

From the State Capital

Information and Gossip Furnished by Special Correspondent at Lansing.

Know-edges is success.
It is better to help than to hinder.
A good cubber is better than a bad shoemaker.
The lefty man and oak are ever exposed to the worst storms.
A western man has invented a balloon that will go 60 miles an hour if nothing happens.

The simplified spelling board has found an absolute cure for phthisis. They spell it "tise."

Charles Spinks do not need constant parties. They just come out a few golf-in-pants might help.

A New York wrangler was convicted after identification by his voice alone. He should have eaten a clove.

The German lottery agent who has been sentenced to 141 years in prison has obviously drawn an unlucky number.

A New York society woman appeared at a charity entertainment as Sabine with a huge snake rolled up her neck. At least, reported they saw it.

Twelve New York jurors who were fined $50 each because they tossed a penny for the purpose of arriving at a verdict are likely to give up the idea that the law is a joke.

The New York snuffragettes have given up their organic parties and will substitute tea and bridge-whist parties. Naturally, earnest leaders of the cause can see the ladylike blight of the cause.

A Pennsylvania youth recently committed suicide because he was reprimanded. Such a degree of sensitivity would indicate that the sensitive was being spared too much and the child probably would have killed himself.

No surprise is created by the news that a Brooklyn rug manufacturer has been leading a double life. Any man who has to live in Brooklyn cannot be blamed for wanting another existence, says the Chicago Journal.

Various American fishes, such as the sheepshead and the bluefish, have lately appeared in large numbers in the Bay of Biscay. It is possible that the animals are being attracted there by the waters of our coast.

A young man in Philadelphia tried to kill himself because an actress, with whom he was in love, had sensibly advised him "not to be a lobster."

No surprise is created by the news that a Brooklyn rug manufacturer has been leading a double life. Any man who has to live in Brooklyn cannot be blamed for wanting another existence, says the Chicago Journal.

Various American fishes, such as the sheepshead and the bluefish, have lately appeared in large numbers in the Bay of Biscay. It is possible that the animals are being attracted there by the waters of our coast.

A young man in Philadelphia tried to kill himself because an actress, with whom he was in love, had sensibly advised him "not to be a lobster."

No surprise is created by the news that a Brooklyn rug manufacturer has been leading a double life. Any man who has to live in Brooklyn cannot be blamed for wanting another existence, says the Chicago Journal.

Various American fishes, such as the sheepshead and the bluefish, have lately appeared in large numbers in the Bay of Biscay. It is possible that the animals are being attracted there by the waters of our coast.

A young man in Philadelphia tried to kill himself because an actress, with whom he was in love, had sensibly advised him "not to be a lobster."

No surprise is created by the news that a Brooklyn rug manufacturer has been leading a double life. Any man who has to live in Brooklyn cannot be blamed for wanting another existence, says the Chicago Journal.

Various American fishes, such as the sheepshead and the bluefish, have lately appeared in large numbers in the Bay of Biscay. It is possible that the animals are being attracted there by the waters of our coast.

A young man in Philadelphia tried to kill himself because an actress, with whom he was in love, had sensibly advised him "not to be a lobster."

No surprise is created by the news that a Brooklyn rug manufacturer has been leading a double life. Any man who has to live in Brooklyn cannot be blamed for wanting another existence, says the Chicago Journal.

Various American fishes, such as the sheepshead and the bluefish, have lately appeared in large numbers in the Bay of Biscay. It is possible that the animals are being attracted there by the waters of our coast.

A young man in Philadelphia tried to kill himself because an actress, with whom he was in love, had sensibly advised him "not to be a lobster."

No surprise is created by the news that a Brooklyn rug manufacturer has been leading a double life. Any man who has to live in Brooklyn cannot be blamed for wanting another existence, says the Chicago Journal.

Various American fishes, such as the sheepshead and the bluefish, have lately appeared in large numbers in the Bay of Biscay. It is possible that the animals are being attracted there by the waters of our coast.

A young man in Philadelphia tried to kill himself because an actress, with whom he was in love, had sensibly advised him "not to be a lobster."

