

THE REPUBLICAN NOMINEES

Julian W. Lyon of Georgia was recruited to make the motion to adjourn without day. It was put into effect at 11:47 a. m. The band played "The Star-Spangled Banner," the delegates rapidly filed through the hall and the convention of 1908 had made its way into history.

HON. WILLIAM H. TAFT. HON. JAMES S. SHERMAN.

TAFT AND SHERMAN AS SLATE
Republican Convention
at Chicago Names
the Ticket.

War Secretary and New York Congressman Selected as Candidates for President and Vice-President--Proceedings of the Convention--Big Demonstration for Theodore Roosevelt.

Chicago.—For president of the United States, William H. Taft of Ohio was named Thursday, and for vice-president, James S. Sherman of New York.

Taft on the first ballot, Taft by 602 votes; Sherman on the unanimous choice of the convention. Sherman on the first ballot, Sherman by the unanimous choice of the convention.

Scene of Wild Enthusiasm.—As the Huxley state was reached, the tall, gaunt form of Theodore E. Burton, with student-like face and severe black clerical garb, advanced to the platform to nominate Ohio.

Satan's Subtle Reasoning.—There is a legend of a sultan who overtook himself and did not know it. He came and awakened him and told him to get up and pray.

their enthusiasm, and they lapsed into silence to hear the result of the roll call.

This roll now gave the opportunity for the speech seconding Taft's nomination, by George H. Knight of California, his big, round face beaming forth on the sympathetic multitude.

Demstration for La Follette.—But, no; just as the last wall of the convention, now literally sweating with the intense heat and weary after nearly seven hours of continuous session, reached the end of the flood of eloquence and the decks were at last cleared for the culminating act.

Hushed by the Roll Call.—Taft, Taft, W. H. Taft, came in a roar from the Obions.

Earlier in the day the battle over the platform had occupied the close attention of delegates and spectators. The platform as framed by the committee on resolutions was read by the chairman, Senator Hopkins of Illinois, while a minority report, reflecting the views of the supporters of Senator La Follette, was presented by Congressman Cooper of Wisconsin.

Vote in Detail.—Following is the vote in detail:

Table with columns: Vote, States, and names of candidates.

When the convention adjourned for the day Thursday the situation regarding second ballots was decidedly unsettled, but before the delegates met Friday an arrangement had been perfected for the Taft delegates to vote on the second ballot.

Vote Made Unanimous.—A great shout went up as Lodge announced his announcement and in one accord the cohorts of Cannon and Hughes, joined in a common tribute for the candidate of the party.

Money.—The pending commerce and increasing crop movements disclose the need of a more elastic and adaptable system.

ARMY AND NAVY.—While the American people do not desire and will not provoke a war with any other country, we nevertheless declare our devotion to policy which will keep the Republic ready at all times to defend her traditional freedoms.

President Roosevelt as soon as he received news of the nomination of Representative Sherman sent the following message of congratulation: "Accept my hearty congratulations and my earnest good wishes for the success of the ticket of Taft and Sherman."

Secretary Taft also sent a telegram to Representative Sherman immediately upon hearing of the nomination, as follows: "I sincerely and cordially congratulate you upon your nomination for president of the United States."

Roosevelt Demonstration.—Delegates and Spectators Wildly Cheer President for 45 Minutes.

The second day of the Republican national convention brought the long-expected Roosevelt yell, a whirlwind of cheering and shouting that swept the vast amphitheater of the Coliseum for full 45 minutes Wednesday, and for a time presented to the timid the spectacle of a mad mob.

Probably the most important act of the day, and the one having greatest significance, was the adoption of the report of the committee on credentials, waiting the Taft delegates practically in toto.

Temporary Chairman Burrows called the convention to order promptly at 12:20, but the delay of committees in reporting gave an hour for diversion before the serious work of the day was started in the parade incident to the march in the afternoon.

For three-quarters of an hour the cheering and shouting of the delegates and spectators was unceasing.

Three names were placed in nomination when the chairman announced that nominations were in order. Sherman was named as New York's choice by Tim Woodruff, former lieutenant governor of the state.

