Time to see that your coal bin is full to the brim.
Mrs. Marina Taylor died at Walled Lake last week, after a long illness.
Mrs. Parkinson, of Toronto, Ont., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fred Crawford.

Mrs. Mary Grandy and Mrs. Kate Johnson, of Detroit, were recent guests of Mrs. I. N. Baker, of Southfield avenue.
Mrs. Brooks, mother of Mrs. George P. Rayne, after a visit with Birmingham people, has returned to her home at Cincinnati, O.

One rash citizen was heard to say on Saturday that it would be a fine thing to pave Woodward avenue. 'Twould be nice—but we need sewers first.

The Sigma Tau Sorority girls had a pleasant evening with Miss Aggie Herbold, in Troy, Sat. Saturday night. Dick Evers took the happy crowd over.

Mrs. M. E. Hemenway has been the happy entertainer of Mrs. N. M. Pettie of Pontiac, for the past three days. Both of the ladies have enjoyed the visit highly.

A citizen asks: "Can't we have standard time here? How the whistles at 7, 12 and 6 o'clock standard, and stop this everlasting question, 'local or standard?'"

Fred Harrell is proud of a fully developed hog 6 years old, and but 28 inches high. Still he stood around the country fairs in a little car, which he would lift into the baggage car with ease.

Attention! R. A. M. No. 93. A special meeting is called for Monday evening, September 30th. A full attendance is asked. Work in P. and M. E. degrees. J. A. Brinkley, Sec.

Don't forget the third grand ball given by the Franklin Cornet Band, at the Franklin Public Hall, this (Friday) evening. Bill 50 cents. A fine chicken pie supper will be served for another 50 cents.

Lightning is believed to have been the cause of the burning of Matt. Bradley's large barn near Walled Lake, which was destroyed with the season's hay and grain crop, and a fine horse cow and calf.

The W. C. T. U. meet with Mrs. Deir this (Friday) afternoon. The change from the regular time of meeting was made to celebrate Miss Willard's birthday. Members are requested to attend. All are welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Nellis, and Will Barton, of Winona, Minn., are visiting their sister, Mrs. L. Clark, of Willits street. They like "King Ed," a country very well, but they like the Lord's country better.

Last Saturday, the Royal Oak high school and the B. H. S. opened the ball season with a game, on the grounds here. Both sides played a good game.

Miss B. Miller, of the Michigan Children's Home, has been in the city the last week organizing a local board for consultation and information regarding homeless children.

Miss Eva McLellan left Friday for downtown Ill., where she commenced work this week as a pupil in Northwestern University. The good wishes of her many friends go with her.

We understand that if any one wants vacant acreage to build on for a home, Mr. E. C. Poppleton, will show you what you want from his farm front on E. Town line just outside of the village limits. See him.

Tin cans nor burn. Please do not put tin cans nor iron in the barnyard places, as the Village Board has placed in burning papers. These tin cans and chunks of iron make much trouble.

It is true that all marriages are contracted in heaven, don't you think that the records are out of court? Would indicate that they ought to change "contractors" up there.—Orion Review.

Those who enjoyed "Aunt Jane, of Kentucky," "the day chapter of which President Roosevelt recommended in his Lansing speech, will be glad to read "Aunt Jane Goes Visiting," in the September Cosmopolitan. You will find it at the Library.

Mrs. James Burner has had good cause for complaint. Boys and girls, of just first families to, raided her garden of green corn, took all she had and did not give a corn cob near by. Stick to the farmers' fields for your corn boys, and you will do no wrong.

Leonard Gable, of Pontiac, disobeyed an injunction from Judge Smith at Pontiac, and was fined $100. His lawyer, A. L. Moore, said that Gable did not understand the import of the documents which he in other words he didn't know the thing was loaded. He does now.

Erza Mathewson, of Dallas, Tex., after many years' absence was around here for the first of the week shaking hands and renewing old acquaintances. Erza is doing real well in the Lone Star State, and is an M. D. of recognized ability in his home town. Good for Erza.

Mrs. Brooks, of Cincinnati, O., Mrs. Howard and Mrs. Ray Dennett, of Detroit and Mrs. A. W. Hayes, of M. R. Rayne and Mrs. George P. Rayne, of Birmingham, were very pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Camp, Thursday of last week.

The happiest family on Maple avenue in Grandis Snow down to Miss Margaret Bell, over the safe arrival of her little brother on Monday morning last. To say that Wiley's cup of joy ranneth over is stating it very mildly. All those interested are doing very nicely. Congratulations.

The old Fifth Michigan Cavalry, one of Custer's fighting regiments, held its reunion in Detroit September 25th, and the old stories and incidents told once again were actually believed to be true when they happened. Well, the boys of '61 are entitled to more than they usually receive.

The Ladies' Aid Society, of the M. E. church, will meet next Friday afternoon, October 4th, with Mrs. John Crawford. All are welcome. Meet at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. C. M. local time. Room for all to ride. Come and have a good time and get a good supper for 15 cents.

The Farmington Enterprise says the dairy business of this county is of such magnitude that the output will equal in quantity many of the numerous lakes of Old Oakland. If some of the producers were built on the model of that Frazier farmer, some of the lakes would have a fair show in comparison.

Last Tuesday afternoon the Women's club. All the old ladies were invited, refreshments were served by the Misses Post and stories of the old, old days were told. The younger members of the club enjoyed the day as much as their elders, and each vie with the others to do honors to the pioneers.

Judge Smith granted three decrees of divorce in the Oakland county circuit court Monday. The reason for the action in all cases was given as cruelty and non-support. Mrs. Edna B. Boas was freed from Walter J. Boag, Ida E. Hinchman from Fred Hinchman, and Nellie Fox from Nathan Fox. None were contested.

Millard fair next week. At all the Street carnival at Oxford all this week.

First frost of the season last Sunday night.

Corporation interests are after our Sammy W.'s scalp. They are trying to prevent his being chairman of the House Committee on the District of Columbia, an important office. His fight against the telegraph companies is supposed to be the cause of opposition from the big corporations, the telegraph interests.

To-morrow, September 26th, and lists just one week only, begins the biggest slaughter sale on any lines, in every department of M. Levinson's big store. Cut prices on everything. The hardware department cut way, away down to close out the entire stock. Hundreds of dollars sacrificed. Read big advertisement elsewhere.

If you think that you wish a phone put in, now is the time to see Manager Mitchell. The gang of men are over here and ready for business. After they depart it may be another year before they will again be ordered to this vicinity. Some day they will be made before the men leave, but there is always room for one more.

The English Parliament has passed a law making women eligible as town and county councilors and aldermen. They have long been serving on poor commissions and as supervisors of the poor. Here in Michigan the same laws, for three terms of the Legislature to have our law amended so that women might look after the needs of women in our country house.

The funeral car, carrying the remains of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burns, of Detroit, reached here Saturday. The remains were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Burns and a few relatives and friends. Interment was made in Greenwood cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Burns formerly resided in Birmingham and several old friends were with them at the cemetery.

John Speck, a former Pontiac man, leaving a wife and two children, was burned to death in a boat house at Ecorse Sunday morning. He had been out in a gasoline launch with his friend, Benjamin H. Kluck, and it being late in the night they decided to remain in the boat house for the night. Kluck escaped by diving into the water. How the fire started is a mystery.

Twenty-nine thousand shares of Sonora Mining and Investment Stock was advertised for sale in Sunday's Free Press, and some of the advertisers claim to have sold the stock at their own price. Prices run from 10 cents either way, according to the gullibility of the buyer. It is now said that the company is played out, never had a mine, and it was a fake, pure and simple from start to finish.
