In November, 1906, Charles H. Glaspie, of Oxford, was elected Register of Deeds, and for nearly two years has attended to the duties of the office in a manner not excelled by any in the history of the county.

Albert Schnitker, the 13-years-old grandson of Philip Lambert, came to an untimely death on Thursday, by drowning in the Grand Trunk water tank at Milwaukee Junction.

The business in the probate office has nearly doubled since Judge Stockwell has occupied the position. Nearly three millions in property now passes through the office annually.
