WEEKLY CROWD TO MANHOOD

LANDMARKS ASSOCIATED WITH THE EMANCIPATOR'S EARLY LIFE IN KENTUCKY AND INDIANA.

CONGRESSMAN THOS. CALE.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 12.—The Hon. Thos. Cale, who was elected to Congress from Alaska, is well known on the Pacific slope, where he has been for the past several years. His Washington address is 1212 G. St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

February 12 of this year the mind of every American citizen is in a momentary confusion. It is the day that marks the birth of the man who has made the life of the nation a study, and who has made the people who live in Kentucky, Indiana and Illinois look upon the birthday anniversary as something more than the mere passing of a milestone. Each of the states claims a right to be the home of the man who has made for himself an immortal name in the history of the world's greatest work.

Man-in-lin the Ideal Laxative.
Too interesting to bury. There is a certain little southern girl who is very fond of her mamma. The nurse's name is Sally, and she is a large woman, so she is known as Big Sally. When she was some fifteen months old, she was greatly interested in the things that she did not tire of talking about them. Perhaps a week later, at the supper table, after a protracted silence, she said:

And learn what he could in the real court, which was in session there several times during the year. The court house in Booneville, then a small hamlet of less than 300 inhabitants, is a strong contrast to the beautiful new structure that now adorns the beautiful little town, stood in the very spot where the new one now stands. It was a frame building; the architecture was, to say the least, very novel. A porch, seven feet wide and two feet deep, was added with a window being built, on which was built a stone wall 18 inches high. This furnished the foundation upon which the building proper rested. The building itself was never entirely completed. It was weather boarded, but neither plastered nor lathed. It remained in this condition until 1838, which was after the Lincoln family had moved to Illinois. It was capable of holding only a hundred people and could only be used in the summer. In the night the cattle which grazed about town would go there for shelter. Such was the structure which President Lincoln received his first impulse to become a lawyer. Here it was that he received his first rudimentary practice in pleading cases that affected land in making him the lawyer of the reputation he had.

A Baffled Palmist Journalist.
There is a chewing gum slot machine in the waiting room at the Seaboard Air Line Depot in Cheraw that is either out of fix or has no gum in it and should be removed. We deposited two cents in it Saturday night and got no gum. Of course two cents is a small amount, as for that matter, but the machine should be looked after carefully, so it will become a public nuisance.—Cheraw-Field Advertiser.

Shortly after the assassination of Abraham Lincoln a picnic party from the little town of Dale went up to Lincoln City, which was after the Lincoln family had moved to Illinois. It was capable of holding only a hundred people and could only be used in the summer. In the night the cattle which grazed about town would go there for shelter. Such was the structure which President Lincoln received his first impulse to become a lawyer. Here it was that he received his first rudimentary practice in pleading cases that affected land in making him the lawyer of the reputation he had.

The Retort Venomous.
"So this is your widely advertised doggie table (doggie dinner, it is)" said the indignant would-be diner, as he pushed aside an entire which he could not masticate. "Why, this is the last place in the world I would recommend to friends."

Grand Jury Called.
Judge Howard West, of the Indiana circuit bench, has called a grand jury. There is as yet no positive knowledge as to what the grand jury will do, but it is thought to be at all likely that any county affairs are coming up for a hearing. It looks like a grand jury will be called.
