AT THE THEATRES.

LYCEUM.

Next week Vaughan Glaser and his company will produce for the first time in stock "The Girl of the Golden West," David Belasco's stirring drama of California in the days of '49. This piece has never been produced in stock and was produced by Mr. Glaser at a tremendous cost, and will undoubtedly prove the biggest sensation of the theatrical season. The principal character is the "Girl," Minnie Smith, and is one of varying moods, suffering and unending surprises which require an exceptional amount of emotional ability to depict.

The engagement opens with a Sunday matinee, in addition to which the regular Wednesday and Saturday matinees will be given.

A Californian's Luck.

"The luckiest day of my life was when I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," writes Charles F. Budahn, of Tracy, California. "Two 25c boxes cured me of an annoying case of itching piles, which had troubled me for years and that yielded to no other treatment." Sold under guarantee at Charles J. Shain's and Cobb & Cobb's drug stores.

CATARRH SUFFERERS

Richfield's Catarrh Prescription costs but a trifle. One bottle affords the most wonderful relief. And it takes but a few to enable any Catarrh sufferer to get control of the most severe cases of Catarrh of the Stomach, Catarrh of the Head, Catarrh of the Bowels, Caiarrh of the Bladder.

Catarrh is an inflammation of the mucous membranes and is the same wherever found. Sometimes Catarrh becomes so bad that the sufferer feels that the whole inside of his head is in a state bordering on rottenness, judging from the odor of the breath, the mucous discharges and the continual filling of the nose and throat with matter which, if swallowed, tends to disarrange the stomach, causing a general "run-down" condition of bodily health.

Richfield's Sure Catarrh Prescription is never known to fail. Price 50c.
