

...you wear his heart on his sleeve don't wear his in your belt.

In Stuyvesant, N. Y. a man had been being humped. But this he was being.

Dr. Wiley says that preserved eggs are not fit to eat. Nor are those that haven't been.

Every good resolution has a little, though it may not last until it reaches the place named on the ticket.

England and Germany may build their dreadnoughts, but the United States has a corner on the Missouri mule.

The trouble with those big deer hunters shot is that they might have been so much bigger if they had got away.

Unfortunately, all the poets are married in, so that they have nothing to do but write poems on "The Beautiful Snow."

Queen Alexandra retains her beauty by simple living and by keeping her temper. Queens do not have to worry about cooks, however.

Now that flying is practical and the work load has been discovered, the only thing left for the next year appears to be perpetual motion.

As soon as the echo of the New Year's horns has died away on the chilly air it will be time to begin agitating for the state lottery.

A Connecticut town for women is deplacated. Women are literally ogling man on every point, but this is the highest point of equality on record.

No matter what may happen to the heating plant, it is always possible to be happy in the thought of the fact that you don't live in the natural gas belt with the gas pipes frozen.

A Baltimore judge has decided that you can hit a waiter if he spills soup on you. But how about the waiter who doesn't bring your cup of coffee till your meat is stone cold?

The papers tell us that bank deposits are so general that there is "237 in banks for each of us." Tell it to me when the bottom of the trough is a run on every bank in the country.

The trouble with the modern woman appears to be that the moment she marries she takes up a study in psychology instead of thinking about the meaning and the baking and the rearing of children.

When a man's wife has gone to the trouble of getting his favorite cigar from the drugist a man is a thorough grocer if he complains at the bill when it comes in later. If you expect the lady to make the cigars?

A 15-year-old boy was arrested in New York for speeding in an automobile at the rate of 30 miles an hour. He argued that the boy had the car's license and that the car was his own. The modern speed juggernaut is bad enough, but it is no wonder that the citizens of New York are calling on the law for protection to their lives when this juggernaut is allowed to be set in motion by children.

It is gratifying to learn from the forestry authorities that will enter that cutting Christmas trees is not a menace to the timber lands. It is estimated that though 4,000,000 of these trees are used every year in the United States they represent a growth that is not material to the well being of the forests. In fact, it is said the thinning out this assured more beneficial to the remaining timber. So a beautiful custom may continue to be practiced in without any conscientious scruples.

Moving pictures taken to show the meeting between Prince Ho and the Russian minister reveal every detail of the tragedy, including the assassination, and will be used in the next session. This striking departure in criminal trials, which will take place in court and not in a jury box, opens up a new field in the conduct of the courts. Already they are crowded by the seekers after sensation life dramas. They will be taken into serious competition with theaters as free moving picture shows.

Prof. Muensterberg knows more about why most of us do things than we ourselves do. He has to thank him for some interesting surprises we have enjoyed when he has explained motives to us; so when he says that from a psychological viewpoint women are duller moral perception than men and are less likely to restrain their emotions, it is not surprising that we must believe it without question—at least, from the psychological viewpoint.

Now Guam has had an earthquake. The little island is manifesting a considerable desire to get into the limelight, although it is slightly behind in the procession in selecting earthquakes, which have gone temporarily out of fashion.

Not less than $60,000,000 in money, to say nothing of other gifts, is reported to have been sent this year in the shape of Christmas presents to the world from the United States. That says Uncle Sam is not the biggest and best Santa Claus in the business?

Age doesn't creep after all; it runs into you. It is evident that old people have grown old since the passage of the tariff bill letting in works that are more than 100 years old.

...you wear his heart on his sleeve don't wear his in your belt.

In Stuyvesant, N. Y. a man had been being humped. But this he was being.

Dr. Wiley says that preserved eggs are not fit to eat. Nor are those that haven't been.

Every good resolution has a little, though it may not last until it reaches the place named on the ticket.

England and Germany may build their dreadnoughts, but the United States has a corner on the Missouri mule.

The trouble with those big deer hunters shot is that they might have been so much bigger if they had got away.

Unfortunately, all the poets are married in, so that they have nothing to do but write poems on "The Beautiful Snow."

Queen Alexandra retains her beauty by simple living and by keeping her temper. Queens do not have to worry about cooks, however.

Now that flying is practical and the work load has been discovered, the only thing left for the next year appears to be perpetual motion.

As soon as the echo of the New Year's horns has died away on the chilly air it will be time to begin agitating for the state lottery.

A Connecticut town for women is deplacated. Women are literally ogling man on every point, but this is the highest point of equality on record.

No matter what may happen to the heating plant, it is always possible to be happy in the thought of the fact that you don't live in the natural gas belt with the gas pipes frozen.

A Baltimore judge has decided that you can hit a waiter if he spills soup on you. But how about the waiter who doesn't bring your cup of coffee till your meat is stone cold?

The papers tell us that bank deposits are so general that there is "237 in banks for each of us." Tell it to me when the bottom of the trough is a run on every bank in the country.

The trouble with the modern woman appears to be that the moment she marries she takes up a study in psychology instead of thinking about the meaning and the baking and the rearing of children.

When a man's wife has gone to the trouble of getting his favorite cigar from the drugist a man is a thorough grocer if he complains at the bill when it comes in later. If you expect the lady to make the cigars?

A 15-year-old boy was arrested in New York for speeding in an automobile at the rate of 30 miles an hour. He argued that the boy had the car's license and that the car was his own. The modern speed juggernaut is bad enough, but it is no wonder that the citizens of New York are calling on the law for protection to their lives when this juggernaut is allowed to be set in motion by children.

It is gratifying to learn from the forestry authorities that will enter that cutting Christmas trees is not a menace to the timber lands. It is estimated that though 4,000,000 of these trees are used every year in the United States they represent a growth that is not material to the well being of the forests. In fact, it is said the thinning out this assured more beneficial to the remaining timber. So a beautiful custom may continue to be practiced in without any conscientious scruples.

Moving pictures taken to show the meeting between Prince Ho and the Russian minister reveal every detail of the tragedy, including the assassination, and will be used in the next session. This striking departure in criminal trials, which will take place in court and not in a jury box, opens up a new field in the conduct of the courts. Already they are crowded by the seekers after sensation life dramas. They will be taken into serious competition with theaters as free moving picture shows.

Prof. Muensterberg knows more about why most of us do things than we ourselves do. He has to thank him for some interesting surprises we have enjoyed when he has explained motives to us; so when he says that from a psychological viewpoint women are duller moral perception than men and are less likely to restrain their emotions, it is not surprising that we must believe it without question—at least, from the psychological viewpoint.

Now Guam has had an earthquake. The little island is manifesting a considerable desire to get into the limelight, although it is slightly behind in the procession in selecting earthquakes, which have gone temporarily out of fashion.

Not less than $60,000,000 in money, to say nothing of other gifts, is reported to have been sent this year in the shape of Christmas presents to the world from the United States. That says Uncle Sam is not the biggest and best Santa Claus in the business?

Age doesn't creep after all; it runs into you. It is evident that old people have grown old since the passage of the tariff bill letting in works that are more than 100 years old.

...you wear his heart on his sleeve don't wear his in your belt.

In Stuyvesant, N. Y. a man had been being humped. But this he was being.

Dr. Wiley says that preserved eggs are not fit to eat. Nor are those that haven't been.

Every good resolution has a little, though it may not last until it reaches the place named on the ticket.

England and Germany may build their dreadnoughts, but the United States has a corner on the Missouri mule.

The trouble with those big deer hunters shot is that they might have been so much bigger if they had got away.

Unfortunately, all the poets are married in, so that they have nothing to do but write poems on "The Beautiful Snow."

Queen Alexandra retains her beauty by simple living and by keeping her temper. Queens do not have to worry about cooks, however.

Now that flying is practical and the work load has been discovered, the only thing left for the next year appears to be perpetual motion.

As soon as the echo of the New Year's horns has died away on the chilly air it will be time to begin agitating for the state lottery.

A Connecticut town for women is deplacated. Women are literally ogling man on every point, but this is the highest point of equality on record.

No matter what may happen to the heating plant, it is always possible to be happy in the thought of the fact that you don't live in the natural gas belt with the gas pipes frozen.

A Baltimore judge has decided that you can hit a waiter if he spills soup on you. But how about the waiter who doesn't bring your cup of coffee till your meat is stone cold?

The papers tell us that bank deposits are so general that there is "237 in banks for each of us." Tell it to me when the bottom of the trough is a run on every bank in the country.

The trouble with the modern woman appears to be that the moment she marries she takes up a study in psychology instead of thinking about the meaning and the baking and the rearing of children.

When a man's wife has gone to the trouble of getting his favorite cigar from the drugist a man is a thorough grocer if he complains at the bill when it comes in later. If you expect the lady to make the cigars?

A 15-year-old boy was arrested in New York for speeding in an automobile at the rate of 30 miles an hour. He argued that the boy had the car's license and that the car was his own. The modern speed juggernaut is bad enough, but it is no wonder that the citizens of New York are calling on the law for protection to their lives when this juggernaut is allowed to be set in motion by children.

It is gratifying to learn from the forestry authorities that will enter that cutting Christmas trees is not a menace to the timber lands. It is estimated that though 4,000,000 of these trees are used every year in the United States they represent a growth that is not material to the well being of the forests. In fact, it is said the thinning out this assured more beneficial to the remaining timber. So a beautiful custom may continue to be practiced in without any conscientious scruples.

Moving pictures taken to show the meeting between Prince Ho and the Russian minister reveal every detail of the tragedy, including the assassination, and will be used in the next session. This striking departure in criminal trials, which will take place in court and not in a jury box, opens up a new field in the conduct of the courts. Already they are crowded by the seekers after sensation life dramas. They will be taken into serious competition with theaters as free moving picture shows.

Prof. Muensterberg knows more about why most of us do things than we ourselves do. He has to thank him for some interesting surprises we have enjoyed when he has explained motives to us; so when he says that from a psychological viewpoint women are duller moral perception than men and are less likely to restrain their emotions, it is not surprising that we must believe it without question—at least, from the psychological viewpoint.

Now Guam has had an earthquake. The little island is manifesting a considerable desire to get into the limelight, although it is slightly behind in the procession in selecting earthquakes, which have gone temporarily out of fashion.

Not less than $60,000,000 in money, to say nothing of other gifts, is reported to have been sent this year in the shape of Christmas presents to the world from the United States. That says Uncle Sam is not the biggest and best Santa Claus in the business?

Age doesn't creep after all; it runs into you. It is evident that old people have grown old since the passage of the tariff bill letting in works that are more than 100 years old.

...you wear his heart on his sleeve don't wear his in your belt.

In Stuyvesant, N. Y. a man had been being humped. But this he was being.

Dr. Wiley says that preserved eggs are not fit to eat. Nor are those that haven't been.

Every good resolution has a little, though it may not last until it reaches the place named on the ticket.

England and Germany may build their dreadnoughts, but the United States has a corner on the Missouri mule.

The trouble with those big deer hunters shot is that they might have been so much bigger if they had got away.

Unfortunately, all the poets are married in, so that they have nothing to do but write poems on "The Beautiful Snow."

Queen Alexandra retains her beauty by simple living and by keeping her temper. Queens do not have to worry about cooks, however.

Now that flying is practical and the work load has been discovered, the only thing left for the next year appears to be perpetual motion.

As soon as the echo of the New Year's horns has died away on the chilly air it will be time to begin agitating for the state lottery.

A Connecticut town for women is deplacated. Women are literally ogling man on every point, but this is the highest point of equality on record.

No matter what may happen to the heating plant, it is always possible to be happy in the thought of the fact that you don't live in the natural gas belt with the gas pipes frozen.

A Baltimore judge has decided that you can hit a waiter if he spills soup on you. But how about the waiter who doesn't bring your cup of coffee till your meat is stone cold?

The papers tell us that bank deposits are so general that there is "237 in banks for each of us." Tell it to me when the bottom of the trough is a run on every bank in the country.

The trouble with the modern woman appears to be that the moment she marries she takes up a study in psychology instead of thinking about the meaning and the baking and the rearing of children.

When a man's wife has gone to the trouble of getting his favorite cigar from the drugist a man is a thorough grocer if he complains at the bill when it comes in later. If you expect the lady to make the cigars?

A 15-year-old boy was arrested in New York for speeding in an automobile at the rate of 30 miles an hour. He argued that the boy had the car's license and that the car was his own. The modern speed juggernaut is bad enough, but it is no wonder that the citizens of New York are calling on the law for protection to their lives when this juggernaut is allowed to be set in motion by children.

It is gratifying to learn from the forestry authorities that will enter that cutting Christmas trees is not a menace to the timber lands. It is estimated that though 4,000,000 of these trees are used every year in the United States they represent a growth that is not material to the well being of the forests. In fact, it is said the thinning out this assured more beneficial to the remaining timber. So a beautiful custom may continue to be practiced in without any conscientious scruples.

Moving pictures taken to show the meeting between Prince Ho and the Russian minister reveal every detail of the tragedy, including the assassination, and will be used in the next session. This striking departure in criminal trials, which will take place in court and not in a jury box, opens up a new field in the conduct of the courts. Already they are crowded by the seekers after sensation life dramas. They will be taken into serious competition with theaters as free moving picture shows.

Prof. Muensterberg knows more about why most of us do things than we ourselves do. He has to thank him for some interesting surprises we have enjoyed when he has explained motives to us; so when he says that from a psychological viewpoint women are duller moral perception than men and are less likely to restrain their emotions, it is not surprising that we must believe it without question—at least, from the psychological viewpoint.

Now Guam has had an earthquake. The little island is manifesting a considerable desire to get into the limelight, although it is slightly behind in the procession in selecting earthquakes, which have gone temporarily out of fashion.

Not less than $60,000,000 in money, to say nothing of other gifts, is reported to have been sent this year in the shape of Christmas presents to the world from the United States. That says Uncle Sam is not the biggest and best Santa Claus in the business?

Age doesn't creep after all; it runs into you. It is evident that old people have grown old since the passage of the tariff bill letting in works that are more than 100 years old.

...you wear his heart on his sleeve don't wear his in your belt.

In Stuyvesant, N. Y. a man had been being humped. But this he was being.

Dr. Wiley says that preserved eggs are not fit to eat. Nor are those that haven't been.

Every good resolution has a little, though it may not last until it reaches the place named on the ticket.

England and Germany may build their dreadnoughts, but the United States has a corner on the Missouri mule.

The trouble with those big deer hunters shot is that they might have been so much bigger if they had got away.

Unfortunately, all the poets are married in, so that they have nothing to do but write poems on "The Beautiful Snow."

Queen Alexandra retains her beauty by simple living and by keeping her temper. Queens do not have to worry about cooks, however.

Now that flying is practical and the work load has been discovered, the only thing left for the next year appears to be perpetual motion.

As soon as the echo of the New Year's horns has died away on the chilly air it will be time to begin agitating for the state lottery.

