

ROYAL OAK CHURCH NOTES.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL—Dr. W. L. St. Sunday services, 10:30 Sunday School, 9:30 a. m. ...

ROYAL OAK.

Wm. Wilson was at Orion last week on business. Mrs. Charles Sobraska still remains quiet poorly.

Mrs. H. Tappin has been quite sick, but is now better. D. K. Smith, of Farmington, was a Sunday visitor in town.

Mrs. A. P. Quirk fell one day last week and fractured two of her ribs. John Bowerman, of New York, made a business call here the past week.

arranged so that they were invited to a friends house for supper and when they arrived there they were informed by telephone that some friends had arrived at their house and to hurry home immediately and upon their arrival, found that possession had been taken by the guests.

On the Pontiac road north of this village thousands of acres of land last week were under four feet of water. The F. A. Baker, Hendrie and Stewart farms are simply rivers.

The village of Troy still stands, despite the cloud burst. Many cellars were flooded, trees uprooted and beautiful fields are covered with several feet of water.

W. B. Winger is painting his barn and tool house, and it makes his place look very fine. William Love started for Mt. Clemens, Mich. for the month of August.

William Maxwell is building a fine fence between Henry A. Miller, and himself. Good fences make good neighbors.

The Gleaners will meet next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Robert Douglas and a six o'clock dinner will be served.

Last week William Buffmyer last week butchered 14 nice porkers for the Detroit market and a fancy price was received.

The Willing Workers met at Mrs. Lily White's home last Wednesday afternoon. A six o'clock dinner and a big crowd was present.

F. H. Reynolds that rented Mrs. G. C. Parks' farm is just hustling things up on the farm this spring and also his boss man George Ferguson.

Mrs. Ann Duffy wants to sell her little home and go back to England, her native country and where her people are. She asks only $400. and with it goes two acres of land.

Charles Martin is having a time with rheumatism. Miss Bessie Russell is spending some time with Mrs. Volney Miller.

Howard Johnston has been helping Bert Smith at the town hall. Miss Cella Thomas, of Detroit, is staying with Mrs. Martha Brooks for some time.

Mrs. Emma Brooks attended the Higby-Beardslee wedding last Wednesday night. The Steel-family, who held an entertainment at the town hall the past week, have gone to their home in Wayne.

Mrs. and Mr. Robert Gamble, of Detroit, spent last Tuesday calling in Sutherland and Franklin. Mrs. Gamble took dinner with Mrs. Volney Miller.

Little Blanche Brooks celebrated her fourth birthday Saturday and an afternoon party was given. An ice cream party social will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rue VanEvery the latter part of May under the auspices of the Bedlow school.

Little Hazel Brady, on the James Brady farm fell through the outside cellar door last Monday morning. The hinge broke and the door fell, striking the little one cutting the bottom eye lid and cheek as had that several stitches were taken.

The worst foe for 12 years of John Devoe, of Gadin, Michigan, was a bad cold. Durand helping care for Mrs. Mary C. Stevenson, wife of the conductor who was injured in the recent horrible wreck on the Grand Trunk near Grand Rapids, was home a few hours Friday, returning to Durand Saturday.

Stop Pains almost instantly—Dr. Miles Anti-Pain Pills. No bad after-effects. Won't Slight a Good Friend.

ALL OVER Mrs. Rhoda Hendrickson is very sick. Miss Carrie Davidson, of Birmingham, was home over Sunday.

Smashes All Records. As an antidote for the cold and health-bruise no other pills can compare with Dr. King's New Life Pills.
