

ROYAL OAK CHURCH NOTES.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL—Dr. W. L. St. John, Pastor. Sunday—Morning...

ROYAL OAK.

Mrs. F. S. Robbins Sundayed at Millford. Grace McKibbin spent the Fourth at Mt. Clemens.

Mr. and Mrs. Al White, of Birmingham, Sundayed with friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Rashaw entertained relatives from Windsor, Ontario, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Dewey, of Detroit, were in town last week calling on friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Halsey and Miss Stella Wheeler spent the Fourth at Port Huron.

The Street Commissioner has done a good job in causing the noxious weeds to be cut down along the streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Bower, of Rockwood, are visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Joseph Burgess.

W. G. Burke has commenced his new store building on the corner of Washington Avenue and Eighth Street.

Twenty-two of the ladies of the W. C. T. U. attended the open-air meeting at Birmingham last week Thursday.

to work on the farm of the Detroit attorney. He is about 35 years old.

Life 100,000 Years Ago.

Scientists have found in a cave in Switzerland bones of men who lived 100,000 years ago.

BIG BEAVER

Lewis Smith has been entertaining his son and daughter during the week.

Mrs. Harry Simpson and Mrs. Bert Schultz are away for their summer vacation.

Mrs. Bookham's sister and niece, of Detroit, who have been visiting here, have returned.

During the last few months building and improvements have been the order of the day for our vicinity.

The Beaver traffic has increased so rapidly that the D. L. system during a larger freight shed and waiting room.

We learn that George Hill's new barn is now completed and ready for the fall crop.

Phillip Pouquier has transformed his home into a model of comfort and thrift.

Edgar Lamb is busy most of the time painting and decorating.

Henry Foots still holds the local record for early potatoes.

Mr. Dalley seems to be a firm believer also for he has put in several thousand feet of the drain and his new home which near completion is the finest in the Beaver.

The happiest man in our village Wednesday June 30, was Palmer Howell, when his wife presented him with a bouncing baby boy.

George Lowrie has finished painting his home and putting up the new carriage porch.

John Kelmer has not only made many improvements on his home but has also made many to the farm, and it is rapidly assuming a fine, neat and tidy appearance.

Miss Edna Harris and Lulu Benaway, of Detroit, are spending a few days with relatives here.

ALL OVER

Mrs. C. Roberts, of Detroit, is a guest at the Davenport home.

Mrs. Thomas Lowe, of Detroit, visited Mrs. Charles Smith recently.

Mrs. Frank Hill, and daughter Ida, recently visited at Fred Ford's in Troy.

Mrs. Carl Volman and Kate Appel, of Detroit, spent the 4th at Will Pills, in Troy.

In general crops are fair and upon some farms in Troy township the crops are extra.

Oliver Phillips and wife visited her father, Charles Behrendt, in Clawson, last Sunday.

Fred and Charles Smith, who are working in Detroit, recently visited their home in Troy.

The Farmer's club met at the home of Edwin Starr last Saturday with an interesting good time.

There is nothing in life so vital to a good and christin wife to a man in his home and in his work.

Will Davenport has the finest piece of wheat in Troy township. It will go about 40 bushels to the acre.

Mrs. Wm. Milton, of Bloomfield, entertained her cousin, Miss Esther Duckett, of Ortonville, lately.

The Behrendt family, of Clawson, and some of their girls took the pleasure trip to Tashmo recently.

Recently Miss Carrie Bingham accompanied by Emma Vokes, called on her aunt, Mrs. Mary Blakesley, of Troy.

Mrs. M. B. Brown and daughter Mattie, of Detroit, recently visited her brother, Samuel Hawthorne, of Troy.

Samuel Hawthorne and wife recently visited Mrs. Mary Blakely, who is in her 82nd year and quite smart.

LIBBI

Miss James Edgar was in Detroit last week.

William Hanna is fixing up the buildings on the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Castle are entertaining friends from Detroit.

Mrs. Thomas Young spent last Friday with friends at Redford.

Louis Granzow has just harvested a bumper crop of strawberries.

William Bell is building a house over his watering trough on the farm.

Miss Lura Tucker spent a few days with friends in Detroit last week.

Miss Elma Evans is visiting her grandparents, John D. Evans and family.

Miss Ruth Russell and the Misses McBride spent a few days in Detroit last week.

Mrs. George Slatt is visiting her aunt at Romeo, and will be there for a few weeks.

Born to Mrs. McDonald, a baby boy last Monday, July 5th. Mother and baby doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hooper and Mrs. Wm. Davis were visitors at Fred Harle's last Sunday.

Master Irvin Ziegler is visiting at the Winter Dairy Farm for a few weeks. He is from Howell, Mich.

Mrs. Margaret Rose, who visited her son on the Paxon farm, returned Saturday to her parental home.

Robert Hanna and wife spent a few days in Detroit last week, visiting her mother, brother and sisters.

Headache?

If it does, you should try Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. Why not do so. They will relieve the pain in just a few minutes.

Detroit United Lines

Birmingham Time Table

Can leave Birmingham Car House for Detroit at 5:25 a. m. and every half hour thereafter until 7:50 p. m.

AT THIS OFFICE. JOB WORK PROMPTLY EXECUTED

A Sale That YOU Shouldn't Miss. Buying things that you need for much less than they would cost regularly...

155-157 Woodward Avenue. NEAR CITY HALL, DETROIT. This old-established dry goods house has changed hands and the owners are making a clean sweep of the stock.

Griswold House. DETROIT, MICHIGAN. European Plan. 200 Rooms with running water Per Day $1.00. 100 Rooms with private bath Per Day $1.50. 50 Rooms Large, well lighted, with bath, Per Day $2.00.

WHY NOT? Order Your Lumber for That New Home From The Royal Oak LUMBER & Supply Co. THE TRUST BUSTER Wholesaler and Retailer of LUMBER COAL Lath, Shingles, Cement Lime and General Hardware. Estimates cheerfully furnished. Get our prices before ordering elsewhere. A. W. WILSON, Mgr., Royal Oak.

SOUTHFIELD

Mr. and Mrs. James Young, of Flint are visiting relatives here.

George Conroy and children, of Farmington, spent Sunday at Charles Sheppard's.

COUNTY LINE

Isaac Brace's family have the measles.

Fred Busch was a Detroit visitor Sunday.

Ed and Jake Prisel took in the picnic at Center Hill the 4th.