A Connecticut town for women is deplacated. Women are literally ogling man on every point, but this is the highest point of equality on record.

No matter what may happen to the heating plant, it is always possible to be happy in the thought of the fact that you don't live in the natural gas belt with the gas pipes frozen.

A Baltimore judge has decided that you can hit a waiter if he spills soup on you. But how about the waiter who doesn't bring your cup of coffee till your meat is stone cold?

The papers tell us that bank deposits are so general that there is "237 in banks for each of us." Tell it to me when the bottom of the trough is a run on every bank in the country.

The trouble with the modern woman appears to be that the moment she marries she takes up a study in psychology instead of thinking about the meaning and the baking and the rearing of children.

When a man's wife has gone to the trouble of getting his favorite cigar from the drugist a man is a thorough grocer if he complains at the bill when it comes in later. If you expect the lady to make the cigars?

A 15-year-old boy was arrested in New York for speeding in an automobile at the rate of 30 miles an hour. He argued that the boy had the car's license and that the car was his own. The modern speed juggernaut is bad enough, but it is no wonder that the citizens of New York are calling on the law for protection to their lives when this juggernaut is allowed to be set in motion by children.

It is gratifying to learn from the forestry authorities that will enter that cutting Christmas trees is not a menace to the timber lands. It is estimated that though 4,000,000 of these trees are used every year in the United States they represent a growth that is not material to the well being of the forests. In fact, it is said the thinning out this assured more beneficial to the remaining timber. So a beautiful custom may continue to be practiced in without any conscientious scruples.

Moving pictures taken to show the meeting between Prince Ho and the Russian minister reveal every detail of the tragedy, including the assassination, and will be used in the next session. This striking departure in criminal trials, which will take place in court and not in a jury box, opens up a new field in the conduct of the courts. Already they are crowded by the seekers after sensation life dramas. They will be taken into serious competition with theaters as free moving picture shows.

Prof. Muensterberg knows more about why most of us do things than we ourselves do. He has to thank him for some interesting surprises we have enjoyed when he has explained motives to us; so when he says that from a psychological viewpoint women are duller moral perception than men and are less likely to restrain their emotions, it is not surprising that we must believe it without question—at least, from the psychological viewpoint.

Now Guam has had an earthquake. The little island is manifesting a considerable desire to get into the limelight, although it is slightly behind in the procession in selecting earthquakes, which have gone temporarily out of fashion.

Not less than $60,000,000 in money, to say nothing of other gifts, is reported to have been sent this year in the shape of Christmas presents to the world from the United States. That says Uncle Sam is not the biggest and best Santa Claus in the business?

Age doesn't creep after all; it runs into you. It is evident that old people have grown old since the passage of the tariff bill letting in works that are more than 100 years old.

...you wear his heart on his sleeve don't wear his in your belt.

In Stuyvesant, N. Y. a man had been being humped. But this he was being.

Dr. Wiley says that preserved eggs are not fit to eat. Nor are those that haven't been.

Every good resolution has a little, though it may not last until it reaches the place named on the ticket.

England and Germany may build their dreadnoughts, but the United States has a corner on the Missouri mule.

The trouble with those big deer hunters shot is that they might have been so much bigger if they had got away.

Unfortunately, all the poets are married in, so that they have nothing to do but write poems on "The Beautiful Snow."

Queen Alexandra retains her beauty by simple living and by keeping her temper. Queens do not have to worry about cooks, however.

Now that flying is practical and the work load has been discovered, the only thing left for the next year appears to be perpetual motion.

As soon as the echo of the New Year's horns has died away on the chilly air it will be time to begin agitating for the state lottery.

A Connecticut town for women is deplacated. Women are literally ogling man on every point, but this is the highest point of equality on record.

No matter what may happen to the heating plant, it is always possible to be happy in the thought of the fact that you don't live in the natural gas belt with the gas pipes frozen.

A Baltimore judge has decided that you can hit a waiter if he spills soup on you. But how about the waiter who doesn't bring your cup of coffee till your meat is stone cold?

The papers tell us that bank deposits are so general that there is "237 in banks for each of us." Tell it to me when the bottom of the trough is a run on every bank in the country.

The trouble with the modern woman appears to be that the moment she marries she takes up a study in psychology instead of thinking about the meaning and the baking and the rearing of children.

When a man's wife has gone to the trouble of getting his favorite cigar from the drugist a man is a thorough grocer if he complains at the bill when it comes in later. If you expect the lady to make the cigars?

A 15-year-old boy was arrested in New York for speeding in an automobile at the rate of 30 miles an hour. He argued that the boy had the car's license and that the car was his own. The modern speed juggernaut is bad enough, but it is no wonder that the citizens of New York are calling on the law for protection to their lives when this juggernaut is allowed to be set in motion by children.

It is gratifying to learn from the forestry authorities that will enter that cutting Christmas trees is not a menace to the timber lands. It is estimated that though 4,000,000 of these trees are used every year in the United States they represent a growth that is not material to the well being of the forests. In fact, it is said the thinning out this assured more beneficial to the remaining timber. So a beautiful custom may continue to be practiced in without any conscientious scruples.

