The Maccabees of the World give a supper in their hall Saturday p. m. Everything good to eat, only 15c. Everybody welcome.
I will take a limited number of pupils in voice culture. Anyone wishing instruction, call at my home on North Woodward. Mrs. CAROL LEE BROWN, teacher.
Don't fail to read Madame Stryker's professional card. If you are a sufferer from any of these trials that mortals are afflicted with which she names, then call at once on the lady and be relieved.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Hupp are enjoying a visit in the far south—a combination of business with pleasure. They are having a fine time and the sights to northerners are always interesting.
Birmingham telephone directories are out at last, after nearly six months patient waiting. Call at the office or at the majestic and get yours. This time only Oakland county subscribers are listed.
After three months of married life, Mrs. Edna Ford Hawthorn has filed a bill for divorce in the Oakland county circuit court against her husband, Roy B. Hawthorn. She wishes her maiden name restored.
The Young People's society of the First Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. F. G. Crawford Monday evening. As a token of esteem, they presented Miss Rena Dennis with a hand painted dish.
An article in the Pontiac Press-Gazette in which it relates that 1200 empty whiskey bottles were picked up and sold to Birmingham druggists, is a fairy story of huge dimensions. Not a word of truth in the article.
Land wanted. Want small farm or few acres near suburban car line. Cash or time. Also good farm, mostly improved. State particulars, location, terms and price. Write E. A. Strickler, 212-14 Majestic building, Detroit-67.
Talk about going south or to California for the winter. Flowing on the old Brooks farm, now owned by Guy Watkins, Monday, Jan. 25, '09. We doubt if it isn't the first time in many years that one could plow in midwinter.
Don't give an order for calendars for 1910 until you see the magnificent new samples just received from the manufacturers by the Exchange office. Never before was the line so elegant and the prices are right too. Just wait.
The Free Press has cuts showing the women who have taken men's places. How about the men who have taken women's places, dress makers, milliners etc. It seems as though the place is for the one who can fill it, be it man or woman.
A fifty light gas machine, complete with all accessories, as good as new. Made by Detroit Heating and Lighting Co., and formerly used in the Exchange Bank and Shalms drug store. Having installed electric lights we will sell the lighting plant very cheap. Ask the man at the bank.
What's in a name? Wots, mah boy, wots!! The Presbyterian ladies are distributing pretty little silk bags, and inside is a cheerful little jingle, requesting you to return a penny for it. Be one for every letter in your name. Now then, here is the answer to what's in a name. Jo Lee; it costs him five cents. But what in the world do you suppose it costs Clarence Brunson Norman Cassius Dallas Harrington Livingston Burton? That's all.

Miss Hilda Upton, of Rochester, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Denison; this week.
The public library celebrated the centennial of the birth of Edgar Allan Poe by purchasing a complete collection of volumes of his prose and practical works.
Farm to rent on shares. The right man can secure a good place. 133 acres. Address, P. O. Box 152, Birmingham, Mich.
Don't forget to notice Ye Old Folks Concert is tonight at the Methodist church, Jan. 29. This entertainment is a real treat and will be largely attended.
Will the friends of our library please remember that the year 1901 to 1906 inclusive are needed to fill out the set of Harper's. Any number of these years will be gladly received.
J. J. McQuaid, district manager of Oakland county for the Michigan State Telephone Co., called on Manager Mitchell Monday and Tuesday. They had a talk was enjoyed by both, and also Mr. Floyd who just happened along.
Chas. E. Hadden, of Eochester, aged 42 years died suddenly at his home, of apoplexy at 5 a. m. Wednesday. Deceased was well and favorably known throughout the county. For over four years he has been a most successful traveling salesman among the Oakland Co. farmers, selling goods manufactured by Frank W. Floyd, of this place.
We are sorry to notice the death of Mrs. S. Parker, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Parker, and wife of E. N. Madwick, Oregon City, Ore., whose childhood days were spent in this village. She was the daughter of a graduate from the engineering department of the U. of M. and after that spent many years with a New York firm where she held a responsible position.
Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Featherston, of Hale, called on their many friends here Monday last. Mr. F. has a fine store at Hale and for the past three years Mr. F. has had charge of the public schools at that place. They were in attendance of the birthday party given by the faculty of the school. Mrs. Featherston's mother, Mrs. John Featherston, which was held at Amy the 22nd inst.—a big time for all.
The most "surprised" lady in the world was Mrs. N. T. McHenry. She was awakened from her sleep late in the evening recently and found the house full of overflowing with neighbors and friends who had come to give herself and family a good old fashioned surprise party. They did. The rest of the night passed in card playing, dancing and a royal big supper that the visitors brought themselves.
Word has been received here from Miss Sally Dawson, who went to Los Angeles, Cal., to visit her sister, Mrs. Mary Russell. She certainly is having a most enjoyable and quiet time. It is said she is having cold weather, she is eating fresh strawberries from the vines, lettuce and peaches. In the yard of her niece's home, Mrs. Julia Benedict, the roses are in full bloom. She also visits the garden full of roses, where there are acres of nothing but roses and orange trees. Miss Dawson expects to remain there until the first of April, when her brother, Ike, will go there to return for her. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Dixon, of Detroit, are looking after the home for her.
The family and friends of Mr. William Parks, of Maple ave. have been greatly worried over the state of his health for the past week or more. Not feeling strong for some time past, he has kept at rest as long as possible. As he was unable to move about, before he gave up. Dr. Krayne is in attendance. A council was held and heart trouble was pronounced to be the cause of all the trouble. At this writing he is as comfortable as could be expected, with prospect of ultimate recovery. Alfred Parker of Cheboygan, was notified and arrived promptly as it was feared that his father's days were numbered. For more than 50 years, Mr. William Parks has been one of the strong men of this vicinity, having owned large farms in years past in the townships of Royal Oak and Troy; before retiring and coming to Birmingham, where he has been a progressive business man for many years.
The following jurymen have been drawn for the February term of the circuit court and ordered to appear on February 2: Fred Porter, Addison; Charles F. Fuller, Ayco; John Heth, Bloomfield; L. A. Sands, Brandon; William Laver, Commerce; William M. Graves, Farmington; William Renfrew, Groveland; Thomas Oswald, Holly; Elmer Shattuck, Highland; Fred P. Hathway, White Lake; Victor Saunders, Pontiac, first ward; D. H. Calvert, second ward; William White, third ward; E. J. Kelley, fourth ward; Frank Rockwell, fifth ward.

Remember that I always have some money to loan. E. C. Poppleton, trustee.
Send your valentines through Shalms valentine box, then be on hand Friday afternoon, February 12, to get your share.
Maccabees of the World will give a supper in the Ford block Saturday, Jan. 30, Supper 15c. Everybody invited to come.
A fine testimonial: "R. D. Belt has conducted 27 sales for me, amounting to over $30,000, and I can recommend him as a good auctioneer. If you are going to have a sale, C. V. Taylor." See Mr. Belt's card in another column.
After a month of happy visiting among old friends at Farmington, Mrs. Sarah W. Fuller, is back again and snugly settled in her cozy home on Pierce street. Her many Birmingham and Southfield friends will be glad to hear of her safe return.
J. H. Buckenrough has a fine display of his architectural work in which line he is very proficient. His architecture in a card this week his business and is pleased to call anyone needing the services of a first class architect at a reasonable price. See specimens of his work in James W. Cobb's window.
Letters and postals from Mrs. Fannia J. Shain, tell of her delightful visit to Sunny California. With wonderful scenery and sights to see, finest weather ever, and relatives glad to have the pleasant little Michigan lady with them makes life one grand, sweet song to the happy Birmingham lady at River-side, Calif.
Capt. M. O. Bigelow hereafter will be stationed in Arizona for a short time, transferred from Yellowstone Park. He will then be sent on a tour of the world, Asia being the object. He spent a few days in Birmingham the past week or so, having been to New York City for a visit with his little daughter.
Last Friday before Justice Campbell and jury, gave our township J. P. Rindel, verdict for damages to the amount of $32.50 against Mr. Hallenbeck of near Square Lake for killing a fox hound that Mr. Rindel valued at $100. The dog was killed some time last summer. Hallenbeck says he will carry the case to a higher court.
At the January meeting of the Ladies' Church society, the members gave expression to sincere appreciation of the tribute accorded to the women of the First Freebyrieh church by Dr. Jamison, on the last Sabbath of 1908. That the work of the present year may merit equal warm approval, is the earnest desire of the members of the society.
While park hanging at one of Mrs. Flora Beattie's homes, Woodward avenue, Tuesday of this week, John J. VanEvery was struck by a pair of shears that fell merrily from a tree. A trail of blood on the side-walk from the place of accident, to Dr. N. T. Shaw's office shows that he was badly cut and lost much blood. A few timely stitches repaired the damage, but from now on, John will be leery of shears.
Special meetings to be held at the M. E. church, by Chester Birch, of Indiana, will open one week earlier than planned. This distinguished evangelist will be present and preach on Sunday morning Jan. 31. He also conducts a service at the church at 2:30 p. m. All the services are open to everybody. Mr. Birch simple and free from affectation of every sort; his open manly manner has made him a favorite with men. He is an expert cornetist, and uses this talent in helping the musical part of his services. He plays on a C trumpet and is given to him by his many friends who have been charmed and inspired by his music. These services will be held every week day except Saturdays, at 2:30 and 7:50 p. m., and will continue until February 16th.

Weak Kidneys
Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak Kidneys. The Kidneys lose their power and their weakness, not in the organs themselves, but in the blood that feeds and strengthens them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is the best medicine for curing weak Kidneys, controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time and money.
If your back aches or is weak, if the urine smells, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—without delay—and see what it can and will do for you. Brought recommended and sold.
