HOME NOTES

To place a bust of Lincoln in the Library.

The U. O. T. M. of the World met in the J. S. Hall Monday evening, to initiate new members.

The Women's Home Missionary society, of the M. E. Church, will meet at the home of Mrs. Staley, Thursday, Feb. 13th.

The Ladies church society of the First Presbyterian Church are preparing a social trial to be given the last week in February.

Musical for the coming Macabees of the World dancing party, Hive No. 25, will be the same as that at the K. of P. party—Finney's orchestra. None better.

Eugene Parsell, U. S. postal inspector, has finished the examination of both Birmingham and Franklin postoffices, Postmasters Hanna and Bingham will feel proud of the result, as Mr. Parsell's report places these offices at the head of their class.

The music committee of the Methodist church intend to bring before you another fine concert in the very near future. It will be equal to, if not better than the last one when we learned, "How the Froggies went to sleep."

Two of Chas. J. Shain's debts out of a party, and on a sleigh ride, one night not long ago had their outer tip and a narrow escape from serious injury. One of them, the best looking, solemnly avers, that in their mad and tight flight, they sailed over two boys, a cut, rail fence and a hay-stack, from cutter to earth.

The Con. Con. recently got in a deadlock over the question of compensation for members of the State Legislature. To the view of one of our ablest citizens of this commonwealth, if the average State Legislator is worth no more than many of the Con. Con. delegates, the proverbial 30 cents would be a high price for their services.

The dancing class of Miss Georgia Hoyt now numbers nearly 40. This accomplished teacher can care for 60 pupils and up to that number she will receive new pupils. All the popular dances are taught especially the latest "The Barn Dance." Those who wish to take are invited to call on the lady at the Johnston & Shaw hall next Tuesday night.

Last Friday was for sure a Blizzard day. Out of five rural route mail carriers from our post-office, only one, W. H. Wood, made the complete round, as he was very late and almost all in take, are invited to call on the lady at the Johnston & Shaw hall next Tuesday night.

Did you notice the fine condition of the road between here and Pontiac all last season? Many thought that after the toll gate was abandoned the good road would soon be a thing of the past. Not so. Charles A. Brush was appointed overseer of highways for the township, and his good judgment and care kept the road perfect in every respect. If it is possible thing, the services of Mr. Brush should be retained, as he is talented for this work.

Mrs. Grace A. McKinnis laughingly told her children they couldn't give her a party because her 67th birthday anniversary came on Sunday, February 24th on Monday, February 24th of the near relatives gathered in all a bunch, and nearly gave the good lady the "highstrickers." It was a complete surprise, and a happy one. Refreshments were served, followed by cards, games, and the usual good wishes were left by the jolly crowd.

One night recently thirteen unlooked for K. P. friends came out for a supper, a good time, and to surprise their worthy brother, Andy Anderson, of the National Hotel. Among the number were John P. Hollings, A. N. K. Jones, Thomas Spellman, and Mr. Kerkahs. Almost 15 years ago the latter two gentlemen organized and set going Birmingham K. P. lodge and it has been running ever since. Local K. P.'s were invited in and the evening passed all too swiftly.

The total number of books drawn from the public library during the month of Jan., '09 was 29,174. Many books on history and travel were popular.

And over some of the women in Oakland Co. are wondering how a man can vote against "Woman's Suffrage" and yet be a consistent temperance worker.

Mrs. S. L. Lester, of Maple ave., is away for the winter at her Florida winter home. She is in Crescent city and missed our big blizzard snow storm and zero weather. Good for the good lady.

Edward Fostick has been appointed guardian over Fern Weston, the Birmingham rural mail-carrier, who was recently adjudged insane and taken to the asylum. $800 was required for his bond of $800.

Look up Wm. Eugene Smith's change of advt. this week. While he is not advertising cut rates in winter millinery, he can sell you a stone-bust and that is something you don't see every day.

Every one in Michigan has words of praise or Roosevelt's brave message; every one, except some of our representatives at Washington. Ode of our leading papers daily, that they haven't got word from the situation yet.

The January club entertained a few of the friends at progressive pedro last Friday evening. The ladies served light refreshments, after which the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, all having a very pleasant time.

The Library Board will give a reception at the library, in honor of Lincoln's birthday, Wednesday evening Feb. 12th from eight to ten. A short program will be given and a collection will be taken for the purchase of a life size bust of the great hero.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Griffin last week Thursday, a bouncing baby boy, who weighed just 94 pounds. Mother and child doing finely and Papa Griffin is so rejoiced that he almost shovelled snow in Sunday last. He says heretofore the boy can do all this kind of work.

You should read the article in the February Review of Reviews on George Meredith, the great English novelist, whom Mrs. Henry Ward calls the "Master of us all," then call for "Diana of the Crossways" by the same author. You cannot afford to miss it.