Moving pictures taken to show the meeting between Prince Ho and the Russian minister reveal every detail of the tragedy, including the assassination, and will be used in the next session. This striking departure in criminal trials, which will take place in court and not in a jury box, opens up a new field in the conduct of the courts. Already they are crowded by the seekers after sensation life dramas. They will be taken into serious competition with theaters as free moving picture shows.

Prof. Muensterberg knows more about why most of us do things than we ourselves do. He has to thank him for some interesting surprises we have enjoyed when he has explained motives to us; so when he says that from a psychological viewpoint women are duller moral perception than men and are less likely to restrain their emotions, it is not surprising that we must believe it without question—at least, from the psychological viewpoint.

Now Guam has had an earthquake. The little island is manifesting a considerable desire to get into the limelight, although it is slightly behind in the procession in selecting earthquakes, which have gone temporarily out of fashion.

Not less than $60,000,000 in money, to say nothing of other gifts, is reported to have been sent this year in the shape of Christmas presents to the world from the United States. That says Uncle Sam is not the biggest and best Santa Claus in the business?

Age doesn't creep after all; it runs into you. It is evident that old people have grown old since the passage of the tariff bill letting in works that are more than 100 years old.

...you wear his heart on his sleeve don't wear his in your belt.

In Stuyvesant, N. Y. a man had been being humped. But this he was being.

Dr. Wiley says that preserved eggs are not fit to eat. Nor are those that haven't been.

Every good resolution has a little, though it may not last until it reaches the place named on the ticket.

England and Germany may build their dreadnoughts, but the United States has a corner on the Missouri mule.

The trouble with those big deer hunters shot is that they might have been so much bigger if they had got away.

Unfortunately, all the poets are married in, so that they have nothing to do but write poems on "The Beautiful Snow."

Queen Alexandra retains her beauty by simple living and by keeping her temper. Queens do not have to worry about cooks, however.

Now that flying is practical and the work load has been discovered, the only thing left for the next year appears to be perpetual motion.

As soon as the echo of the New Year's horns has died away on the chilly air it will be time to begin agitating for the state lottery.

A Connecticut town for women is deplacated. Women are literally ogling man on every point, but this is the highest point of equality on record.

No matter what may happen to the heating plant, it is always possible to be happy in the thought of the fact that you don't live in the natural gas belt with the gas pipes frozen.

A Baltimore judge has decided that you can hit a waiter if he spills soup on you. But how about the waiter who doesn't bring your cup of coffee till your meat is stone cold?

The papers tell us that bank deposits are so general that there is "237 in banks for each of us." Tell it to me when the bottom of the trough is a run on every bank in the country.

The trouble with the modern woman appears to be that the moment she marries she takes up a study in psychology instead of thinking about the meaning and the baking and the rearing of children.

When a man's wife has gone to the trouble of getting his favorite cigar from the drugist a man is a thorough grocer if he complains at the bill when it comes in later. If you expect the lady to make the cigars?

A 15-year-old boy was arrested in New York for speeding in an automobile at the rate of 30 miles an hour. He argued that the boy had the car's license and that the car was his own. The modern speed juggernaut is bad enough, but it is no wonder that the citizens of New York are calling on the law for protection to their lives when this juggernaut is allowed to be set in motion by children.

It is gratifying to learn from the forestry authorities that will enter that cutting Christmas trees is not a menace to the timber lands. It is estimated that though 4,000,000 of these trees are used every year in the United States they represent a growth that is not material to the well being of the forests. In fact, it is said the thinning out this assured more beneficial to the remaining timber. So a beautiful custom may continue to be practiced in without any conscientious scruples.

Moving pictures taken to show the meeting between Prince Ho and the Russian minister reveal every detail of the tragedy, including the assassination, and will be used in the next session. This striking departure in criminal trials, which will take place in court and not in a jury box, opens up a new field in the conduct of the courts. Already they are crowded by the seekers after sensation life dramas. They will be taken into serious competition with theaters as free moving picture shows.

Prof. Muensterberg knows more about why most of us do things than we ourselves do. He has to thank him for some interesting surprises we have enjoyed when he has explained motives to us; so when he says that from a psychological viewpoint women are duller moral perception than men and are less likely to restrain their emotions, it is not surprising that we must believe it without question—at least, from the psychological viewpoint.

Now Guam has had an earthquake. The little island is manifesting a considerable desire to get into the limelight, although it is slightly behind in the procession in selecting earthquakes, which have gone temporarily out of fashion.

Not less than $60,000,000 in money, to say nothing of other gifts, is reported to have been sent this year in the shape of Christmas presents to the world from the United States. That says Uncle Sam is not the biggest and best Santa Claus in the business?

Age doesn't creep after all; it runs into you. It is evident that old people have grown old since the passage of the tariff bill letting in works that are more than 100 years old.

...you wear his heart on his sleeve don't wear his in your belt.

In Stuyvesant, N. Y. a man had been being humped. But this he was being.

Dr. Wiley says that preserved eggs are not fit to eat. Nor are those that haven't been.

Every good resolution has a little, though it may not last until it reaches the place named on the ticket.

