

ROYAL OAK CHURCH NOTES.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL - Dr. W. L. Bl... Pastor, Sunday School, Church of...

ROYAL OAK

Don't forget to plant that tree today, Rosa Haselstein is quite sick with pneumonia. C. F. Quick, of Detroit, made a business call here Monday.

D. R. B. B.

Charles Martin was in Detroit last Tuesday. Earle W. Simonson heard his sheep last week. First cut, big price.

FRANKLIN

Victor VanEvery, of Detroit, is staying for a while with his father here. Mrs. Snow and Mrs. Graham have been on the sick list, but are progressing finely.

ALL OVER

Ida Hill is just over the measles. John Gould was home from Detroit Sunday. Isaac Brace is recovering from the la grippe.

Sleep

Sleep is nature's rebuilding period, when the energy used by the brain, muscles and organs is renewed. If you lose sleep, your system is robbed of the strength sleep should give.

PLENTY OF IT ALL THE BEST. That's the combination you want to look for when you start out to buy groceries—that is, if you are at all particular to get something which makes a noise like about the best thing on the market for the money—and your appetite.

Mrs. Ella Lafferty was a Pontiac business caller last week. Mrs. M. Robinson, of Southfield, visited relatives here over Sunday.

John A. Tesmer, of Lansing, was a Royal Oak business caller Friday. George Dondoro and A. C. Spaulding were at Pontiac last week on business.

Mrs. A. Hutchins, who has been very sick for several months past, is slowly convalescing. Miss Mildred Rose returned Sunday from a two-week visit with relatives in Southfield.

Samuel Brown and Edward Ransom left for their new home in California on Wednesday. Mrs. George H. Beach entertained her sister, Mrs. E. F. Leonard, of Rochester, Indiana, last week.

Mrs. R. Robert Ackerman, of Detroit, was the guest of her brother, Samuel Brown, a few days last week. D. Harris, who suffered considerably from blood poisoning in his hand for several days past, is getting better.

Joe Braun and Louis Erb, who started in the lumber business at Highland Park last winter, report a very flourishing trade. Mr. and Mrs. Chaucey Hutchins and children, of Pontiac, were over Sunday guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hutchins.

The year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Haselstein died Friday morning, and the funeral was held from the house Sunday at 2 p. m. The Royal Oak Seniors played the Wayne Athletic Club on the home grounds, Saturday afternoon, the score standing 4 to 4 in favor of the Detroit team.

Ex-Supervisor Louis Stora is making preparations to cross the ocean early in May. He will visit several of the European countries, and will be absent all summer. M. R. Blair has purchased the house and two lots on Lafayette Avenue, recently occupied by Sam Hirsch, and will soon take possession. Consideration $500.

Division No. 2 of the King's Daughters gave an old maid's convention at new Morey Hall, last Saturday evening, and which was well appreciated by the vast crowd that attended. In a hotly contested game of ball here on Friday afternoon the Royal Oak Juniors defeated the Birmingham team by a score of 15 to 14, it being necessary to play 11 innings to break the tie.

Rev. O. W. Willis, pastor of the M. E. Church here, preached the annual "thank-offering" sermon for the Women's Foreign Missionary Society, at the Trenton M. E. Church, Sunday evening. Clad in a suit of brilliant blue, with a "creation" of forget-me-nots on her head, Mrs. Sarah Decker, the soprano, visited Pontiac last week. The soprano, and called on Sheriff Harris and the officers at the jail. "Aunt" Sarah was released on April 2 after serving a 90-day sentence in the House of Correction for being drunk and disorderly. The officers say she has been good about the limit and may be expected up almost any day now. Bessie Decker, the oldest daughter, is still in the House of Correction, having served about half of a six-month sentence for smuggling liquor into the jail to her mother.

Any lady reader of this paper will receive, on request, a clever "No-Drip" Coffee Strainer Coupon privilege, from Dr. Shoop's Coffee. It is a silver-plated, and positively prevents any dripping of tea or coffee. The Doctor's Coffee, with his new free book on "Health Coffee" simply to introduce this clever substitute for coffee and the next time you take the coffee is gaining its great popularity because of, first, its exquisite taste and flavor, second, its absolute healthfulness, third, its economy—14 lbs. 25c; fourth, its convenience. No tedious 20- to 25-minute boiling. "Made in a minute," says Dr. Shoop. Try it at your grocer's, for a pleasant surprise. Sold by all grocers.

