HOME NOTES

Miss Helen Thompson, of Kinde, was the guest of Miss Jessie Baker a couple of days last week.

Last Thursday eve the Young Men's Dancing club gave a delightful party at the J. & S. hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Shottle, of Sanitac Co., spent New Year's day, with Mrs. David Roy and friends.

A fine article on the "Modern Triumphs of Electricity" appears in the January Review of Reviews at the library.

FOR SALE.—White Plymouth Rocks, Rose and single comb Brown Leghorns, also five bronze hen Turkeys, at the Fisher Farm. David Fisher. 2t.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Gibbons, of Cass City, recently visited with their daughter, Mrs. Clarence Heth, for the holidays and enjoyed a fine visit.

Start the new year right by clearing up your subscription to the ECCENTRIC. You can easily see how you stand by refering to the label on the paper.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Bird Glaspie, of Oxford, along with Miss Elizabeth Glapsie took dinner Sunday last at the Mitchell home. Everybody happy.

Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Baker and daughters, Jessie and Nellie, and Joe Wilcox spent New Years with Mrs. Charles Shaw, of Howard street, Pontiac.

Dr. N. T. Shaw is attracting much attention and being addressed as Governor Warner. Ever noticed it? Even to the lock of hair hanging over his marble brow. A sure double for the Gov.

The P. O. & N. Ry. is still in the 3 cent class, and gets one additional cent for every mile it carries a passenger. It takes so much longer to make the mile that it is worth the difference.

Rev. John Good has recovered enough so as to be able to go to his old home in Tennessee. He left Monday, accompanied by the best wishes of everybody for a speedy recovery to his former good health.

Miss Lizzie Simpson, and Dr. Don. M. Simpson, wife and children, Irene and Donald, all of Detroit, were entertained on New Year's day at the home of Mrs. Simpson's cousin, George W. Dawson.

One of Detroit's rapidly rising Osteopaths, Dr. E. O. Millay, announces the removal of his office from the Ferguson building to the Henry building, corner Woodward avenue and Grand Boulevard, in Detroit.

Miss Mabel Allen, who has graduated from the Mt. Pleasant Normal college left last Saturday for L'Anse, in the northern peninsula, where she has accepted a position as fourth grade teacher in the L'Anse school.

The Warren Watchman calleth things by their right name, when it says; "Some miserable whelp drove a big spike into a sugar beet and sent it to the Mt. Clemens mill. Fortunately no damage was done though.

Here is a warning that should be heeded. Roy Blakeslee was lately taken by a severe pain in his back while shoveling snow, and was obliged to remain in the house for two days. A full grown man should never shovel snow.

Dr. F. Kane'a specialist in chronic diseases will be at the National Hotel every Saturday until further notice to consult with those affected with chronic cases. He has a fine record as to cures and medical skill and will be pleased to meet you.

Standard time has been adopted officially by the village board of Clarkston. How long before Birmingham will get in the band wagon, and be an up-to date little city? All Clarkston clocks were requested to be set right at 12 o'clock midnight Dec. 31st, '07.

Harry Rainey had a New Year's present that was worth while. A pretty little baby girl came to his home that day and announced her intention of staying right along. The mother is doing very nicely and everybody, including Grandma Grosbeck, are very happy indeed.

Mrs. Elizabeth Randall Wednesday morning, in walking over to take the car, slipped and fell severely injuring her left arm. She was assisted into Mr. Cases' house, Dr. C. M. Raynale was summoned and at this writing it is impossible to say if any bones are broken. She suffers greatly but is hopeful the worst is over.

The Early Closers of Birmingham Jan. 6th last met their Waterloo. Mr. Levinson was the only one who lived to the agreement. Some kept open over the usual hours because customers had threatened to go to Royal Oak if they shut up at 7 p. m. as advertised, now one dealer is threatened with a "throw down" if he don't shut up at 7. Where are we at? Two dealers advertised to Keep open until 11:45 p. m. to please their theatre patrons.

If you wish information regarding groceries, be sure to read Spencer & Smith's new advt.

Regular communication of Birmingham Lodge, No. 44, F. & A. M. Jan. 16th, 1908. M. R. BLAIR Sec'y.

