HOME NOTES

New line of ladies' skirts at Nixon's.

The Public Library has a few old amps, camp-stools chairs etc., for sale cheap.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Conway spent Saturday and Sunday with old friends in Northville.

Miss Jennie Keyes has donated to the Public Library, a beautiful picture of George Washington.

Elmer R. Webster, atty, of Pontiac, makes the democratic run for the legislature against David A. Green, also of Pontiac.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church will hold their business meeting and supper in the church basement Wednesday, Oct. 14. Supper 15 cents.

A report reaches us that some of our rude and rough boys have been refused the privileges of the Library for 30 days, by our village marshal, because of bad conduct there.

See list of goods to be sold at auction Saturday, Oct. 10, in the village of Royal Oak. M. H. Blunt, auctioneer, Miss Bird Newton, proprietor. Effects of the late Gilbert Newton.

At St. James' church next Sunday, Holy Communion will be celebrated at the usual hour of the morning service, 10:45. Rev. H. H. H. Fox, of All Saints', Pontiac, will officiate and preach.

Three or four of our village quite young boys are in or will be in serious trouble soon. Complaint by Mrs. Gray has been made for cutting, slashing and destroying clothing on her line Monday night. Too bad.

Ira H. Morrow, who was laid up in a Chicago hospital for three week with a bad accident, came home last week for few days with his mother and sister here in this city. His many friends in this place will be glad to know he went back Sunday feeling better, to take up his duties again as mate on the steamer Truesdale.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hanley on Merrill street, Friday, Oct. 2, the prettiest little baby girl that ever came down down the pike for Mike or anybody else. All doing fine and the parents happiness is only equalled by Aunt Lizzie and several other aunts uncles to say nothing of Grandpa and Grandma Hawthorn.

Special services at Southfield R. P. church, by Rev. J. S. McGaw, Morning services, 11 o'clock. Evening service, 7:30. Friday morning, "Repentance." Friday p. m. "Christ's Call to young men and women." Saturday a. m. "Prepare to meet thy God." Sabbath a. m. "The Loneliness of Christ." Sabbath p. m. "Live your Amen." Monday p. m. at Birmingham U. P. church, "Practical Patriotism." All are welcome.

A regular fight 'twixt two young men of our town, occurred last Saturday night because of the alleged slandering tongue of one against the sister of the other. The champion of the lady walloped the villifier to Mother earth in the first round, and while the victim was conscious told him "if he got up he'd knock his map off." He didn't get up at all until the Piety Hill "Bat Nelson" fell asleep and then the horizontal foe quietly made his successful sneak.

Cemetery superintendents and Boards of Control all over the country are urging lot owners not to number their lots with both head stones and monuments. The records show the exact place of each grave. This record is kept here. When the new sections in our cemetery are opened it is to be hoped that no head stones will be allowed above the surface of the ground. Many cemeteries allow only plain tablets even with the surface. At the national meeting of cemetery superintendents recently held in Kansas City it was strongly urged to avoid the appearance of stone yards; to keep spaces open. The cemetery to-day as distinguished from the old grave yard is its park effect. Make it more of a park ane less of a burial ground. Don't let the marble dealer sell you four or five stones where one is needed. "A monument in the center of the lot and the rest clear, gives nature a chance. Encourage people to buy laid rather than stone.

Bed blankets 50c to $2, at Nixon's.

WANNTED—A lady to work in the store. Write Box D, Birmingham.

Give Nixon a trial on shoes if you want the best shoes for the money.

Bird lovers will find the September number of "Bird Lore" at the library.

LOST—A white and brown bull pup, 8 months old. Return to H. Jackson, Birmingham and receive reward. 2t

The ladies of the M. E. Church will serve dinner, lunches and supper in the church parlors on election day.

A good small base burner for sale cheap. Call at the west side of Mrs. Castle's house on Willitts street. 2t

Attention No. 93, R. A. M! Special meeting Monday evening, Oct. 12. Work in M. M. Degree. J. A. Bigelow, secy.

Mrs. S. W. Sinclair, of Chicago, Ill., is making an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. T. A. Ward, on Brown street.

The Entre Nous club had a corn roast last Thursday night and a jolly good time was had by all at the home of Mrs. Hulbert on Woodward avenue.

New books just added to the Library; Enchanted Castle, a child's story; Shakespeare story book; Fairy Tales every child should know. Novels; Stork's nest; On Trial; When Patty went to College; Reign of Law, by James Lane Allen; Glengary School Days, by Ralph Connor; Saul of Tarsus; Forest Lovers, Maurice Howlett and The Nun, by Rene Bazin.

J. P. Campbell, of Eugene, Oregon, and formerly of Nome, Alaska, has been the welcome guest of C. H. Schlaack and family. Nearly 40 years ago Mr. Campbell was a Big Beaver boy but now finds a great change in the people he formerly knew. All the older ones have been called to their long home and things are not what he used to know. For years out in that far north-west he has been a valued and trusted officer, and sheriff for his county many years.

As accurately as can be estimated, the number of telephones in use to-day is about 9,500,000, a little over 7,000,000 of which are in the United States, 2,000,000 in Europe and the remainder in all the other parts of the world. Such figures, however, cannot be taken as absolutely reliable. The rapid strides with which the telephone is becoming more and more indispensable to mankind is borne out by the statement that the Bell companies recorded an average of 18,624,000 calls a day during 1907, which would be about 75 calls for every man, woman and child in the United States for the year.