England and Germany may build their dreadnoughts, but the United States has a corner on the Missouri mule.

The trouble with those big deer hunters shot is that they might have been so much bigger if they had got away.

Unfortunately, all the poets are married in, so that they have nothing to do but write poems on "The Beautiful Snow."

Queen Alexandra retains her beauty by simple living and by keeping her temper. Queens do not have to worry about cooks, however.

Now that flying is practical and the work load has been discovered, the only thing left for the next year appears to be perpetual motion.

As soon as the echo of the New Year's horns has died away on the chilly air it will be time to begin agitating for the state lottery.

A Connecticut town for women is deplacated. Women are literally ogling man on every point, but this is the highest point of equality on record.

No matter what may happen to the heating plant, it is always possible to be happy in the thought of the fact that you don't live in the natural gas belt with the gas pipes frozen.

A Baltimore judge has decided that you can hit a waiter if he spills soup on you. But how about the waiter who doesn't bring your cup of coffee till your meat is stone cold?

The papers tell us that bank deposits are so general that there is "237 in banks for each of us." Tell it to me when the bottom of the trough is a run on every bank in the country.

The trouble with the modern woman appears to be that the moment she marries she takes up a study in psychology instead of thinking about the meaning and the baking and the rearing of children.

When a man's wife has gone to the trouble of getting his favorite cigar from the drugist a man is a thorough grocer if he complains at the bill when it comes in later. If you expect the lady to make the cigars?

A 15-year-old boy was arrested in New York for speeding in an automobile at the rate of 30 miles an hour. He argued that the boy had the car's license and that the car was his own. The modern speed juggernaut is bad enough, but it is no wonder that the citizens of New York are calling on the law for protection to their lives when this juggernaut is allowed to be set in motion by children.

It is gratifying to learn from the forestry authorities that will enter that cutting Christmas trees is not a menace to the timber lands. It is estimated that though 4,000,000 of these trees are used every year in the United States they represent a growth that is not material to the well being of the forests. In fact, it is said the thinning out this assured more beneficial to the remaining timber. So a beautiful custom may continue to be practiced in without any conscientious scruples.

Moving pictures taken to show the meeting between Prince Ho and the Russian minister reveal every detail of the tragedy, including the assassination, and will be used in the next session. This striking departure in criminal trials, which will take place in court and not in a jury box, opens up a new field in the conduct of the courts. Already they are crowded by the seekers after sensation life dramas. They will be taken into serious competition with theaters as free moving picture shows.

Prof. Muensterberg knows more about why most of us do things than we ourselves do. He has to thank him for some interesting surprises we have enjoyed when he has explained motives to us; so when he says that from a psychological viewpoint women are duller moral perception than men and are less likely to restrain their emotions, it is not surprising that we must believe it without question—at least, from the psychological viewpoint.

Now Guam has had an earthquake. The little island is manifesting a considerable desire to get into the limelight, although it is slightly behind in the procession in selecting earthquakes, which have gone temporarily out of fashion.

Not less than $60,000,000 in money, to say nothing of other gifts, is reported to have been sent this year in the shape of Christmas presents to the world from the United States. That says Uncle Sam is not the biggest and best Santa Claus in the business?

Age doesn't creep after all; it runs into you. It is evident that old people have grown old since the passage of the tariff bill letting in works that are more than 100 years old.

...you wear his heart on his sleeve don't wear his in your belt.

In Stuyvesant, N. Y. a man had been being humped. But this he was being.

Dr. Wiley says that preserved eggs are not fit to eat. Nor are those that haven't been.

Every good resolution has a little, though it may not last until it reaches the place named on the ticket.

England and Germany may build their dreadnoughts, but the United States has a corner on the Missouri mule.

The trouble with those big deer hunters shot is that they might have been so much bigger if they had got away.

Unfortunately, all the poets are married in, so that they have nothing to do but write poems on "The Beautiful Snow."

Queen Alexandra retains her beauty by simple living and by keeping her temper. Queens do not have to worry about cooks, however.

Now that flying is practical and the work load has been discovered, the only thing left for the next year appears to be perpetual motion.

As soon as the echo of the New Year's horns has died away on the chilly air it will be time to begin agitating for the state lottery.

A Connecticut town for women is deplacated. Women are literally ogling man on every point, but this is the highest point of equality on record.

No matter what may happen to the heating plant, it is always possible to be happy in the thought of the fact that you don't live in the natural gas belt with the gas pipes frozen.

A Baltimore judge has decided that you can hit a waiter if he spills soup on you. But how about the waiter who doesn't bring your cup of coffee till your meat is stone cold?

The papers tell us that bank deposits are so general that there is "237 in banks for each of us." Tell it to me when the bottom of the trough is a run on every bank in the country.

The trouble with the modern woman appears to be that the moment she marries she takes up a study in psychology instead of thinking about the meaning and the baking and the rearing of children.

When a man's wife has gone to the trouble of getting his favorite cigar from the drugist a man is a thorough grocer if he complains at the bill when it comes in later. If you expect the lady to make the cigars?

