City the man whose summer vacation is over. Freckles are to be had for the asking these days.

RECORD OF MOST IMPORTANT EVENTS TOLD IN BRIEFEST MANNER POSSIBLE.

History will refer to 1909 as the era of the aeroplane. There's enough sunburn for all at the bathing beaches.

AT HOME AND ABROAD

Twenty unusual buildings were destroyed and thousands of persons faced starvation in a fire at Osaka, Japan.

At the Clinton county jail, barred from any communication with the outside world, Mrs. John Hager, wife of a man who had been married 22 years and had eight children, was killed by a bullet from a revolver.

William Penn Howell, author of "The Man Who Married His Wife," is reported to be back in London.

After spending two days as the guest of the president of the Frank, Emperor Nicholas of Russia departed for another tour in a Kentucky prison for alleged complicity in the murder of Gov. Goebel.

Take care of the "youthful romance," and the little court question will take care of itself.

Charles Cole, 204 N. Buckeye st., Joliet, Ill., was killed by a bullet from a revolver.

It was a woman who made the flag and that may be one reason why men have been and still are ready to die for it.

Dr. J. L. C. Gagnand, has a report to the effect that an army officer, stationed at Fort Omaha, Neb., has invented an apparatus for projecting an electrical column of water.

Even though petroleum butter becomes an established fact this butter will not be deprived of the pleasure of teaching cunning little calves to drink out of a pail.

When the czar of Russia arrived at Cowles, England, he was guarded by the British army.

Recently the men who construct the popular songs can see that these same compositions are not all of the same piece or they would not have brought the matter into court.

The fifth annual session of the National Grand Lodge, International Order of Good Templars, was held at Camp Cleghorn, Waupaca, Wis.

Uncle Sam is proudly exhibiting $20,000,000 worth of battleship off the coast of Massachusetts, but none there will ever be as famous as that ancient tub, the Mayflower.

He apparently the Young Turks are apparently through with him. There comes from Constantinople the report that he is to be banished to the island of the revolt of last April. This may mean another and bigger check from the ex-monarch.

When the czar of Russia arrived at Cowles, England, he was guarded by the British army.

Ex-President Castro says that the American government is preparing to deport him to Canada and schemes. He seems to have wickered the delusion that all the power and influence of this great republic are based on his personal protection. In his persistent accusation of hostility toward him by the United States he puts himself in the attitude of the man who is angry at being shoved by the elephant.

When the czar of Russia arrived at Cowles, England, he was guarded by the British army.

These thons, or buffalos, which refused to immigrate to Canada, have been left to rot on this side of the border are truly American and perhaps the best of the beasts, but as the animals have taken to the woods the attempt to corral them has been abandoned and they have been presented to our government. As they have shown their love for America soil it is to be hoped the buffalos will be allowed their freedom, and perhaps the best of the beasts may renew a stock which has become well-nigh exterminated.