No surprise is created by the news that a Brooklyn rug manufacturer has been leading a double life. Any man who has to live in Brooklyn cannot be blamed for wanting another existence, says the Chicago Journal.

Various American fishes, such as the sheepshead and the bluefish, have lately appeared in large numbers in the Bay of Biscay. It is possible that the animals are being attracted there by the waters of our coast.

The Saginaw River is falling slowly on Wednesday and the flood danger is over.
A mud dog broke loose in Muskegon and killed two of two children who had been bitten.

The Jackson County Bar association indicted Judge West for the new federal judgeship charges.

Clarence Harpham, a Lake Shore brakeman, was fatally crushed between two freight cars at Auburn.

Wm. J. Boyd was given 90 days in the Detroit house of correction for keeping a saloon in Hillsdale open on Sunday.

Paul Kania, who arrived in Detroit from Poland a year ago, has been confined to the killing of Patrick Campbell, a farmer.

William Horton, 20, and Oliver J. W. Boyd, 21, were indicted for the death of a man in London.

Clifford Williams, a farmer living near Detroit, was struck by a Grand Trunk train and instantly killed, while walking on the tracks.

Mrs. Josephine Boyd gave birth to a girl while in the Saginaw detention hospital as a smallpox patient. The child is free from disease.

The medical department has applied to the regents for an annex to the University of Michigan.

For the second time within two weeks the Globe hotel in Port Huron has been gutted by fire.

The board of supervisors of water works has been asked to consider the building of a new water system.

Hiram Tice, of Standish, who was released from the Traverse City Jail, has been arrested for a second time.

Margaret Alice Campbell, miller, was arrested for $10,000 against William Catechist, prominent club and business man, she alleges he embezzled.

While planning a reception for her son after the expiration of his enlistment, Mrs. J. M. Poole, of Battle Creek, received word of his death.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Lansing—A congressional model for five-year-old Dewey Nelson of Bangor township, Bay county, for his heroism in rescuing his younger brother and a baby who were being held by a mad dog.

He is sought by Congressman George A. Loud, to whom papers, letters and a baby who were being held by a mad dog.

Paul Kania, who arrived in Detroit from Poland a year ago, has been confined to the killing of Patrick Campbell, a farmer.

William Horton, 20, and Oliver J. W. Boyd, 21, were indicted for the death of a man in London.

Clifford Williams, a farmer living near Detroit, was struck by a Grand Trunk train and instantly killed, while walking on the tracks.

Mrs. Josephine Boyd gave birth to a girl while in the Saginaw detention hospital as a smallpox patient. The child is free from disease.

The medical department has applied to the regents for an annex to the University of Michigan.

For the second time within two weeks the Globe hotel in Port Huron has been gutted by fire.

The board of supervisors of water works has been asked to consider the building of a new water system.

Hiram Tice, of Standish, who was released from the Traverse City Jail, has been arrested for a second time.

Margaret Alice Campbell, miller, was arrested for $10,000 against William Catechist, prominent club and business man, she alleges he embezzled.

While planning a reception for her son after the expiration of his enlistment, Mrs. J. M. Poole, of Battle Creek, received word of his death.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Confesses $75,000 Theft.

Post Huron.—A searching investigation into the affairs of the United Home Protectors' fraternity at this city, ordered by the state attorney, was completed Thursday.

Grand Jurors, who were summoned by the state attorney, were present at the hearing of the case.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Stoessel's Jail Life.

Lieut. Gen. Stoessel, who last week began to serve ten years in prison for conviction of a crime, was taken to the jail at Port Arthur.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

General Sniffout Fatally Wounded at the Fourth Shot.

Lieut. Gen. Sniffout was fatally wounded at the fourth shot during the attack on the Japanese.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.

Dorsey Nelson, aged 8, of Bay City, who saved his two younger brothers from being killed by a train, was awarded a letter of commendation from Admiral Dewey.

Trying to drive a supposedly mad dog from her school room, Miss David, a Dundee teacher, was bitten on the head by the animal, and it was later killed by a crowd which pursued it.

Charles H. Knapp, a young man, and one of the sons of the late Charles H. Knapp, were killed in a fight.