A 15-year-old boy was arrested in New York for speeding in an automobile at the rate of 30 miles an hour. He argued that the boy had the car's license and that the car was his own. The modern speed juggernaut is bad enough, but it is no wonder that the citizens of New York are calling on the law for protection to their lives when this juggernaut is allowed to be set in motion by children.

It is gratifying to learn from the forestry authorities that will enter that cutting Christmas trees is not a menace to the timber lands. It is estimated that though 4,000,000 of these trees are used every year in the United States they represent a growth that is not material to the well being of the forests. In fact, it is said the thinning out this assured more beneficial to the remaining timber. So a beautiful custom may continue to be practiced in without any conscientious scruples.

Moving pictures taken to show the meeting between Prince Ho and the Russian minister reveal every detail of the tragedy, including the assassination, and will be used in the next session. This striking departure in criminal trials, which will take place in court and not in a jury box, opens up a new field in the conduct of the courts. Already they are crowded by the seekers after sensation life dramas. They will be taken into serious competition with theaters as free moving picture shows.

Prof. Muensterberg knows more about why most of us do things than we ourselves do. He has to thank him for some interesting surprises we have enjoyed when he has explained motives to us; so when he says that from a psychological viewpoint women are duller moral perception than men and are less likely to restrain their emotions, it is not surprising that we must believe it without question—at least, from the psychological viewpoint.

Now Guam has had an earthquake. The little island is manifesting a considerable desire to get into the limelight, although it is slightly behind in the procession in selecting earthquakes, which have gone temporarily out of fashion.

Not less than $60,000,000 in money, to say nothing of other gifts, is reported to have been sent this year in the shape of Christmas presents to the world from the United States. That says Uncle Sam is not the biggest and best Santa Claus in the business?

Age doesn't creep after all; it runs into you. It is evident that old people have grown old since the passage of the tariff bill letting in works that are more than 100 years old.

Latest News Told in Brief and Best Form.

PERSONAL.

Erna Kendall, one of the best-known comedians of the country, who has been starring in "The Vinger Beyer" for a number of years, died very suddenly at a sanatorium in Martinsville, Ind. Apoplexy was the immediate cause of his death.

Z. T. Trumbo of Pontiac, Ill., was appointed chief clerk of the Illinois state reformatory in that city by Gov. Deneen.

Charles B. Ball of Chicago was elected a trustee of the American Society of Plumbing Inspectors and Sanitary Engineers, whose convention closed at Trenton, N. J.

Wagner Grand, a 14-year-old East Orange (N. J.) lad, has built an airship of the Bleriot type, in which he has been making several flights. He is a moderate. The machine is constructed of aluminum and bamboo.

Roosevelt, speaker of the house, declared that he has no objection to an amendment to "What shall be done with our ex-presidents?" according to a report that has spread among members of congress.

William J. ("Fingy") Conners will be asked by a New York legislative committee to allow how he disposed of $2,000,000 worth of United States Independent Telephone Company stock.

Arthur Shubler, six years old, whose mother gave her life by transfusion process to save his blood, is dead in New York from wounds inflicted by a knife in the throat. The deed was terrifying a Gotham suburb.

William Beverly Murphy, 52 years old, one of the best-known paper manufacturers in the country, died last week from cancer of the stomach at Appleton, Wis., after a long illness.

John C. (Big) Sigel, wife of Gen. Franz Sigel of Civil-war fame, and grandmother of Elsie Sigel, who was murdered last August by a Chinaman, died at New York. The deed had been told her granddaughter's death.

Clayton C. Fos of the Methodist Episcopal church, who has been honored by every Protestant denomination, was stricken with paralysis while riding in a trolley in Philadelphia and is in critical condition.

Mrs. Marjorie Gode, the beautiful young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gode of Philadelphia, was married to Anthony J. Drexel, Jr., of Philadelphia. The engagement was announced by the parents of the bride-to-be.

GENERAL NEWS.

Governors of the states, who closed their conference in Washington, consider their sessions a school for them, and that the citizens of the states are national legislators.

Battling Nelson celebrated probably his last appearance in public prior to meeting the Congressional caucus next month by delivering a knockout to Eddie Lang, the Chicago lightweight at Memphis Athletic club.

Two men were killed and a third injured in a wreck on the Canadian Pacific Railroad near Webbwood, Ont. Two men were killed and a third injured in a wreck on the Canadian Pacific Railroad near Webbwood, Ont. Two men were killed and a third injured in a wreck on the Canadian Pacific Railroad near Webbwood, Ont.

While hunting near Natzer, Wis., Thomas Hart of Indianapolis, Ind., former national general, was severely wounded in the face and shoulder by Henry Norton, his private secretary.

That senatorial opposition to the postal savings bank bill and that the Michigan mine tax, which was the subject of a conference between President Taft and the Senate, was the subject of a conference between President Taft and the Senate, was the subject of a conference between President Taft and the Senate.

Missouri passenger train No. 3, from Kansas City, was held up by a wreck on the Missouri Pacific Railroad near Eureka, Mo., 30 miles from St. Louis. The mail sacks, in full mail car were wrecked. It is not known how much express money was on the car.

