lybary building, on west side of Lybary building.

A lady resident remarks, "that it don't look as tho' the old Library Society was forced to give up, when it died with money in its pocket. Mrs. Maud Marley has brought suit against the city of Pontiac to recover $100,000, alleged to be due as a result of walking on a defective sidewalk. Do you know that Willetts Street is one of our best? The well-kept lawns on either side, the neat grounds of the Baptist Church, and the grounds of Ed Lamb challenge all competition. Miss Grace Blakelee spent last week at Flint visiting with Miss Marie Hamilton. Mrs. Hamilton is well, usual, and anxious to visit Birmingham friends time this summer. Two fine looking, prosperous young gentlemen called on us Tuesday. Of course we did not recognize them, but remembered them 27 years as Frank and Terence Roche, sons of John Roche. They were visiting their uncle, Frank Roche, and with a camera took many views that were familiar to them as kids 27 years—but changed somewhat now. Harvey Rosso, of Birmingham, and his cousin, Roy Miller, of Disco, (both 11 years old,) are visiting at their Grandpa Miller's, on the bank of the Clinton river. They took a spin and went fishing. In about 30 minutes they came back with three of the largest fish—two of them weighed 10 pounds each, and one seven pounds. It was the first time the boys went fishing.

A FRIEND OF THE ECCENTRIC.
 Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hupp are having a most delightful visit "way down East." They will first visit the Jamestown exposition for a few days and take in the fine display there. Before returning they expect to pass pleasantly a few days at Old Point Comfort. After this a flying visit will be made to Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Atlantic City, New York and Boston. After all this travel and sight-seeing, then to the best place of all, home in dear old Birmingham. Mrs. Irving H. Wilson is a patient at Grace hospital in Detroit for some spinal trouble, caused by a fall, a long time ago. She has been a great sufferer ever since. Dr. George P. Rayne performed the surgical operation, and found a fractured vertebra, and and two others displaced. She took the ordeal bravely, and is recovering slowly and surely. Her many friends, with her family are rejoicing over her prospective and complete recovery, and wish the good lady many more years of health, comfort and happiness.

A travelling man said on Tuesday last to my editor, "Say, every little dinky town in Michigan, has a street sprinkler, now, why in thunder don't beautiful Birmingham?" This was a poser for us, and as a thick cloud inclosed his athletic form from view, we stood, before he could get the sand from his eyes and the tears from his voice. It certainly is a new dust question. There is damage done by the dust to the merchants' goods, more than to the sprinkler. To say nothing of the cleanliness and comfort. Say, why don't we?

TAXPAYERS, ATTENTION! Village Taxes now due. M. R. Blair, village treasurer. Aug 30
 Mr. Harry Hamilton of the Pontiac Spring & Ice Works is now Manager of the Rapid Motor Works.

 Edwin A. Starr is busy these days selling tomatoes to the East market, and he delivers about twenty bushels each day.
 The Quarton Brothers are all reunited. The house of Fred having been installed Tuesday, as also Mr. E. Donald Roberts.
 Wouldn't the Eccentric be an acceptable mid-summer gift? Bring in someone's name with a stove lid dollar, and then it's up to us to do the rest.

Wanted, a girl to assist in house calling. Light work, pleasant home. Call on Mrs. E. Roberts, just north of the village, or on Mr. J. W. Lewis, calling on the kind of J. Bert Peabody and wife, Miss Maud Camp in enjoying a week or so of outing at Pine Lake. She enjoys and appreciates this treat very much.
 No one can kick on the weather not being hot enough, at this time, when the time this appears, snow may be a foot deep. The weather can never surprise us any more.
 Klieber P. Rockwell and Andrew L. Moore will represent Oakland County in the approaching Constitutional Convention—unless, indeed, the Prohibition party should carry the county.
 The Detroit Journal, in a late issue had an item, in which it gave high praise to the women of Birmingham, for taking the lead in local improvements. It was well deserved.
 Mr. Albert Jennings, Grand Rapids, was in our mill by phone. He was calling on his many old time friends. He is a fine polished gentleman, and one whom it is a pleasure to meet.
 Mrs. Myrtle Powell, of Pontiac, and Miss Jessie Bartlett, of Flint, were guests of Mrs. Jean Harneck on Tuesday. Also Miss Lillian Upcott, of Pontiac, and Mrs. Laura Hunt, of Royal Oak.

 If the parties who have been making a practice of turning on the gas of the street lights, after they have been extinguished for the night, does not stop the practice, they will be prosecuted and punished to the fullest extent of the law. Fun is one thing, but this trick is a big damage to the company.

Patrons of this new department can call, secure your cards, and enjoy all the benefits of the free public library, and be welcome. A public reading room with all the latest magazines is at your service.

Way out in North Dakota is a little town not more than two years old, but sends out a paper that is A1 in every respect. It is the McVillage Journal, and is owned by W. L. Deer from his F. C. Deer, who is in charge of a new creamery at that point. He is doing well in his new business. The creamery has 30 patrons, and this first annual report shows up well for profits and the young Birmingham manager, F. C. Deer.
 A Whitehead has returned from his five weeks vacation, during which time he hiked over the Yellowstone Park country twice, and thoroughly enjoyed its wondrous beauty, and the wild "goings on" to his heart's content. He and his camera went along, and his numerous "snaps" of himself and Capt. M. O. Bigelow, with an accompaniment of newly caught trout and other species of fish, also photos of bears, antelopes and other animals, all in their wild native state. He returns browned and tanned and much improved in his general health.

 Who says Fred Quarton is not a master? One day last week he drew his eye from the field to the machine, had it threshed and drew it to market the same day—700 bushels. Randall's machine did the work.
 Julian S. Leet has been a pleasant visitor among his many old friends in this neighborhood. He is now located at El Paso, Texas, and is in the employ of the great company on the earth for solidity and recognition of valuable and efficient services.
 We expect to pay a raise of 2 cents a gallon on oil and 5 cents on gasoline to help the Standard Oil Company pay its fine of $29,240,000 recently assessed by Judge Landis, at Chicago. Great Scott!
 A fine of that amount against the Eccentric? Would even make "The Magazine" tremble.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Felder and daughter entertained Mrs. A. Parker and two sons, Will and Marleton, of California; Mr. and Mrs. Clare Blodgett, and H. S. Blodgett and family, Wednesday last week. Mrs. Parker and sons expect to leave soon for an extended trip farther east.