Every house owner and householder is now looking forward to the campaign of politics and the campaign of politics now absorb the attention of several parties. Some one party will win. Be careful and select the platform approved by your conscience, which also says, this one which I select will be the best for these great United States. And while this is settled, you must protect your property from loss by fire, cyclones and lightning, your family from loss in case you meet with accidents or sickness and to do this insure with J. A. Bigelow in either the Grand Old Hartford, German-American for fire, etc., and the Aetna for accidents.

The B. H. S. play their first game of foot ball on Friday, Oct. 9, against Royal Oak high school at Poppleton's grounds east on Maple avenue. A good game is expected, so turn out in order to encourage the boys of the high school for they are going to work hard to earn sweaters with a "B." Many old players are still in the game and many promising new ones. In order to get teams here it takes money, so for the first game only 10 cents is asked. The line up is: R. E., Charles Plumsted; R. T., T. Broughton; R. G., L. Blunt; C., Fred Yacht; L. G., Loren Stauch; L. T., Earnest Hunt; L. E., Deir or T. Harris; Q., Roy Montgomery; F. B. Earle Mudge; R. H., Wm. Hanna; L. H. Emory Hanna; head linesman, Charles Randal, the crack center of last year's team. Umpire, Glenn Robinson.

Just read what a New York paper recently said of a collection of favorite Old Songs of the war, and all of the popular melodies of nearly 50 years ago. We are glad to say that our honored and respected friend of Larkspur fame did not forget the ECCENTRIC and we are to possess one of the handsome song books. Thanks Comrade. "My old friend John H. Wendell, of Detroit, did a handsome thing for his fellow-members of the 115th regiment, New York volunteers, by sending them on the occasion of their recent reunion in this city, three hundred copies of a collection of war songs and music, popular during the war, neatly bound and bearing a picture of Colonel Sammons on the front cover. His thoughtful generosity was fully appreciated by the old vets who value highly his souvenir gift. It is to be regretted that Comrade Wendell could not have been present at the gathering, as he had planned to be. He is full of interesting reminiscences of his soldier days and a recital of them, as I heard it in Detroit a few months ago would have been cheered to the echo by the boys in blue. It is sincerely hoped that Mr. Wendell may be able to attend the next gathering of his old comrades of the Iron-Hearted Regiment."

Boy's and men's high cut shoes at Nixon's.

Mrs. Clara Furse is visiting friends in Southfield for a week.

If you want the best shoe for boys, buy the American Boy at Nixon's.

FOR SALE—A go-cart baby buggy, good as new. Cheap if sold at once. Inquire at the ECCENTRIC office. 2t

Third prize squash in Shain's window was raised by J. H. Myers, and is of the Elephant brand—rightly named.

All democrats are urged to go to Pontiac and listen to John Sharp Williams, of the Sunny South. A fine orator and a noted speaker.

WANTED—A woman to do washing and ironing, either do it at my home or take it away. Call by phone 14-L2 or address a card to Mrs. Harry Rainey, Birmingham. 2t

Many of our people, accustomed to neat surroundings, consider the appearance of the tress and poles along the front of the State Fair grounds a disgrace to the state.

Representative Charles H. Waters and wife, of Saginaw, visited their cousin, Ellsworth Randall and family, last week. Mr. Waters was a delegate to the state convention in Detroit.

Homer H. Colvin, atty. of Pontiac, has been selected as the democratic candidate for the office of Judge of Probate, in place of Hon. Thos. L. Patterson, of Holly, who declined the honor.

The birds have given you their sweetest songs, thru the spring and summer, they have taken the bugs and worms from your rpses, and now you encourage their slaughter by wearing a wing on your hat.

To-morrow, Saturday Oct. 10th. Mr. Francis W. Dunn has a big auction sale and cleans out everything. M. H. Blunt will do the selling. Thos. H. Cobb, clerk. Read the complete list of goods to be sold in this paper.

It is claimed that a man who squeezes a dollar will not squeeze his wife. In looking over our subscription accounts we are led to believe that some awfully good women are not receiving the pressure which they deserve.

The Messrs. Gue Bros. down in Southfield close out everything on the farm, having sold the farm. M. H. Blunt, auctioneer. See bill, or better be read complete list of everything to be sold in this issue. Sale Wednesday 14th. next.

Don't fail to hear Rev. W. S. Sly, of Lansing, on Friday evening at the M. E. Church. He is a candidate for Congress on the prohibition ticket and is a gifted speaker. Mr. Sly has charge of the Orphan's Home in Lansing and is well known in this district

Aug. Muhme on the County Line between the 8 and 9 Mile roads, 5 miles east of Royal Oak, will sell out at auction on Saturday, Oct. 24th., at 10 o'clock a. m. sharp. Free lunch at noon. He will sell horses, cows, farming tools, wagons, harnesses, household goods, etc., etc. Terms, easy. M. H. Blunt, auctioneer. B. L. Grow, clerk.

The ECCENTRIC once more urges upon its patrons who phone this office to, as far as possible, transact their business with the person who answers the phone. Often persons called for have to stop their work in another room and go to the front office to answer the call which could just as easily have been done by the one who answered in the first place.

All the rage! Merry Widow Waltz. Don't be a back number if you are a dancer! Be a modern dancer and dance the Merry Widow waltz, in its new and modified form, just from Pittsburg where it has been more popular than ever was the Barn dance. 'Tis graceful. Join the throng. Be in the swim and learn it, at the assembly at the J. S hall, at 9 o'clock this Friday evening. Admission per couples, 50 cts. Ladies, 25 cts. EARLE G. BARR, Teacher.
