

OUR CLUB NOTES

From the Woman's Literary Club Which Meets Tuesday Afternoon of Every Week

The Woman's club met Tuesday afternoon, March 23, with Mrs. Hemenway. Roll call was responded to by incidents of travel.

The executive committee reported the program for the coming year. The report was adopted.

The art committee reported that Prof. Griffith would give a lantern talk on the art of Italy to the club and their friends on April 8, at the museum.

The legislative committee reported the bills passed at Lansing since the last session.

The committee on forestry and town improvement urged the selection of a motto for the village.

A ballot was taken on the names of Mrs. Thompson and Miss Clibbe, proposed at a previous meeting; each receiving the unanimous vote of the club.

The program for the afternoon consisted of papers on "Mazzini, the Prophet," by Mrs. Hemenway; "Cavour, the Statesman," by Mrs. Hulbert; "Garibaldi, the Soldier," by Mrs. Jamieson.

The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Bigelow, March 26.

On the afternoon of Friday, the 20th the club was entertained by Mrs. Bigelow.

The chair called attention to the fact that the forestry bill for which the club women have done much hard work, was lost at Lansing the day before.

The first paper of the afternoon was given by Mrs. Bigelow on Yellowstone Park. This was followed by a talk on the Vatican and its treasures by Miss Esther Marsh, formerly of this place, who has recently visited Italy.

Her description was made very real by the use of many fine pictures, showing places described.

A paper was given by Mrs. J. B. Blakeley, titled "Italy from the Renaissance to 1798." Mrs. Blakeley told of the "Napoleonic Era and Congress of Vienna."

A social hour followed, during which time a paper was read.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Hemenway, March 30.

Six hundred and twenty-two packages of seeds have been ordered through our Woman's club. This order is filled by the Twentieth Century club of Detroit.

Those who go with the Woman's club to hear Prof. Griffith on April 8, should take a car no later than 1 p. m. and then take a transfer on Jefferson avenue. This lecture is entirely free.

Our Woman's club will be glad to have anyone interested in the subject go with them. It will be a fine chance to see the collection of pictures on exhibition there.

AGES ARE REPLACED AGE OF NINETY

People of County are Asked to Contribute Anything of Interest to the Collection

The cases ordered some time ago by the Oakland County Pioneer society, to be placed in the men's rest rooms and used for the storing of the society's papers, books, pictures and relics of pioneer days, arrived Wednesday morning, and were placed last week.

They consist of eight sections of glass-fronted cases, with four compartments to the section; are made from hand-squared quarter-sawn oak, and are as fine looking a lot of cases as are to be found in the city.

The cases are placed on a four inch platform, raising them from the floor so that the cases can not be scathed by footmarks.

Era Jewell, president of the society has commenced placing the society's possessions in the cases and stated that the society would be grateful for the gift of anything that is a relic of pioneer days.

There are a number of old-time pictures of pioneers that are not in the possession of the society, and their gift would be greatly appreciated.

In time to come he hopes to have cases of the birds of the county. There will be placed on top of the sectional cases. There are a number of birds about the county, but not as many as in past years, and it is planned to preserve and stuff specimens of them before they become extinct.

Household articles, ornaments, books letters, everything that was closely related with pioneer days and privations would be treasured by the society.

There are all ready a number of such articles in the collection, but it is not nearly as complete as Mr. Jewell hopes to have it in a few years.—Pontiac Press Gazette.
