REVENGE OF DICK

Royal Oak's Popular Justice Gets Justice in Birmingham.

Returning from Lodge last week Returning from Lödge last week Thursday evening, as he approached his home Justice Rose, of Royal Oak, heard his name called and stopped. Up came Charles Wentland, father of three sets of twins, and immediately began to play rough house with Richard. Now being of a peaceful temperament, Dick gently remonstrated, but no use, and the result was that Charles was arrest-al on a charge of assait. Frought belation which was pronounced by Dr. say you, didn't know it. We are telling Barkley of the Forest Avenue church, all of Detroit, ended the impressive and and rites. During the services Miss McCullough, of Detroit, a classmate of the deceased, sang two solos. Judge Houston, of Chatham, Ont., was expected to make a few remarks but was delayed by a late train. The aspies, sealed in a beautiful urn, will be taken by the bereaved widow, back to their former@men at French river.

The rescue of the two stranded women and later the finding of the body of the deceased is a said and drammaticale. Cast upon an island that rises abruptly from the waters of the river late. a Pair, So Says an Old

The final battle for Birmingham's Public Library has been fought and won for the majority. Attorney A. P. Ja. DEAR Six—Some time since I noticed been met his Waterloo in the Supreme Court on Friday when a decision was banded down sustaining the ruling of Judge Smith, of the Oakland Circuit. Nothing remains to be done now expet to get the Library in good working condition, and make it a credit to progressive Birmingham. Escape to get the Library in good working condition, and make it a credit to do about the paint question. So I skirnorgressive Birmingham. The costs of the late unpleasantness have been assessed to Mr. Jacobs' clients.