A very pleasant day was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Fall on Tuesday. It being the birthday of their daughter, Mrs. Isaac Voorhees. Those present from out of town were, Mrs. Hugh Montgomery, Mrs. Henry Ward, Mrs. Mrs. George Spear, and Mrs. John Scott, of Detroit.

Cards are detouring the first hall ever given by the Lady Macabees of the World, Hive No. 25. This is to be a Valentine social party at the J.S. Hall music in attendance. If you receive a card and don't attend, you won't live long enough to outgrow your sorrow. The ladies have said it.

The county road institute for Oakland County will be held at Pontiac, on Feb. 11th, 1909, beginning at 10 a. m. Highway commissioners in attendance will receive their expenses and on-day's pay. Every one interested in the question of good roads is cordially invited to attend. The sessions will be held in connection with the Farmers Institute.

E. G. Gardner has purchased the milk route of the 11th block, and will serve the patrons better than ever. No matter what you may desire—good rich sweet milk, skim-milk, sour milk, butter-milk, or cream—he will supply you. Mr. Gardner has contracted for a telephone, and as soon as it can be connected the number will be announced.

Howard G. Carter slipped and fell on a crosswalk on Merrill street, near W. Cockerline's, one day last week. At the time he did not think himself hurt very much, but after a few days in the city office, he was obliged to come home and has been confined to his bed ever since. We sincerely hope nothing of a serious nature will follow his accident.

Miss E. Flynn, Pontiac's most popular milliner for the past eight years, has sold out her business to Miss Anna Nusbaum and Nellie Steiner, who will follow in her footsteps. The new firm will no doubt retain Miss Flynn's customers; and also many new ones. The new name of Miss Flynn will be in Detroit, Mich., where she will engage in the same business. She is accompanied by the best wishes of a host of friends for her health, wealth and happiness.

At the Women's Literary Club, last Tuesday, the following papers were given: "Congo Free State, Congo Let's Bold, and the Treaty of Berlin," Mrs. Bell; "The Rubber Trade," Mrs. Smith; "The Congo Association," Mrs. Jamieson. At roll call Mrs. Barr gave a fine tribute to the late Mr. Trollope, she said he left on his way to the front. He kept his interests in all the topics of the day, his interest in the young people, and in the children; always generous and unselfish. Next week is Dickens Day at the Club, in charge of Mrs. Cooper.

The running of the D. U. R. snow-plow, for the Pontiac division, under Supt. John Barclay, was done by Mr. Sidney L. Clark, veteran motorman. He certainly is skilled in his line of business. For our division has not yet been broken back with snow. Last Saturday and Sunday he was at the front end of the snow-plow 18 hours without a skip. Sunday went over to the Rochester division, dug out and rescued two cars that had been locked in for many hours, much to the joy and relief of the many suffering passengers. All this was extra work, and did not hinder in home missionary work, i. e. keeping the wheels going round at home. He was assisted by Prof. W. Quandt, of the teaching department, and a host of helpers, experienced in the art of rescuing lost passengers from deep snow drifts with shovels.

Midland County takes its stand for local option and against the saloons.

W. S. Walker is now agent for the Monitor Fire Insurance Company for Troy, in place of Charles Haddell, resigned.

For Rent:—Farm of 130 acres. Money rent or shares. About 20 acres of pasture land. Inquire of Samuel Groves, Birmingham.

Mrs. Wesley K. Mason, of Montreal, Quebec, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Smith, has returned to her foreign home.

The ground-hog, bear or wood-chuck whichever one you pin your faith to, saw his shadow last Sunday, and now, six weeks more of winter is assured. Wonder if he brought Wednesday's weather?

Every town around us has been having fires since this cold weather set in. Are we sure we are ready in case of trouble? Does our alarm system work? Are the hydrants frozen? Don't let history repeat itself.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church will hold their regular monthly business meeting and supper at Mrs. Showell's home on Woodward ave., Feb. 7, '09. Everyone invited. Supper 15 cts. All the ladies are requested to bring their "foot of dimes" to this meeting.

Will the ECCECENTRIC tell us about our prospects for electric lights? anxiously inquires a Reader. Every time people gaze on those at Royal Oak they make comments. We give it up. With these good companies clamoring for the privilege, there are no signs of anything doing by our city fathers, and it is to them.

The Birmingham Public Library has nearly a full set of Harper's Monthly and is trying to fill in the missing numbers. Mrs. Hulth Miller has recently donated four bound volumes of three unbound years. Those now needed are June to November, 1855, all of 1855, all of 1860, and all since 1900. Any persons having these years and willing to donate them to the library, will please notify the librarian.
