Kinnet:

Man Arable word meaning "fate," or "It is fated."

A belief in predestination is one of the fundamental principles in the Mohammedan fath. Not only a man's fortune, but his deeds, and consequently his future reward or punishment are, according to this fatth, irrevocably, and thus understanding to the fatth, irrevocably, and thus understanding to the fatth, irrevocably, and thus understanding to the success of lalam by inspiring its champions with the greatest contempt for the dangers of warfare. When a Mohammedan meeti with any disaster or misfortune, no matter how great, he accepts the situation gainly, merely saying, "Kinnet"—"it is fated."
