The Woman's Study club entertained their husbands and friends with a social evening at the home of Mrs. Theodore Goodfellow on the evening of Markh 28. It was in every sense a sery delightful occasion from the moment the guests entered the house unit the final good nights were said. The spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Goodfellow, was well' adapted to the form of entertainment given, that of a magic lantern exhibit with an interesting talk by Mrs. Hornec Hitchcock. Pictures of English seenery and architecture in the main were shown and were off, especial interest because the club had been making a study of England during the past year. Mr. Paul Chase and Mr. Parker helped to render the evening delightful by a number of vocal selections. Miss McClellan, of Birmingham, gave several readings in a very pleasing and original manner. After the entertainment a fine luncheon was served by the women of the libb. The success of this near of the After the entertainment a fine lunch-con was served by the women of the club. The success of this part of the vennings pleasure was due largely to Mrs. Gibson, chairman of the enter-tainment committee. The Misses Grace Lawson, Rose Braun, Valley Essling and Doris Tilany looked after the comforts of the guests. Over 50 present and all expressed the senti-ment that it was one of the most pleasant functions they ever attended-
