HOME NOTES

Chicago has placed a woman at the head of its immense public school system.

Many friends of Mrs. Arthur Blakelee and her daughter, Miss Ethel, received a call from this Rochester couple. Everybody pleased.

Hon. Wm. S. Downey, state inspector of factories, workshops, hotels, stores and public buildings, called here Thursday and inspected the Eccentric office, the telephone office and the brick-yard. He found everything O. K. of course.

Seven room bungalow in course of construction in Shattuck and Baking addition on Harmar avenue. This fine broad avenue runs from Woodward to west limits and is going to be one of our best streets. It needs a shade tree boom just now.

I have four lots left of Bell's subdivision 2 on Ann street, 16 and 17 and 20 on Purdy 35 and 33. I am going to sell or give away these lots. Make me an offer and you will get them and on your own terms. E. L. Bell, 223 Michigan avenue, Detroit.

Just long enough to "how-dye-do" and "good-bye" was the cry Dr. Geo. P. Raynal made to his parents very recently. Dr. George has a fine increasing practice at Harbor Beach and his success, financially, practically and patients-ly is the talk of the county.

An announcement has been received by the very many friends of Mr. R. H. Weller and Mrs. Cornelia Tillson Boardlake, of their marriage at Portland, Oregon, on Tuesday, the 22nd day of June. Our best wishes go with the happy couple for a long and happy life.

Every day the new machinery for the brick yard is expected. Nearly $1,000 worth of the latest approved machinery will be installed and the best features all diminished, so that the new machinery will be second to none manufactured anywhere.

The annual reunion of the Fall family, which is a regular annual proceeding and has been for years, meets this month, August 18, with August 19, at Fall at Lake Orion. Handsome, loyal old glory-shield invitations are issued which please all G. A. R. members and their friends.

The second kiln of brick were burned and finished Tuesday morning at the brick yard. The result is very satisfactory, showing much improvement over the first kiln in shape, etc., proving that the new men work at the new business the better they come and the better way they make.

George H. Mitchell, ex editor, attended a meeting of the board of directors of the Eastern Michigan Press club at the Griswold house Monday. Full and complete arrangements for their annual outing to the 20,000 Islands, Georgian Bay and the Ontario Soo, were completed and the craft will soon be on this trip rejoicing.

Mr. Earle Mudge is now employed with the large wholesale drug house of Farrand Williams & Clark in Detroit. Earle is one of the many Birmingham boys who are bound to make good and we sincerely congratulate him on his selection of a home and vocation, and F. W. & C. are to be congratulated in securing the services of Mr. Earle Mudge.

Mr. L. D. Califf is now a regular Birminghamer. For how long and why? Well he has just purchased the tidy home he has been renting from James J. Davenport and now owns it. At the head of Bates street, Mr. Califf has a fine home, plenty of land and convenient to his car. Success to him. What will Jim do with all his money? Watch for him to still build another pretty home, sell it and make more simoleans.

Mrs. John J. Tombs was buried in Greenwood cemetery Saturday last. She died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Pospeschil, near Orchard Lake, Wednesday morning from a stroke of apoplexy. Her death was sudden and a great shock to many friends here where she had lived a greater portion of her life, for over 40 years. She is survived by her husband one son and four daughters, all married and settled in this locality.

The 42nd annual reunion of the 22nd Michigan Volunteer Infantry will be held in G. A. R. hall, corner of Grand River and Cass avenues, at 9 a. m., where all comrades are urged to appear in full uniform. Dinner will be served at the Hotel Bismarck for 25c per plate. At 1:30 p. m. there will be a general meeting in G. A. R. hall, where an important program will be given. H. F. Daniels will be the sole representative of this regiment from this village.

The village fire department house is undergoing repairs—and they are much needed.

Rev. David A. Johnson, of Marengo, Iowa, is visiting at the home of T. A. M. A.

Mr. John Blumenthal and wife of Detroit, spent a week at the pleasant home of Mr. Peter Anderson, of Troy.

Mrs. A. Whitehead is enjoying sea life down at Manchester-on-the-Sea, Mass. She will not return until cold weather comes.

Norman Burnette, who is very sick at the Marine hospital from an appendicitis operation, is very low and fears for his recovery are held.

Mrs. Peter Anderson, of Troy, and her friend, Mrs. George Bohmst of Cleveland, entertained a party of Detroit friends at Pine Lake, on Thursday of last week.

Will the party who took the umbrella in front of J. F. Wooster's store Monday morning please, return it, as once the party is mown and it will save further trouble.

The Womens Foreign Missionary society of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. Swackhamer August 19. Take the 2 o'clock (local) car. All are welcome. Soby.

Miss Mabel Parnall has resigned her position as clerk and book-keeper in M. Levinson's store, and accepted a fine paying position with the Mascotte Cigar Co. at Pontiac.

Clarence McDonald has commenced painting his buildings, as he says postage stamps are way down in price. He can buy 12c stamps for a cent and a quarter. How? Ask Rousseau. He bit.

The Ladies' Church society of the First Presbyterian church will hold their August meeting on the lawn of Mrs. Herbert Poppleton. The members and friends are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. Adam Reid is at home now to his many friends, none the worse for his close call to death. What Adam knows now about palkeys would fill a book. We are glad to say that he has nearly entirely recovered, from the blow.

Miss Tillie Walker is at her sisters, Mrs. John Sharp, near Fowlerville, caring for her nephew, Mr. Tracy Sharp, who is slowly recovering from an operation for appendicitis. He came very near dying but is now recovering.

Trowbridge Bros. sold, very recently, 40 acres off their farm to Messrs. Chittenden, Barbour & Co. for the neat sum of $12,000. Three hundred dollars per acre. Farming on land at that price can pay but it will require some labor, huh?

Mrs. Wiley Pearce and three little girl Peirces, en route for their new home, called on friends here Monday and Tuesday. Two girls, 31 years old and one a triple orphan, keep the good little Frankie Quick Peirce mother very busy—but she's happy.

Happy visitors at the Roy home, on Brown street last week; Mr. and Mrs. James Casey of Rochester; Mrs. Argha B. and daughter, Miss Ethel, also of Rochester; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Moore of Detroit; Mrs. Kline of Pontiac; William Casey of Port Sania; and last but not least Mr. Edwin Richardson, of Saute Ste. Marie, Mich.

The Michigan Pathfinder, for August 1909 has reached our desk and for any one wishing information regarding accurate schedules of all steam railroads, all the electric inter-urbans, steamboat lines and hotels of Michigan here you have it in your, carried to the latest hour. Price 10c and every traveler should have one along with them.

Mr. R. B. Watson, manager of the Michigan Pathfinder Co. is making his time tables a glittering success. The home of O. E. Shattuck, of Woodward avenue fame, has been holding a little family reunion last week Mr. My Shattuck, his son, who is agent for the P. M. R. R. in Genoa, was home on a visit. This week the family are busy entertaining another son, Arthur Shattuck and a nephew and niece, Mr. Roy Bay and Miss Florence Bailey, all from Chicago. The guests are headed for a trip to Buffalo, the Falls and New York City.

Frank Rokendorf, near Big Beaver, died at his home, early Monday morning. Death followed a two years illness of consumption. He was 40 years old, and suffered greatly, and was unconscious for a full week preceding his death. A year ago he was struck by a Flint car at Council corners and never recovered from the injuries he received. Funeral will be Wednesday afternoon from the Big Beaver church. He leaves a widow and a two year old child.

The marriage of Mrs. Harriet Peabody McBride to Mr. Frederick William Riley Perry, of Detroit, was celebrated on Tuesday August 10, at the residence of the brides brother, J. Bert Peabody. Mrs. Perry is beloved by young and old in our village, and will be missed in club and social circles.

Mrs. Perry is one of our best known and most popular business women with hosts of friends. They left Tuesday night for an extended water trip, and upon their return will make their residence in Detroit. The Eccentric has many many friends in extending best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Perry.

Mrs. A. Whitehead, Mrs. Eade, and a nephew are having a delightful time at Manchester-by-the-Sea, Massachusetts.

A. F. VanAuker and wife are off for a three weeks trip to Vanderbilt, in northern Michigan. They will be back in time for the big fair.

Mrs. Ellen Drew honored the Eccentric office with a short pleasant call on Wednesday. She expects to return to her Coloma home some time next month.

Mrs. Sarah J. Elliott, of the Oberlin Conservatory of Music, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Thomas Walker, of the Brady farm, and the sisters are having a royal reunion.

H. B. Merritt, the live shoe man of Pontiac, has started his annual sale of summer footwear and his cut on oxfords is something startling. Read his new change of advt. in this week's issue.