Mr. and J. D. Benjamin of "Maple" returned from Adrian after visiting the family of Squire Johnson, who is president of the State Association of Civil War Veterans. Mr. Benjamin is secretary and treasurer of the same association, and plans were formulated for the State encampment to be held at Kalamazoo in June.

At the Oak Pony farm they have two baby ponies spotted just the same alike so much so that their own mothers can not tell them apart. At times they get so mixed up the colts can't tell their own mothers, but are sure to pull through all right. Both are Jim-Darcks, and John is very proud of them. He has just received seven ponies from Lansing. Now look out for the state fair.

Words to Freeze the Sou. "Your son has consumption. His case is hopeless. But I have some words were spoken to George E. Bliven, a leading merchant of Springfield, North Carolina, by two expert doctors—one a lung specialist. Then was shown the wonderful power of Dr. King's New Discovery. "After three weeks use," writes Mr. Bliven, "he was as well as ever. I would not take all the money for the world for what it did for my boy." Infallible for coughs and colds, it's the safest, sure cure of desperate cases of chronic diseases on earth. James W. Cobb, Charles J. Sharp and James F. Wooster guarantee satisfaction. Trial bottle free.

Miss Gladys Clark is the proud owner of a new pony. Samuel Levy made a business trip to Pontiac last week. M. D. Elizabeth Levy visited relatives in Detroit last week. Wm. H. Lamb made a business trip to Detroit Wednesday. Dr. Jay Burgess and wife spent Tuesday with Dr. Smith. Mrs. H. Smith spent Saturday with her piano class in Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. D. Harris and children spent Sunday with relatives here. Mrs. Ross Smith and 14 daughter, Margaret, visited relatives here last week. Mrs. Elias Lowe and Wm. Pallister visited relatives in Detroit last week. Clarence Baum, of Royal Oak, has been visiting relatives here the past week. Mrs. Dall Smith and children, of Troy, spent Tuesday with Mrs. Wm. Clark. Miss Ada Simpson, of Royal Oak, is spending the week with Mrs. Harry Simpson. Miss Eva Bastendorff and Wm. Maulis, of Detroit, spent Sunday with Mrs. H. Smith. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills relieve pain.

Wedding bells are ringing again in our midst. One of the fairest of our village belles is soon to take upon her marriage vow. Two April showers have already been given in her honor. Success for future happiness goes with her from this village. Cards are out for this wedding. The Lenten season being over, the weeks from now on will have much in prospect, in the way of miscellaneous work and entertainment. The men are looking forward to the needs before them in housecleaning, etc. They are positive they will have many a poor meal from this.

There has been any amount of changing property in this village and surrounding country. A regular promiscuous "all hands around" one family moving out and the next taking the one the former left. So that the different families, having the moving fever, are still within hearing distance of "ello Franklin."

Clayson. Miss Gladys Rogers has a fine new little pony, and cart. Mr. and Mrs. Mark Halsey called on Mr. and Mrs. Payson Hays Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Bowers visited at Ortonville over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker and Mrs. Mary Phillips visited at Grosse Pointe last Friday. Mr. Wortman, daughter, of Millford, were pleasant visitors at Mrs. McBrick's over Sunday. Mrs. Zilpha Simonson and daughter, Mrs. Wilde, of Mt. Clemens, called on Hiram Bailey, who is quite sick. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Buell and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buell, of Detroit, visited at the home of H. J. Bowers recently. James McLaughlin has resigned the office of superintendent of the Log Cabin Hotel, and is going to Detroit. Harry Spencer went to Pontiac one day last week to work and learn to be a machinist, but he didn't like the work and has returned home to settle down and be a farmer.

Rheumatic poisons are quickly and surely driven out of the blood with Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy—liquid or tablet form. Dr. Shoop's booklet on rheumatism plainly and interestingly tells just how this is done. Tell some sufferer of this book, or better still write Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wisconsin, for the book and free test samples. Send no money. Just join with Dr. Shoop an I give some sufferer a pleasant surprise. Sold by Charles J. Shain.

PAIN. Pain is the most common ailment, but it is often the harbinger of more serious trouble. Dr. Shoop's Pain Expeller is a powerful remedy for all kinds of pain, including rheumatism, neuralgia, and migraines.

Talks on Saving. How many men and women now living in Birmingham, or elsewhere, who are doing a good business and are in prosperous circumstances, commenced by putting their little savings in the Exchange Bank? You would be astonished if we told you. Perhaps you will argue that it is only that class of people who succeed in life anyhow. Well, then, why not commence now and join the successful ones? It costs you nothing to open a savings account with the Exchange Bank.
