E. L. A. R. I.

Mrs. Nellie Croft was in Detroit last week for a few days. Carl Algrim spent last week visiting an Uncle at Noughville.

ALL OVER.

Sheep shearing has begun. W. H. Condon is not very well. Mrs. Maria Bean is sick a week.

OPPORTUNITY WAS LOST

President Madison Could Not See Ahead Sufficiently to Realize an Empire Was at Stake.

When the war of 1812 broke out Astor asked President Madison for letters of marque to equip an armed vessel at his own expense to defend his Pacific colony, but the appeal was ignored.

Nervous Break-Down

Nerve-energy is the force that controls the organs of respiration, circulation, digestion and elimination. When you feel weak, nervous, irritable, sick, it is often because you lack nerve energy.

Your druggist sells Dr. Miles' Nervine, and we have had a broken cork line from San Diego up to Point Barrow.

PLENTY OF IT ALL THE BEST

That's the combination you want to look for when you start out to buy groceries—that is, if you are at all particular to get something which makes a noise like about the best thing on the market for the money—and your appetite.

FRESH AND DELICIOUS EGGS AND BUTTER RIGHT FROM THE FARM

Good eggs are a delight at any meal—especially for breakfast. But the best eggs are requisite to derive the greatest pleasure.

Without exception, the finest farm for stock raising or high-class farming. On the west side of the North Branch of the River, 18 miles from Detroit.

Mrs. Mary G. Parks is entertaining her bachelor brother from Penna. for a few weeks. Harding, who rented Williams' Parker's farm, is cleaning up the old house in fine shape.

Alex. Poutous last week Tuesday, lost a valuable work horse, and he feels the loss. Look out for J. Mel. Henning on the strawberry question as he is preparing to counter the market.

Wm. Hunt is having his orchard on the south and east all top up by the roots of the trees as of dead.

Dan. Hughes and his son, Mill, are at the Erwin Bros' farm, sawing lumber and will be there for a few weeks.

Ed. Leverage on the William McClelland farm is just a hustling thing on the farm. Everything goes.

Mrs. Robert Potter and children, left last Wednesday to visit their parents in Chicago, and will be gone for some time.

Mrs. Eunice Park last Friday while climbing the front gate, fell and broke one bone in her right leg just above the ankle.

Charles Shepherd finished a brand new milk house last week, and that good-looking man, Walter Sturman did the job.

Vina Parry's school closed Friday, with a rousing big out-door picnic, and a grand dinner. The school-house will be decorated with wild flowers. This makes five years she has taught.

Harry Siltzer believes in raising colts one a year old, and one last week one day, coat black. Now, don't be surprised if you should see him driving a matched team in the near future.

Howard Buffinier returned home last week from Harper hospital, where he has been for some weeks. He is getting along nicely and bids fair to have a pair of good legs to pay for his suffering.

Ma Parmenter hurt her foot recently while working in the woods.

Mrs. Frank Gray, of Southfield, is spring in Birmingham next week.

Mrs. Levi Campbell, helping care for her mother, Mrs. Ruth Benjamin.

A rare May from previous years in regard to the backwardness in seeding. Remember Colner's bargain in Fink's pants and overalls until June 15.

Mrs. H. J. Bowers, of Clawson, has been sick but is improving at this writing.

George Starr, of Royal Oak, called on Mark Hall, of Troy, Friday on business.

Mrs. Charles Cole has been very sick with the measles, but is better at this writing.

Callers at Alex Groves' last Saturday were Rev. Epnkerton and wife, who were royally entertained.

Last week Tuesday Mrs. Daisy Miller and mother Mrs. Dave Brooks of Southfield, visited Thomas Brooks, of Utica.

Misses Lizzie and Emma Belenendt, who are working in Birmingham, visited their parental home in Clawson last Sunday.

Mrs. Augustus Bontaine died last Thursday. The funeral was held Sunday. Sympathy is extended to the sorrowing husband.

John Davis, who was recently sick with the grippe and attended by Dr. German, is well and is now making fences for Will Wood.

De Mar, of Troy, is pruning the apple orchards of P. Parmenter, John Davidson, M. Hall and Will Perkins. The entire job is of several weeks duration.

James McBride and wife, of Southfield, attended the funeral of Miss Florence St. Aubin near Delray, last Tuesday. She was a niece of Mrs. McBride.

A social was recently held by the Franklin M. E. church in Curran's hall. They had had a contest to increase the attendance of the Sabbath school.

S. Ostrander and Jennie Bassett started a contest some time ago and the side that had the least attendance was to give supper. S. Ostrander's won the supper. It is well to try and have the young people interested in Sabbath school work.

Lived 152 Years. William Farr, England's oldest man—married the third time at 120, worked in the fields till 132 and lived 20 years longer. People should be youthful at 80.

James Wright, of Spurlock, Kentucky, shows how to remain young. "I feel just like a 16-year-old boy," he writes, "after taking six bottles of Electric Bitters. For 30 years kidney trouble made life a burden, but the delay and suffering of this medicinal combination I had found the greatest relief. I am now a healthy and old people, weak, sick at times or old people, try them. See at James W. Cobb's, Charles J. Shain's and James F. Wood's.

AT THE THEATRES. LYCHUR. For the first time in Detroit the Vaughan Glaser company will offer Channing Pollock and Avery Haggood's big success, "Clothes," in which Graze George enjoys a successful year.

"Clothes" is a comedy drama of the smartest set in what people have come to term "society," where a novel idea frequently discounts a wise one, and where the realities are overshadowed by its superficialities.

The engagement opens with a Sunday matinee, in addition to which the regular Wednesday and Saturday matinee will be given.

WHITNEY. Few plays have ever been given to the public which contain a more interesting heart-story than does "Genesis of the Hills," next week's offering by the Chicago stock company at the Whitney theatre.

The piece is a dramatization of Mary Ellis Rice's novel, published by Harper Brothers. Matinees will be given daily except on Wednesday.

A Chicken Fancier. If he would have his hens look sleek and the feathers on their necks as bright as a tonic, and in Harvell's Condition Powders we have the best one made.

Mr. Jones had recently become the father of twins. The minister stopped him on the street to congratulate him. "Well, Jones," he said, "I hear that the Lord has smiled on you."

CLAWSON The funeral of Mrs. Betheane took place Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Rhoda Henrikson is able to be around the house again.

Mrs. Hattie Stokes, of North Dakota, is visiting at Mrs. E. A. Hunt's.

ROYAL OAK. Louis Storz left for his fatherland Saturday. Dr. W. St. John visited friends at Highland last week.
