Decide for Yourself.

No greater evidence of weakness of character can be shown than a continual appeal to friends: for advice. At times we shall need the counsel of a good friend; but doistantly to ask for it is like constantly borrowing. Learn to decide small-matters for yourself and learn to decide galaxity. Better and learn to decide galaxity. Better and learn to decide galaxity of the habit of heckelson. It is the first milestone on the road to failure.
