The finest coffee substitute ever made has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wisconsin. You do not have to boil it 20 or 30 minutes. "Made in a minute," says the Doctor. "Health Coffee" is really the closest coffee imitation ever yet produced. Not a grain of real coffee in it either. Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted grains or cereals, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—were he to unknowingly drink it for coffee. Charles J. Shain.

AT THE THEATRES.

LYCEUM.

Commencing next week, at this theater, an attraction of special interest will be the appearance of Mr. James O'Neil with his sumptuous production of "Virginius," "Monte Cristo," and "Julius Caesar," supported by an excellent cast of prominent classical players, including Messrs. Norman Hackett, Charles D. Herman, Joseph Slayton, James O'Neil, Jr., Warren Colan, Bart W. Wallace, and the Misses Alice Fleming, Kate Fletcher, Gertrude Griffin, and Edna Porter.

Of "Virginius" the press of New York, Boston and a number of other cities have been specially eulogistic in praise of Mr. O'Neil's rendering of the Roman father.

The following will be the repertoire for the week: Sunday matinee, Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday night, "Monte Cristo;" Sunday and Friday nights and Wednesday matinee, "Virginius;" Monday and Wednesday night and Saturday matinee, "Julius Caesar."

The engagement opens with a Sunday matinee, in addition to which the regular Wednesday and Saturday matinees will be given.

WHITNEY.

"The Convict and the Girl," a strong and sensational melodrama, teeming with comedy, tragedy and pathos of human life, will be offered at the Whitney for one week, commencing next Sunday afternoon. The play is in seven scenes and four acts, and deals with life along the rugged coast of Maine. Involved in the plot are the fortunes of Jim Silverton, stalwart and manly character, the Sheriff of Clover Valley; Jack Dalton, an escaped convict; Richard Thornton, a polished but scheming and desperate villain; Colonel Larabie, a true type of the political intriguer; Jessie, a village beauty and a host of characters that are bound to appeal on account of their virility and picturesque sketching.

The engagement is for one week with matinees daily except on Wednesday.

A tickling cough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe that Dr. Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation even to very young babes. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung-healing mountainous shrub furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium—no chloroform; nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctor uses "The Sacred Herb." Always demand Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Charles J. Shain.
