I have great privileges now, I expect to go on half duty or be discharged in a few days. Tell Brother Mitchell I would like to see him, to have him correct something in his paper and he will give me a check as I have them all bought before I came to the hospital. Tell Wood I want him to come our next dance and he will say that I never had a better time. We dance in the chapel.

It Does the Business. E. E. Chamberlain, of Clinton, Maine, says: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve: 'It does the business, I have used it on piles and it cured them. Used it for chapped hands and it cured them. Applied it to an old sore on my neck without leaving a scar behind.'"

AT THE THEATRES. LYCEUM. At the Lyceum next week, commencing Sunday afternoon, will be presented for the first time in Detroit, 'Just Out of College,' the latest and said to be the witfiest and most laughable comedy the famous humorist George Ade has yet written.

The action is jolly and rapid and of course a generous heavy dose is given to make a pleasant contemplation of all that is pleasing or entertaining. The music numbers are catchy and of a pleasing nature.

Commencing Sunday afternoon the management of the Whitney will offer Vance & Sullivan's four act melodrama, "Little Heroes on the Street," from the pen of Lem B. Parker.

The engagement opens with a Sunday matinee, in addition to which there will be Wednesday and Saturday matinees will be given.