This was the long awaited signal. Instantly a shout broke from the galleries and was echoed back from the floor at first only a tempest of detached yells, and catcalls, and shouts of "Teddy," but gradually gathering force and volume until it swelled to a whirlwind of sound and motion.

Sometimes Successful.—One half the world may not know how the other half lives, but the feminine half makes a strenuous effort to find out.—San Luis Obispo Tribune.

ROOSEVELT.—The abuse of wealth, the tyranny of power, and the exile of privilege and favor, are the enemies of the people and of justice and fair play. We pledge a continuance of the Roosevelt policies.

ANTH-INJUNCTION.—The Republican party will uphold the authority of the courts, but believe the rule of procedure in federal courts with respect to injunctions should be defined by statute, and that no injunction should be issued without process.

LABOR.—The same was policy. It will be pursued in every legitimate direction within federal authority to lighten the burden and increase the happiness and advancement of all who toil.

DECEASED FIRES RAGING
PEOPLE DRIVEN FROM HOME BY FOREST FIRES FANNED BY GALE

THREE TOWNS GONE
The District Burned Over is Twenty Miles Long and Hundreds are Made Homeless.

Fires in northern Michigan forests, fanned to gigantic proportions by the gales during the latter part of last week, have destroyed at least three villages, reduced hundreds homeless, swept over thousands of acres of timber and caused damage estimated at about $200,000.

The village of Case, in Presque Isle county, was destroyed. A special train conveyed the homeless villagers to Ontonagon where they were sheltered.

While a big fire at Wolverine was being checked, another section of the village, another section of the fire at Wolverine was engaged, a call for aid was received from about three miles north.

The Grand Army.—Hundreds of veterans, who as boys and young men answered the call of duty, started in the parade incident to the march in the afternoon.

Charles E. Focht, of Kalamazoo, Post No. 749, and member of Third N. Y. Cavalry, was elected department commander.

Paper Makers Plead Guilty.—Four Michigan paper factories are among the 23 paper manufacturing concerns that pleaded guilty in the Detroit circuit court to the violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

WIRELETS.—Charles Bradley, 50 laborer, was drowned while fishing last night in the dam of the Shawawassett Light & Power Co. at Shawawassett, Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Mary Farmer, who forged checks owned by Mrs. Benjamin N. Y. last fall, and then killed Mrs. Brennan with a hatchet and stuffed her body in a trunk, has been sentenced to be electrocuted August 2 in Auburn prison.

Representatives of labor organizations of the District of Columbia called at the White House to request the president to deliver a "farewell address to labor" on labor day next September.

The president approved the agreement made between Secretary of War and Manager Averra, apostolic delegate to Cuba, for the purchase of the channel lands in that island for $300,000.

George Harvey, whose carelessness in not sufficiently swabbing out one of his black guns, resulted in the mimic attack on New York resulted in a Saturday that killed one and wounded several of his companions.

John Peterson, aged 14, was drowned while bathing in the river at Webberville.

The Tramp and the Railroad.—We have the idea that our American railroads kill many passengers. Yet almost ten tramps are killed to every passenger killed.

One who was drawn as a juror in Brooklyn asked to be excused from duty on the ground that "the present method of juggling the law" seemed to him to be a waste of the justice.

The unfounded report that the fever of Afghanistan had been brought to this country by a man who grew out of the fact that the fever is popular with some of the Moslem tribes over whom he tries to rule.

Trade and scientific journals, as well as newspapers throughout the country are quoting what a local manufacturer of Detroit, Mich., has to say about the development of the automobile industry.

According to Mr. William Herley Farnson, civil engineer, the $15,400,000 sewerage system for Havana, which was which will begin in October, is the ideal, and when the American government withdraws from Cuba in January the island that was once a hotbed of yellow fever will be as sanitary as possible.

The Carnegie hotel commission has had 85 cases for medals before it since its last meeting.

Agents of the various steamship lines report that there has never been such a demand for tickets to Europe as has been made for such next month. This might be a sign that people who think the worst is yet to come.

A Cleveland man complains because he has been unable to eat staid because he was agitated by an automobile that could put up a small fight against any of them.