est Especially to Young

Hear what an old lady says. This here is the beautifiest town and the here is the heart of is the kerfew to keep the young ones off from the streets at night or police to save the boys and girls from their-selves as it were. Why boys in knie preeches and older with cigarettes in their mouths, only when they take them out so an oath can escape and thems the kind of boys that marries girls that have to go and buy washtubs girls that have to go and buy washtubs and boards and take in washing to take sary of them, thems the kind of boys always looking for jobs, thems. The kind of girls that nice boys like to have fun with but they don't want they don't want from the boys like to have the control of the night to stop right where the control of the night to stop right where the control of the night to stop right where the control of the night to stop right where the control of the night to stop right where the control of the night to stop right where the night for the total the night and boys, now give-tial up, this rowdyism, stealing flowers and fruits, boldering and boud-addising are not nice in the day time on the street, let alone the night and if you will only quit it, you will remove the light from this pretty town.
