

We will not mince words here.

Ren Bell is having all kinds of thieves around his farm. Last week Ren and his brother chased two or three nearly to Royal Oak and the thieves shot at them, and the boys had long ago fired back to turn back.

William McClelland died last Sunday morning of old age, just worn out. He was 85 years old. He was buried at Southfield last Tuesday at 2:30. He was highly respected and one of the best citizens loved by everybody.

Mrs. John D. Evans entertained friends from Toronto last week. Uncle John came to town after coal and leaning over the wagon box at the coal yard, he fell against the engine, his head cracked three or four of his ribs, but at this writing he is getting along nicely.

At the Erith school, where Miss Iva Felder teaches, the officers of the district bought a new stove, a grand mirror. Now the scholars can keep warm and keep their hair looking nice. I tell you that our country schools are not very far behind our city schools in order and cleanliness.

A trip to the George G. Booth farm. They are putting up a toboggan slide. It runs from the top most hill and on across the ice to the east road, a ride for your life. You talk about Belle Isle, it isn't in it and the grand road has been made out of the old mill and north to Quinlan's farm, a road that is a pride to Oakland county and has cost a good sum of money.

A few men would make Oakland county one of the richest in Michigan. Seven Years of Proof. "I have had seven years of proof that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best medicine to take for coughs and colds and for every diseased condition of throat, chest or lungs."

Chas. Clark and wife were Detroit visitors Sunday last. Elda Aspinwall and Nora Jarvis were Detroit visitors Friday last. Rev. A. E. Croft closed his special meetings at Warren last week.

The Ladies Aid met with Mrs. Elizabeth Renfrew of Colrain last Thursday. Mrs. Vetter has been entertaining an invalid cousin from Flint the past week. Miss Carrieingham will be at the H. B. Wattle's home the coming two weeks.

Mrs. Mattie Wattle left on Tuesday for Indiana, for a two weeks visit with a sister. The pastor and a number of others attended the Sunday School convention in Detroit last week.

Mrs. Alice Tripp of Owosso, spent the past week with her sisters, Mrs. Clark and Miss Morgan. Mr. and Mrs. John Weier and son Robert of Birmingham called at Jake Messel's home, and on Albert Weier's Sunday.

Mrs. Mabel Nichol of Pontiac, placed fresh flowers on her little daughter's grave the 12th, in memory of the child's 12th birthday. Chas. Shultz, Jr., left for Colorado Thursday for his health as his lungs are badly affected. He hopes to be benefited by the climatic change.

The sudden death of Mrs. Prudy Messel, was a shock to the community; the bereaved family have the sympathy of their friends and neighbors. The funeral of Mrs. Esther Clark, was largely attended. Interment was made in the Plains cemetery, by the side of her late husband Miles Clark. Squire Judkins' 'Apple Bee' will be given by the Troy Aid and League, the fore part of December. The cast of characters met Monday night with Miss Rhode Niles. Cards are out for the wedding of Mr. Charles Alger and Miss Hannah Knoll, on Thanksgiving Day. The ceremony will take place in their new home at Royal Oak. If the new Postoffice Hospital was completed by next fall, the position would be there, then his many friends could call up anyone to inquire after him. Everybody is glad to know he is doing so well.

FRANKLIN Leon German, of Lansing, made a flying visit with his parents here recently.

The weeks from now on have much in the way of entertainment. The holiday season is now fast approaching. W. Walstead has sold his farm to Elias Stogel, of Pine Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Stogel intend spending the winter with their daughter, C. A. and Mrs. M. G. H. German and daughter, Amy, Mr. and Mrs. F. Chambers of Pontiac, visited the former's brother near Northville recently.

Miss Addie Sly and cousin, Miss Bennett, will soon leave for Wilkesbar, Pa., for the winter. We are sorry to lose them and hope for their return in the warm spring time. Miss Laurine Irish, a former young lady of this place, is attending college in Topeka, Kansas. Her many friends will be pleased to hear she is well and enjoying her school work.

Miss Phena Bigelow, who stayed a good part of the summer at the George farm near Long Lake, returned home and will stay for a time, at least, with her mother, Mrs. A. Bigler. The Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. E. Miller on Thursday, Nov. 19. A pleasant time reported by those present. The ladies were busy making rugs for the hospital at Pontiac.

One of the prettiest events of the autumn season took place at the home of Mrs. O. Bergeson, in honor of a few friends and members of the L. O. T. M. Society. Without doubt those present enjoyed a fine time. The P. H. Association will celebrate Thanksgiving eve with a dancing party given at their great event. Come and enjoy one of the times of your lives. Bixby's orchestra will furnish the music.

The L. F. M. Society of this place will convene at the home of Rev. and Mrs. O. D. Deane, 3. A bazaar will be given by the ladies in this society. A good time to invest in these articles for Christmas. The dinner will consist of chicken pies and other good eatables, 15c is the price stated.

How is Your Digestion? Mrs. Mary Dowling, of 228 Eighth Avenue, St. Petersburg, recommends Foley's for stomach trouble. "I am fully convinced that for stomach and liver trouble, Foley's Bile Beans is the best remedy on the market today."

AT THE THEATRES. LYCEUM. As a special Thanksgiving week attraction the management of the Lyceum theatre will offer the popular and popular actor-actor, David Higgins, in his newest and greatest success, "Capt. Jack of Missouri."
