HOME NOTES

The Ladies' of the St. James' church Guild desire to thank Mr. G. F. Ferguson for his donation of coffee at their last supper.

Any one who likes good suppers can get one at the Maccabee hall in the Ford block, Nov. 21. Only 15c. Everything good to eat.

The Maccabees of the World, will have a supper in their hall in the Ford block Saturday, Nov. 21. Cards and dancing in the evening.

Mr. Myers' daughter from Great Fall, Mont., and Miss J. H. Myers, from Kibbee, Mass., have been visiting their father, H. J. Myers, the past four days.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church will hold their regular monthly business meeting and supper at the home of Mrs. Crawford Thurston, Nov. 19. Supper served from 7 to 7.

Down at a church fair at Royal Oak recently, a yards subscription of the ECCENTRIC was secured by Mrs. Thos. Renshaw, Troy, R. F. D. 1. Now for one year Mrs. Renshaw's happiness is secured.

All persons interested in the organization of a Grange in Birmingham are requested to meet at the Maccabee hall on Friday afternoon, Nov. 13, at 7 o'clock. Deputy N. J. Moore will be present to assist in its organization.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the St. James' church will hold a missionary meeting at the home of Mrs. James L. Todd on Thursday, Nov. 19. Rev. H. F. Fox, of Pontiac, will address the ladies and a cordial invitation is extended to all to come.

While getting coal in town recently John D. Evans, of Southfield, fell in his wagon, and broke something. At first he was sure he had broken his watch, but later on, the watchman discovered that it was his rim, that suffered and were broken. Too bad.

Robert Y. Moore, of the National Hotel Cigar store invites you to a feather social to be held at his store Saturday, Nov. 21. At this time and place you can secure your Thanksgiving turkey, chicken, ducks, oysters, etc. Cards are out but this will admit you.

Mrs. George McKinney, who lives 113 miles west of Erie's school house will sail at Antioch Thursday, Nov. 19, at 1 o'clock p. m. Jersey coach, 15 hours, top bunks, two seated bunks, horses, baggage, rakes, etc., also a quantity of household furniture. Terms easy. M. H. Blunt, auctioneer.

Clayton Barnes, of the Barnes Paper Co., and the well known livery man of Rochester, and Miss Loretta Ewing, of Royal Oak, were married at the home bride last Saturday. The happy couple have gone East on their wedding trip and will take up their residence in Rochester on their return. Rochester Era.

In the guessing contest which has been running at Shin's Drug and Grocery store, Bert Bradway was the winner. His guess, 425, being the nearest to the correct number. The squash which was raised by Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Meyers contained 425 seeds. The prize was awarded by J. A. Bigelow, who was unanimously chosen judge.

It is being reported that there were only six prohibition ballots cast in Birmingham at the recent election. The misunderstanding arising from the fact that there were no nominations made for prosecuting attorney and sheriff and those who voted for candidates on other tickets, were counted as not voting a straight ticket.

Sixteen hunters from this little city sailed northward, one bunch left last week Friday night, and the second gang Monday night of this week. The first gang to start were Ed Daniels, John M. Boddow, John M. Rainey, Will Larkie, F. J. Douglas, Phil and Frank Schlaack, Deo Dayton, with Buckle Smith, caterer; this gang will locate 25 miles north of Newberry. The gang of Nimrod's leaving Monday and night last was Dan W. Bray, Harrison Bray, John and George Purdy, Alex Parks, Abm'n R. Parks, J. Bert Peabody, Wm. T. McClellan and Fred Cushman of Redford. This job crew will locate 18 miles south of Newberry and the whole gang, each one, expects to bring home all the law laws.

"The Avenger" by Oppenheim can be found at the library.

Plans are under way for a Thanksgiving services this year.

That was not a land-slide last week - just a pounding and sizzling over the hills" of four or five days.

Another victim of tuberculosis and yet we have friends who will deliberately spit upon our sidewalks and in our stoops.

Mrs. Wakeland, of Washington, daughter of Mrs. S. Bortle, and Mrs. Williams of Detroit, visited Mr. and Mrs. Bortle Saturday last.

I will take a limited number of pupils in voice culture. Anyone wishing instruction, call at my home on North Woodward. Mrs. CAROL LEE BROWN.

There will be an oyster supper in the basement of the St. James' church on Friday, Nov. 20, at 5:30. Oysters in abundance. Everybody invited. Usual price, 25c.

Miss Clara Benedict is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Dore Perry, of Pontiac. White night will attend the Elk party, Nov. 19, which will be one of the social events of the season.

There are a few new children's books at the library, "Animal life," "Animal stories for little people," "A child's garden of verses," by Stevenson, and "Byones in childhood," by James Whitcomb Riley.

Christmas is coming and Daines & Bell are on deck with the greatest Xmas present ever, the Edison photograph with the new ambler records, plays four minutes. Ever hear one? Just drop in, tell George to set 'em going and he's happy.

The Ladies' Church society of the First Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. Clizbe on Wednesday afternoon of next week. As this is the last meeting before the Christmas bazaar, a large attendance is desired to make final arrangements.

Men drilling for water on the Conkle farm, near Big Beaver, struck natural gas. An explosion occurred which wrecked their apparatus and plastered the side of the house with mud. There is a gas pressure of 20 pounds to the square inch, and Conkle will have the gas piped to the house.

Dr. Grace Leone Smith, of Chicago, is severely injured by a fall recently sustained at her home in Chicago. Her legs were just as good as broken and she has been a great sufferer ever since the accident. Dr. C. E. Mitchell, who was at Racine, Wis., hastened home and is doing all she can to keep their work going.

Every time apples are thrown into the pipes leading from the toilet rooms at our school house, the pipe becomes clogged, the water overflows and takes the refuse with it. Not only is much expense incurred but also much risk to the health. None notices, or even cautions your children for their own sake and for others. Any child old enough to be in school can be taught this.

Bobbie Barnham and Clark Harris, of Royal Oak, are no longer alleged allies. They were arrested Saturday last on warrants sworn out by the woman's husband together with Fred R. Lamb, who is also implicated, are still in the Pontiac jail, they having been unable to furnish a $1000 bond. Lamb was released on bond to appear for examination before Justice Compton, at Rochester, on Nov. 11.

Mrs. Emma Tibbals, of Lone Pine, is at her home recovering from injuries received at Greenville, a few days ago, when she fell on a trencher while in company with Mrs. Addie Riley. Mrs. Tibbals was returning to the latter's home from an afternoon call. The latter stepped on a loose board and fell over tripping Mrs. Tibbals. While no bones were broken, she was quite badly shaken up.

Thanksgiving should always be for some special object. Now then always keep your buildings and premises insured against loss by fire and tornadoes and yourself against loss of wages by accident or sickness with J. A. Bigelow, The Hartford and German American for fire and tornado, the Aetna for accident or sickness and then you will be thankful, if the loss should occur, that you were wise in time and prepared against the storm.

Capt. Morty O. Bigelow surprised his many friends by quietly dropping in on them Sunday last. He is the same cheery, jovial Birmingham boy as of old. After two years sojourn in the Yellowstone Park, his troop has been transferred to Arizona. He has a leave and started for his daughter in New York City Wednesday. While abroad say three years ago, when he started for home he traveled 14,000 miles before reaching his destination. That's going some.

"A short since a man moved from this village to one larger, and some 30 miles away. He said there were too many restrictions here. This infernal Village Improvement society - woe was his name - had made such a fuss about the streets being clean, and he couldn't stand it. When a short time after he came back and was asked why, he said, "well it was so dirty up here, so many papers on the street and so many horse tracks, I mean, I was up my mind I would come back, stop my kicking and help to make a clean rown." (This is a true story.)

Rooms to rent for housekeeping on Hamilton avenue. Inquire of Mrs. M. S. Smith.

A beautiful fall. Did you ever know of a more perfect fall than this one of 1907? It does beat all and we are glad of it.

FOR SALE - Three milk cows (Durahams) or will trade for breeding ewes. Also barn stalls to rent. See Thomas Cook, Birmingham.

There will be a social of the ladies and gentlemen of the St. James' church at Mrs. Wm. Hulbert's on Friday evening at 7:30.

Good seven room house to rent. Corner of Willetts and Chester streets. Fine location. Inquire of Mrs. Corson or the Oakland Realty company. 21

News reaches us from far away New Mexico that Stanley Webber has killed a red deer, a regular buck, weighing 300 pounds. That's going some.

Down at T. G. Holmes' fine country home, Charles H. Leach, a former well known Birmingham resident, has just finished for Mr. Holmes over 200 feet of fine stone fence work in front of the house. Columns or pillars are in place where needed and awaiting the work is fine and artistic.

Eight new telephones were installed last week at the home of Frank Boyce, "the trouble shooter," is wide awake and onto his job. The new comers are: Herbert J. Broughton, 12 J 4; Elmer Highty, 12 L 4; E. L. Holloway, 149 E. 1st; Taxworn, 146 J. Detroit Secy Co., 109; First State Savings Bank, 149; Wm. Johnston, 106 L; John F. Peters, 115.

Here is an offer from Pontiac that you cannot ignore. The French Studio opposite Hotel Hodges, Pontiac, says "all those sitting before Nov. 21 will receive an extra photo free of charge. Read the ad in this paper. Get your Christmas photos right now."

Suppose you have a dog, cow or horse and it passes out. Don't trim sides before bringing them to me for tanning. A. R. Parks is the man who will see that the tanning is done and done right. Bring in your hides and have a coat or robe made from it. It don't forget a pair of mittens free with each order for a coat or robe, made from pieces left from around the edge of the hide, made for inside, fresh cut. Read his new ad, and see Austin at once.

Stephen Collier, the 11 year old son of W. C. Collier, secretary-treasurer of the American Harrow Co., of Detroit, who was accidentally shot by his 12 year old brother Wright last Saturday night, will recover. The boys were playing Indian on their father's big farm, one mile south of Pontiac. The older boy picked up a 32 caliber revolver, not thinking it was loaded, and snapped it at Stephen's head. It went through the forehead and the bullet passed through the boy's body missing his heart by a hair's breadth, passing through his left lung, and then lodged in a hard-wood chair. The Chicago physician in attendance says the boy has fair chances for recovery.

Be thankful! Thanking, the day set by our forefathers for the giving of thanks for whatever there is to be thankful for, is upon us. It is up to all Americans to be thankful for something or other. In the next issue of this paper we will give you the clearest kind of a holiday article headed, "Thanking here and in foreign climes." You need this spirit. It has made men live longer. It has kept their minds healthy, even though they eat themselves sick Thanksgiving day. So read how. You know the way the day is celebrated in America.

This article deals with Thanksgivings of other nations as well as those of the U. S. A. What has the Sultan of Turkey to enthuse over? This clever article is aptly illustrated with photos. It will appear in next issue. Read it. This feature will be run in our edition which we print on Friday, Nov. 20.
