The first Presbyterian Sunday school elected Mrs. C. E. McFerrin to represent their school at the County school meeting at Pontiac this week beginning Tuesday.

Diphtheria is quite prevalent at Pontiac. Health officer Oyston has ordered all drinking cups from the schools, hoping this will put a stop to this disease by doing so.

Billy Huff is out for business. Read his new adv. in this issue. Cows and Springers for sale. Farmers it is of great interest to you. Billy says: "Horses, too, at bargain prices."

The funeral of Mrs. Wm. Morgan will be held at the First Presbyterian church on Monday, Oct. 25, at 2 p. m. The same time. Mrs. Morgan was formerly Mrs. Mary Crombie of our village.

The squirrel season is now open and will so continue until Nov. 30. Detroit hunters are now very numerous in our locality, especially Sundays, but the Game Warden has an eye out for violators of the law.

Their very many friends will be surprised to hear of the marriage of Miss Nellie Baker, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Baker, of Southfield avenue, to Mr. Byrnes Schoonover, of Detroit, on Oct. 7. Here's congratulations.

The family of R. A. Paker have moved from their old city home and are now happily settled in their new country home—the old family Parker homestead, just south of this village. We are glad to see this family back in our community.

Will Carleton, Michigan's poet, was born Oct. 21, 1845, 64 years ago. His poems of town and country may be found at the library. The same day is the English poet, Coleridge's birthday, only 172 years old of 1845. His poems are also in the library.

Mr. Charles R. Peck has so much work to do in his line that added help had to be secured to keep up with his orders. Aside from Birmingham orders for suits and overcoats, enough orders from the "city" set of Detroit are being piled up for him to jump. See him for particulars.

Ray Hamlin had a run away one day last week. He was hauling beets from Troy when his team got the best of him, colliding with an electric light pole. Ray made a grand and lofty tumble but fortunately was not injured severely, for which all are thankful.

Among other articles in the Popular Mechanics for November are articles on "How to make a Morris chair" and "How to make a library table out of an old square piano," and "How plants are made to flourish in soil as arid as the desert, by the aid of chemical stimulants; how rare tints, unnatural to flowers under ordinary conditions, are produced, etc." At the library.

Foley's Honey and Tar clears the air passages, stops the irritation in the throat, soothes the inflamed membranes, and the most obstinate cough disappears. Sore and inflamed lungs are healed and strengthened, and the cold is expelled from the system. It is unique but the genuine in the yellow package. Sold by all druggists.

At last Rochester is not at the mercy of the D. U. R. in the matter of electric lighting. For all these years Rochester has certainly paid for a most inferior light, but now thanks to the Edison people, the village is one of the best lighted in the state, while our homes are lighted in the same satisfactory manner. The new substation service went into operation last Saturday and is certainly as that could be desired.—Rochester Era.

To quickly check a cold, druggists are dispensing everywhere a clever candy cold-cure tablet called Preventas. Preventas are also fine for feverish children. Take Preventas at the onset of a cold to head off all colds. Box of 25c. Charles J. Shain.

HOME NOTES

Try your luck in the fish pond and catch a big bag at Macabee Hall Oct. 28th.

Junior choir of the First Presbyterian church will not have choir practice this week.

Don't fail to have your fortune told at the Macabee supper, Thursday, October 28th.

Miss Loue Rogers is spending a week with her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irving H. Wilson.

Our weather is now promising for a few days of warm happy sunshine. We hope we get it.

Miss Minnie Bacon of Detroit, spent several days with Mrs. I. H. Wilson, the first of the week.

The prettiest show in town is Shain's window full of gold-fish in globes. He has a sale Saturday. Ask him.

Mrs. Fred G. Smith and daughter Evelyn, of Danville, Ill., are visiting Michigan relatives and friends, and of course could not miss Birmingham.

The big action sale on the Lavery farm to close up the estate, comes off next Wednesday, Oct. 27th. See adv. elsewhere in this paper and big bills.

We are pleased to announce the coming marriage of Raynale A. Whitehead of Oklahoma, to Miss Charlotte Woodcock, of Louisville, Ky., on Nov. 27, 1909. Mr. Whitehead is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Whitehead. Here's congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McLuckie all the way from Saskatchewan country, from the great Northwest, visited one day recently, Mrs. N. M. Corey. They formerly lived here and later on in Pontiac. They are glad to get back. Up here they were kerosene oil sold for 40c. and gasoline 50c. with soft coal at $30.00 per ton.

The Pleiad—the Albion college magazine is now edited by our Levi P. Goodwin, who is editor-in-chief and it is a first class college publication. Mr. Goodwin is the making of it. He has associate editors and assistants who all vie to make their department of the Pleiad a winner, and they all succeeded. Here's success to Levi P.

Base ball is over and more than one declared that the series were faked right along up to the last game when Fitzburg cut loose and gave Detroit hers—8-1 and the colored man, Mr. Johnson, kicked our Michigan prize fighter Ketchell in the 12th round Johnson just toyed with him the same as the Pirates did with the Tigers.

Telephone construction work is being pushed to a satisfactory finish in our village. Cable men are at work and when they leave many thousands dollars will be in the air awaiting our people's patronage. Over 10 new subscribers are waiting for connections which cannot be made until cables are finished. If you are contemplating putting in a phone, now is the time to call on Manager Mitchell, who will be pleased to talk the matter over with you. Come early and avoid the rush.

Elmer E. Pallister, of Troy, settled his damage suit against the Detroit United railway in the Circuit Court, Tuesday afternoon for $200. The further hearing of the suit began that morning was discontinued and the jury dismissed. Pallister, while driving in Royal Oak village last November, was injured in a collision with a D. & P. car. His horse became frightened in passing the car and shied onto the track in front of it. The rig was struck and Pallister and the man with whom he was riding were thrown out.

The postoffice department has decided that children going to and from school shall not be allowed to get their parent's mail, so do not blame the postmaster if your children are refused the mail. The postoffice habit among the children has become a nuisance both to the public and the postmaster, and the department has done wisely in making this decision. This has been one of Postmaster Hanna's greatest trials as the children go to and from school. We hope this will be observed and not other means need to be used to enforce this law.