Newly brought by passengers of the Empress of Canada, which arrived at Victoria, B. C., from the Orient, is that there is continued talk of a probable second war between Russia and Japan. Lord Prendergast, foreign editor of the London Times, confirms these reports.

Thirty-one persons were recovered from the submerged cars which plunged into Spanish river when a Canadian Pacific passenger went down the river near St. Ignace, Ontario. Thirty persons were injured and it was supposed that at least a score of dead bodies lie among the wreckage.

Managers in the case of the murder of a man and a woman pending the coming battle between the Estrada and government troops. The Estrada government troops are in the process of being retrained by the army of all the conservative leaders in Managua, Granada, Masaya, and Rivas.

FINANCIAL.

A man's conscience has at last caused the clearing up of the mystery that surrounded the will of the late Anna Schumacher, a young girl of Rochester, N. Y. James K. Hall, who has been in a cell on the prison ship since he was charged with embezzlement, has been cleared of all charges and made a complete confession.

It was learned authoritatively that diplomatic negotiations are being carried on for an agreement between the nations to save the Pribilof Islands seal herd. The United States, Great Britain, Japan, and Russia are discussing a joint agreement under which seal hunting will be restricted. The seal herds are being depleted, but will greatly increase their number.

The severed head of Mrs. Jennie Cleghorn, whose mutilated body was found in a vacant lot in West Seventeenth street, Chicago, was discovered by a boy in a vacant lot. Like the body, the head was mutilated.

Harry J. (Big) Sigel, wife of Gen. Franz Sigel of Civil-war fame, and grandmother of Elsie Sigel, who was murdered last August by a Chinaman, died at New York. The deed had been told her granddaughter's death.

Clayton C. Fos of the Methodist Episcopal church, who has been honored by every Protestant denomination, was stricken with paralysis while riding in a trolley in Philadelphia and is in critical condition.

Mrs. Marjorie Gode, the beautiful young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gode of Philadelphia, was married to Anthony J. Drexel, Jr., of Philadelphia. The engagement was announced by the parents of the bride-to-be.

COMMERCE.

Commissioners of the Spring Lake drainage and levy district got a temporary injunction at Pekin, Ill., restraining the Spring Lake drainage board from interfering with their plans pending a hearing of the suit.

Attorney General Major of Missouri filed information against the line of the big pecking horse company, alleging they are operating in violation of the antitrust laws of the state and of the federal government. The case was appointed by the supreme court to take testimony.

Criminal prosecutions are to be brought against those who have been convicted of the violation of the Sherman provisions contained in the Sherman act. The prevailing high prices devalued the market and are responsible for the institution of a suit.

Magazine owners in New York city, aroused over the effort of the post office department to increase the postage on magazines, declare that any advance in the postal rate will mean an increase in the price of the magazines.

The Hamburg liner President Lincoln, is bringing a veritable menagerie consigned by former President Roosevelt. The menagerie includes, among other things, a camel, sea lion, Santos Zelaya, former president of Nicaragua, will sail next Monday from New York for Europe. The ship, where he will be joined later by his family.

A murder rivaling the atrocious Warsaw outrage occurred in London. A young man, aged 21, was killed by a woman. The woman was revealed with the finding of the headless body of Mrs. Jennie Cleghorn, whose mutilated body was found in a vacant lot in West Seventeenth street, Chicago, was discovered by a boy in a vacant lot. Like the body, the head was mutilated.

Harry J. (Big) Sigel, wife of Gen. Franz Sigel of Civil-war fame, and grandmother of Elsie Sigel, who was murdered last August by a Chinaman, died at New York. The deed had been told her granddaughter's death.

Clayton C. Fos of the Methodist Episcopal church, who has been honored by every Protestant denomination, was stricken with paralysis while riding in a trolley in Philadelphia and is in critical condition.

Mrs. Marjorie Gode, the beautiful young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gode of Philadelphia, was married to Anthony J. Drexel, Jr., of Philadelphia. The engagement was announced by the parents of the bride-to-be.

INDUSTRY.

A man's conscience has at last caused the clearing up of the mystery that surrounded the will of the late Anna Schumacher, a young girl of Rochester, N. Y. James K. Hall, who has been in a cell on the prison ship since he was charged with embezzlement, has been cleared of all charges and made a complete confession.

It was learned authoritatively that diplomatic negotiations are being carried on for an agreement between the nations to save the Pribilof Islands seal herd. The United States, Great Britain, Japan, and Russia are discussing a joint agreement under which seal hunting will be restricted. The seal herds are being depleted, but will greatly increase their number.

The severed head of Mrs. Jennie Cleghorn, whose mutilated body was found in a vacant lot in West Seventeenth street, Chicago, was discovered by a boy in a vacant lot. Like the body, the head was mutilated.

Harry J. (Big) Sigel, wife of Gen. Franz Sigel of Civil-war fame, and grandmother of Elsie Sigel, who was murdered last August by a Chinaman, died at New York. The deed had been told her granddaughter's death.

Clayton C. Fos of the Methodist Episcopal church, who has been honored by every Protestant denomination, was stricken with paralysis