Wesley's Method.

When John Wesley in preaching his seremon on giving to a large audience innounced his first division: "Make il you can." an enthuslands brother in front. Of his exclaimed and the second division: "Save all you can." the enthuslands brother and when more emphatically. "Amen. That's beffer." But when he announced his third division: "Give all you can." the brother lost his enthusland and growded: "There, now. You've spoilt your sermon. Too bad. And yet the divisions of Wesley's sermon are a good moth for every Christian gleward." Make all you can.
