REASON FOR WOMEN'S 'NERVES' In Very Many Cases It is Weakness of Kidneys. Mrs. Frank Rosemont, 513 S. Walsh...

BLAMED ON THE RAILROAD. First Thought in Irishman's Mind After the Accident.

Railroad claim-agents have little faith in their fellow countrymen. One said recently: "Every time I get a claim with one of these hard-headed rural residents who wants the railroad to pay twice what I ought to charge the butcher if he gets a blue-eyed calf, I think of this story, illustrating the way some of our fellows hold the railroad responsible for every accident of whatever kind, that happens."

Victory of Hard Luck. "Hear about the back luck of Dan Moulton, the Stanford trainer?" inquired one alumnus of another, complaining from the big game. "No," "What happened?" "Well, Dan, you know, used to be a professional foot racer. Went all over the world when in his athletic prime, spraining for money all over the place. They say he won 253 races; never beaten but twice in all his career. One of the fellows that he beat him had met later in another race and outran him. Dad was after the other fellow for a long while to get a return race. But the fellow beat Dad again."

How was that? The great art of life consists in fortitude and perseverance. The mischance of those who fall behind, though flung upon fortune more frequently arises from want of skill and perseverance.—Sir Walter Scott.

THE ASSOCIATION ROOM AT WONG'S

Chinatown of New York, and of San Francisco, and even of Chicago, is known throughout America as a visit to any one of the cities named. And foreign visitors to this country always feel a special curiosity to go through the queer section of the cities, and think perhaps that no city of Europe can in any way duplicate the sights, the people and the customs. And yet the people and the customs. And yet the people and the customs.

There are four open eateries of "Hop Joints" in London which cater for the public. Three of these are controlled by a syndicate of Chinamen, members of the "Hop Joint" syndicate.

Something of success came to her through it all. She reached and returned to her home in the city of New York. A word of praise came occasionally from Mr. Bell. Aunt Abby grew less austere and seemed to have a little life in her.

TO BE CONTINUED. The visitor to "Chick's" establishment, one of the "Hop Joints" controlled by the Chinese syndicate, may be surprised to find that the establishment is given half a walnut-shell filled with opium.