Back to Dollar Bay, U. P., near Houghton, Mich., and her school duties went Miss Edith Koontz on Monday last.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, of the M. E. church will meet at the home of Mrs. Aldrich, on Pierce street, Thursday, Jan. 16th. 1908.

Attention! No. 93, R. A. M. Regular Convocation Birmingham Chapter, No. 93, R. A. M. Monday evening January 13th., 1908. J. ALLEN BIGELOW, Sec'y.

Visitors at the High school during the past week, Messrs. Howard Hanna, Earl L. G. Ward, George Deer, and Don Jenks; also the Misses Aggie Herbison, Ida Hanna and Ella Davenport. Come again, all of you, and others.

The Girl's Friendly Society are a busy lot of girls just now. They have formed a class in embroidery, taught by Miss Agnes Parks, and every mother's daughter of them is learning fast. The energetic maids have also formed a class in vocal music, and receive instruction from an expert teacher from the Thomas Training School in Music, of Detroit.

The Men's supper at the M. E. church was a most successful affair. The boys cleared nearly $50. for the church and the supper was all that could be asked and then some more. A. L. Parker, of Detroit, gave a short interesting talk, brother Ellsworth Plamstead gave a fine recitation and there was music galore. Those who failed to be present missed a treat.

A county exchange has the following and if our old friend, George H. German ever runs for the office he can be sure of three ECCENTRIC votes from this office. George H. German wants to be elected sheriff of Oakland county if the Republicans are willing. We would like the office providing it came from non-partisans and if it wasn't so expensive a job to buy.

Wedding in high life. James F. Wooster and Cassius W. Crawford witnessed the marriage of Miss Hazel Perry, of Pontiac, Mich. and Mr. Ed. Jewell, also of Pontiac, by Justice Albert W. Campbell, the day after New Year's. The Judge says that if you want to know just how the knot was tied, ask the witnesses, as he was so badly rattled that he don't remember it at all.

County School Commissioner H. S. Elliott, of Oxford, will join forces with the Oakland County Farmers' clubs again this year for the purpose of making a point circuit of the county. Well known speakers representing both school and farm interests will tour the county, speaking in all the important places. The trip will round up at Pontiac and will commence the first week in February.

Whenever friends send us copies of papers containing items which they wish to bring to our notice, they will confer a favor upon us and avoid the possibility of the items being overlooked if they will mark them with pencil. It is sometimes monotonous for the editor to wade through the columns of a large sixteen page paper and then fail to discover what item the sender desired to have him notice.

New Years day was appropriately observed at the home of James J. Shain. Mrs. James J. gave a big dinner to near relatives and among them were Mr. and Mrs. N. T. McHenry, with brother George McHenry and son Bert. It being Grandma Shain's 78th. birthday aniversary, she was present with Mack Shain and his family. Grandpa Miles A. Dewey was in evidence and the day passed all to quickly for the happy guests.

A young fellow living near Council Corners, anxiously brought a watch for repairs to jeweler Baxter, yesterday. He had purcoased the "turnip" from a Chicago catalogue house at a bargain price, and couldn't understand why it had stopped running. Brother Baxter found on opening the case, a dead cockroach in the works. Turning to the owner of the timepiece he said: "No wonder the the thing won't run, the engineer's dead."

W. S. Walker, of Long Meadows farm fame entertained the Troy Farmers' Club, on Saturday last. Only about 75 attended, but a delightful time was had, all hands doing full justice to the bountiful spread provided by the hospitable host and hostess. Discussions formed a large part of the day's program, and all topics were much enjoyed except that of a political nature, which became a dry subject, and was barred anyway.

Call up the ECCENTRIC by phone No. 11, when you have an item of news. No matter whether you think the item amounts to much or not, we want it. We are going to give more local and personal news the coming year and no matter how often you may call up by phone your items will be thankfully received and carefully cared for and will be used. If you can hand them in all written out as you would like to, have them read, so much the better. We will be pleased either way.

Now when you come right down to good, sound reasoning, isn't it a fact that the troubles of the poor man and the rich man are about evenly divided? The rich man has a square meal and a canary appetite; the poor man has a square appetite and a canary meal. The rich man wants the poor man's appetite, and the poor man wants the rich mans's meal. The rich man hasn't money enough to buy the appetite and the poor man lacks the funds to buy the meal. And it then simmers itself down to work, which after all is the only thing which will grant the desire of each. It is the law of nature and we cannot disobey it and be happy.

HOUSE TO RENT.—Seven rooms and bath. Apply to Mrs. T. W. Koontz. 2

Never go in debt for a luxury or an unnecessary article of any description.

Mrs. Joseph Seaton' of Fenton, is the welcome guest of C. B. Shotwell and family.

L. Storz, Jr. will soon give to the people of Royal Oak a first class news paper so it is said.

Mr. Earl Jenks left Monday last for an extended business trip throughout the Buckeye state, —Ohio.

Misses Isabella VanVleet and Mabell Lawther, of Flint, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Claire Aldrich.

Miss Anna Belle Corson, after the holiday season's visit has returned to school duties at Upland, Ind.

Mr. J. D. Coney, of Detroit, and Miss Lulu Coney, of Ionia, visited with their aunt, Mrs. Nellie Camp last week.

The Art needle-work class will meet with Mrs. Carrie Crombie, Thusday afternoon, January 16th. '08, at two o'clock, standard.

Mrs. Jas. McKinley and daughter, Miss Marion, spent the holidays with Mr. McKinley's sister, Mrs. Phillip Bott, of Gagetown, Mich.

We were real pleased to see our old time friend Lyman B. Peabody down town last Monday, looking just the same as ever and feeling first rate.

Miss Winnifred Jenks has returned to Fowler, Ind. to her teacher duties, after having a most enjoyable vacation. Don't fail to read Cobb & Cobb's new advertisement.

Miss Mary Miller, who has been seriously ill for the past month, at her home on Southfield avenue, is very much better. We are all very hopeful for her speedy recovery.

Mrs. Mary B. Cooper was happy and made happy a baker's dozen, of congenial spirits, by a big New Year's dinner and a day pleasantly passed in social chat by the ladies.

The examination of St. Clair, alleged safe-blower, was again adjourned on Wednesday, this time to January 22. It is expected he will be obliged to stand trial for that postoffice job.

A change for Mrs. Elizabeth Baldwin that pleases all her friends as well as herself is that she has gone to live for the winter, with the family of George Ferguson, on Southfield Ave. She is delighted with the change, and the family are delighted to have her with them.

The many friends of Will Baum, the popular liveryman, will be pained to hear that his health does not improve very fast. After trying it awhile at his brother's John Baum, of Royal Oak. Later he decided to go to Harper hospital, Detroit, for treatment, where he now is. We hope he will speedily recover.

The State Grange has declared itself in favor of free and uniform text books in the public schools and asks for the apportionment of the primary school money on a basis of the teachers rather than on the number of pupils. The Grangers believe that in this manner weak country school districts would receive more equitable treatement.

Died at her home in this village, of consumption, after a long and lingering illness Thursday evening, Mrs. George Warner. Her funeral was held from her late home and services were conducted by Dr. Jamieson. Her remains were laid away in the Warner lot, Crooks cemetery, in Troy. She is survived by a husband and three young sons.

There was a big time at the residence of P. W. Parmenter, in Troy township, Tuesday evening Dec. 31st. A jolly band of church people to the number of 150 gathered to watch the Old year out and the New one in. Music and speaking and different kinds of games took place. An oyster supper was served to which all did ample justice. Something over $3. was realized over and above all expenses. The party broke up about 3 a. m. and everyone expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the evenings entertainment.

On Wednesday evening of this week, the Women of Michigan had a hearing before the Con. Con. on the proposition to strike word "male" out of the Constitution. Large delegations went from Detroit, Grand Rapids, Birmingham and other parts of the state. Their wish has been endorsed by all the labor unions of the state, one of which, the Garment Workers number 1300. The Maccabees, both Modern and of, the World, numbering thousands, the Farmers' Clubs, the Grange, over 6000 club women, and many other organizations are unanimous in helping the movement. Rev. Anna Shaw, of Chicago, was the main speaker, followed by Justice, of the Peace, McCullough, of Evanston, Ills.

Such as we bake would tempt even the most confirmed dyspeptic. Try a loaf on your table. You'll find it as good to the taste as it is Wholesome and Nourishing.

When you see how eagerly the whole family eats it and how it thrives on it, you'll be more than pleased. When you taste it yourself you'll see how foolish and unnecessary it is to bother with home baking any longer.
