It isn't so difficult to strengthen a weak stomach if one goes at it correct. An old-time cure of the heart and kidneys. The old-time way of doing it, the stomach or insulating (there is a word) is very old. Dr. Sidney first pointed out this error. "Go to the top of an old nerve or the wrongness of it. Each insulating organ is its controlling or inside" nerve. When these nerves fall then those organs must surely fail. This vital fact is being taught everywhere to dispense and, recommend Dr. Shoop's Restoratives. A few days test will surely tell. Sold by Charles J. Shain.

AT THE THEATRES.

LYCEUM.

"School Days," a bright musical comedy and one that was extremely successful last season, will return to the Lyceum for a week's engagement, beginning next Saturday.

"School Days," under the management of Stair & Hamlin, is heralded as a unique musical offering for "old and young." This essentially is a singing and dancing production and it appeals to the "grown up" as well as all the youngsters. The scenes are laid in a New York school room, a school yard and a suburban home near the metropolis. The characters are those every one has known and the noisy mischief-makers youngsters enact tricks that we ourselves were wont to do in our earlier days.

The engagement opens with a Sunday matinee, in addition to which the regular Wednesday and Saturday matinee will be given.

Tickling, tight coughs, can be surely and quickly relieved with a prescription of druggists and a coughing everywhere at Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. And it is so very, very different from common cough medicines. No opium or chloroform; absolutely nothing harsh or unkind. The tender leaves of a harmless, lung-healing mountainous herb, give the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. These leaves have the power to calm the most distressing cough and to soothe and heal the most sensitive bronchial membrane. Mothers should for safety's sake always demand Dr. Shoop's. It can with perfect freedom be given to even the youngest babies. Try it with confidence and feel! Sold by Charles J. Shain.

THE NEW ESTABLISHMENT

"BAUMGARTNER'S" CLOTHING STORE, DETROIT.

The New Establishment a Marvel of Beauty—Best Goods and Prices Moderate.

The new clothing establishment of F. Baumgartner, Grawford and State streets, Detroit, has been pronounced by good judges the most beautiful and attractive clothing store in the world. At the recent opening of the store, large crowds of admirers of its goods and the services of the store, situated in the corner of the Chamber of Commerce building, Mr. Baumgartner has received it at a cost of about $25,000. This gives him an entire ground floor and basement, which he occupies with his new store and his former establishment. The floor is a tile mosaic. The woodwork is superbly mahogany veneer inlaid with ebony, satin wood and sycamore. The pillars are decorated with the artistic Baumgartner trademark. The chandeliers are fashioned to highlight the most pleasing effect. The showcases are of the very latest pattern, and are so arranged that the salesman may see the prospective customer any particular garment without loss of time, without laborious handling of goods. There are large green upholstered seats for the customers. The decorations in a general way, are in Tiffany style. The show windows are French panel.

In remodeling his new store, Mr. Baumgartner also altered the main entrance to the building, so that he has a grand vestibule between the two halves of the ground floor occupied by him. Customers may pass from one to the other without leaving the building.

The new store is exclusively for men's clothing, hats and leather goods, such as traveling bags and valises. The variety of the Baumgartner's clothing store has been much increased.

After the holidays the old store is to be renovated to match the new. It will be the haberdashery department. The rearranged basement will be devoted to his shoe department.

The opening of such a magnificent store is the best evidence that Mr. F. W. Baumgartner's courtesy, taste and enterprise are appreciated by the people of this city. The new assortment of smart styles in men's and young men's suits, overcoats, top coats and raincoats is shown all the very latest waives and fabrics. Every customer bears the Baumgartner label, which is a guarantee of its excellent quality.

In the Baumgartner Clothing Shop you can find anything that is wanted for clothing the man from shoes to the very latest in neckties, and the proprietor has always been in the front the best goods at moderate prices. New customers at "Baumgartner's" as satisfactory as the multitude of Michigan people who have long dealt.
