

ROYAL OAK CHURCH NOTES.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL—Dr. W. L. G. ...

ROYAL OAK

Miss Helen Veit visited friends at Rochester last week.

ALL OVER

Mrs. Alex Groves visited in Detroit last Monday.

DR. MILLS' ANTI-PAIN PILLS FOR HEADACHE. A PROMPT, EFFECTIVE REMEDY FOR ALL FORMS OF RHEUMATISM.

Mrs. J. M. Johnson spent a few days in Detroit last week.

Mrs. William C. Bell was in Detroit, July 29th, on business.

Mrs. Thomas M. Young was at Lake Orion 3 days last week.

James L. Todd reports a big prospective sugar beet this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hooper were at Birmingham last Thursday.

Mrs. Ward Parks and Mrs. C. G. Parks were at Detroit last Thursday.

Clyde Hooper cut his oats last Wednesday, and a dandy field of oats they were.

Grace Haack and Florene Cavataugh are visiting friends in Detroit for a few days.

Frank Hooper and friends went huckleberrying last Saturday, and you ought to see it.

Robert Cromie threshed his wheat last Thursday and the McCarves of Royal Oak did the job.

Randall & Son have threshed for Fred Quanton, and his acreage yielded to bushels to the acre.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Potter, Sunday last, a baby boy, weight, 8 pounds. All on the gain.

E. G. Tucker has just completed a line fence between James Edgar and himself. Good neighbors.

The Shepherd farm that G. W. Trombly has rented for so many years is to be sold in the near future.

William Harmon and daughter, from Walnut Lake, were welcome callers at our Southfield one day last week.

James Edgar and sons are just putting on the finishing touches on their two barns with two coats of paint.

J. H. Russell will put a wall under his barn, and have a basement stable. The contract will be let in a few days.

On the E. L. Parson farm that is in about 3 acres of mudholes and waterholes. All the crops are looking fine.

C. G. Jackson last week received a brand new surrey and harness from Detroit. Now look out for the "OJ" turn-out.

John M. Bealows is now busy fitting out his string of ponies for the coming State Fair. He will have a bunch for you.

James Edgar's boys have just put on the market a fine lot rabbits for sale. Just ask the boys, "What about them bunnies?"

At the Woodlawn farm they had an old maid's picnic under the cherry tree last Friday. Company from Detroit were present.

John D. Evans has got field corn that is a foot long in the crop already. It bids fair to be as good a crop as at any other old time.

William Rendon, son of Frank, is the happiest boy alive on Ronder Ave. He is the proud possessor of a new bicycle, like he says is a dandy.

Mrs. Mary Shanks and her nephew, John Shanks all from Allegheny, Penn., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Henning and family last week.

Mrs. Pauline Miller was at Detroit, visiting her brother last Tuesday, for the first time in three years, and she feels now just as young as she used to be at about sixteen.

William Brooks of the so-called J. Bert Peabody farm, of Troy, has just threshed 6 acres of wheat and it turns out over 40 bushels per acre. This is no dream but a glad fact. Ask Uncle William; he knows.

The Oakland Co. Dairy Association held their regular monthly meeting, at Alex. Portnow's last Monday night, and a fine time, with a big feast of cake, ice cream and all good things. Everybody went home happy.

Miss Vina Purdy will teach No. 3, District school, of Royal Oak. This school was the first school ever taught, and it will seem very much like home to her, although those in No. 7 will miss her very much.

Messrs. Mark and Teddy Hannah have a big show. They made their very first appearance one afternoon last week. It was a howling success. Receipts were 20 cents. Another show next week. Don't miss it. Admission, well-better see either one of the proprietors for further particulars.

When the stomach, heart, or kidney nerves get weak, then those organs all fail. Don't drug the stomach, nor stimulate the heart or kidneys. That is simply a make-shift. Get a prescription known to druggists, but where as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Restorative is prepared expressly for these weak inside nerves. Strengthen these nerves, build them up with Dr. Shoop's Restorative—tablets or liquid and see how quickly help will come. Sold by Charles J. Shain.

THE LURE OF THE LAKES. Get Away From the Heat, Dust and Turmoil of the City.

Nobody, least of all the fagged-out business man, can resist the lure of the lake-longing, the beautifully-illustrated booklet issued by the D. & C. Coast Line to Mackinac. The views presented are of delightful suggestiveness and the traveling accommodations, the most on the Great Lakes. Send a stamp for it.

D. & C. NAVIGATION CO. Adv. Dept., Detroit, Mich.

What is Most Necessary to Happiness? Many of us will thoughtlessly answer, money; but health is far more necessary. Money will not cure rheumatism, sprains, cuts, wounds, bruises, burns, etc., and it does not cure such troubles, but R. H. H. Pain-Killing Oil will. You know to be true. Try it. Sold by James W. Cobb.

Rheumatic Pain relieved by use of Dr. Miller's Anti-Pain Pills.

Uplifting. A fashion has arisen of taking a parrot as one of an automobile party, this elevating considerably the intellectual average of the party. Exchange.

Washington's Plague Spots. Lie in the low, marshy bottoms of the Potomac, the breeding ground of malarial germs. These germs cause chills, fever and ague, biliousness, jaundice, and may even destroy the life of the sufferer, and bring suffering or death to thousands yearly. But Electric Bitters never fail to destroy them and cure malarial troubles. They are the best all-around tonic and cure for malaria I ever used. Write R. M. James, of London, S. C., or Carolina. They cure stomach, liver, kidney and blood troubles and will prevent malarial fever. Try them. Sold by James W. Cobb, Charles J. Shain and J. F. Wootter.

During August the regular services at St. James' Church will be morning prayer and sermon on Sundays at 10:15 a. m., and Sunday-school preceding morning prayer at 9:30. Early communion and evening prayer will be omitted in the absence of the rector. All are most cordially invited to the services. On next Sunday Rev. C. L. Arnold, of Detroit, will conduct the service and preach. The "annually spiritual and helpful character of Dr. Arnold's services are already known to this congregation. Let all be present."
