GOOD REPORTS OF THE LATE ELECTION

LOOKING OVER THE FIELD OF BATTLE SHOWS MATTERS OF INTEREST.

SOME SENATE CHANGES.

Matters of Note and Gossip, Fact and Fancy, Picked Up Here and There and Briefly Told.

That the defeat of Mr. Bryan, by Mr. Taft was overwhelming is expressed in the result as to the presidency in the elections of last week. Some of the vital factors of the enormous vote are of noteworthy significance.

At least 12 new United States senators will be elected to Washington as a result of the election changes. In 29 states legislatures were elected which will have to hand the selection of senators to take office next March.

In a partisan sense, the changes would be expected. The Republicans will gain a senator in Oregon and another in Indiana, while the Democrats will retain overwhelming control of the senate.

Ohio will elect a Republican senator to take office next March. It is considered that the Archbald republicans have put him down and out. It may be that he will be elected.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon's big victory in his own district seems to mark the end of his political career. He is considered that he will be elected.

PERFECT HEALTH.

After years of Backache, Dizziness and Kidney Disorders.

Mrs. R. C. Richmond, of Northwood, Iowa, says: "For years I was a martyr to kidney trouble, backache, dizziness, headache and a terrible bearing-down pain. I used one remedy after another without benefit. Finally I used a box of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills and the backache ceased. Encouraged, I kept on, and by the time I had used three boxes not a sign of the trouble remained. My health is perfect."

LAUGH WAS ON THE DEACON. Statement Might Be True, But Certainly Was Unhappily Expressed.

"I regret to say," remarked Deacon French, at the last meeting of the Squawville Political Debate club, "that this club has been deteriorating ever since I became a member of it."

"What I mean to say is," he continued, with some haste, "that ever since I joined this club I've noticed a gradual but decided change for the worse."

The smile on the faces of the other members deepened, and the deacon's face turned crimson.

"You all know what I mean," he added, desperately. "What I mean is that from the very minute I joined this club, the quality of the members of the Squawville Political Debate club, I can see that it was beginning to lose its value as an organization."

BOY KEPT SCRATCHING. Eczema Lasted 7 Years—Face Was All Raw—Skin Specialists Failed, But Cuticura Effected Cure.

"When my little boy was six weeks old an eruption broke out on his face. I took him to a doctor, but his face kept getting worse until it got so bad that the doctors gave up. I tried every remedy, but nothing helped. Finally I tried Cuticura. It cured him in ten days."

AFTER THE SHOT.

Robbie Rabbit—Never in all my life has such shocking language been used by any mortal that boy has used in the last three minutes. Ooah!

His Epitaph. "What is one request," said the dying man to his relatives. "What is it?" they asked him earnestly. "We will grant you anything," "Well," replied the man, feebly, "I wish you to have carved upon my monument these words: Here lies a man who worked for his living."

Realizing that he had forestalled any attempt on the part of his relatives to brag too much about their family connections, he sank into a sweet sleep.
