HOME

Our old friend Adam Gray is about well again and is doing the R. D., No. 4, work again.

Robert Hanna returned home last Friday night after spending a week with his brother David at Fairgrove.

Mrs. Robert Hanna called on Mrs. Charles Moore, of Pontiac, one day last week Mrs. Moore is recovering from an operation for appendicitis.

Delegates from the Woman's club of Pontiac and from the Woman's club of this place went to Battle Creek instructed to vote for woman's suffrage.

Mrs. Nellie Schoonover entertained 12 young ladies from Perry Bros'. big establishment in Detroit last Saturday This bevy of femine loveliness and gayety were former business chums of Mrs. Nellie.

Well now, here is Julian F. Leet around town again almost as good as ever, after an eight week's siege of typhoid fever, At times he certainly came near the final but a good constitution brought him out all right. Good.

The jolliest trio of ladies that ever went out for a days enjoyment recently were Mrs. Hattie Todd, Miss Anna Parks and Mrs. I. N. Baker. They were the welcome guests of Mrs. Thomas at her Watkins Lake cottage. The enjoyment began very early in the morning and lasted all day.

Arrangements for the tenth annual meeting of the Oakland county Federation of Woman's clubs are progressing The sessions are to be held Oct. 27 in the First Presbyterian church. Dinner will be served by the Maccabees of the World at 11:30. Price 35c. The local committee will be glad to take the names of any one who will dine with them on that day and assure them of a most cordial welcome. The committee consists of Miss M. Baldwin, Miss Julia Post and Mrs. Mary Cooper.

Last Monday Mrs. John Heth gave a birthday party in honor of Mrs. Mary J. Blumberg, who owns to being just 90 years old on this day Monday, Oct. 17. Eleven elderly ladies gathered whose combined ages equaled 856 years Mrs. Blumberg's sister, Mrs. Frank Linabury was present and celebrated her birthday anniversary also with the aid of those present. Both birthday ladies were the recipients of many gifts from admiring friends which prove their popularity with all their acquaintances.

That Bert Church man is original and successful in all his doings goes without saying. His latest scheme is original, daring and most disastrous to hawks with a chicken loving propensity. He has a wise old owl and it is trained perfectly for his work which is coaxing, luring and drawing hawks to within shooting distance. He will sit on a post and soon attracts a chicken hawk by his cries and the fluttering of his wings. The hawk, by curiosity and perhaps with designs on the owl, soon comes within the death zone when bang! goes Bert's gun and a dead hawk is the result.

A Good Position.—Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of wireless or railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country, there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph Institute operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of railroad and wireless officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details at: Cincinnati, Ohio, or Philadelphia, Pa.

If we dared to do it we would like to tell you all about Mrs. T. B. Smith and her new electric washing machine. But the good lady has issued her "don't you dare to do it" and we dare not say a word as to how while she was showing up the critter to her neighbor Mrs. Ford, it caught the fingers of her right hand in between the rubber rolls of the wringer, and dried her fingers and hand clear to her wrist. Wish we could tell you more and all about how she got out of the squeezing process before the affrighted Mrs. Ford who didn't know how to stop it and Mrs. Smith couldn't reach it from her predicament But we are not telling a soul.

Saturday, Oct. 29, the auction sale of Michael Hamata comes off. Read advt in this paper.

Don't forget to read the auction sale of Wm. Allen in this issue. Sale comes off Friday, Oct. 28.

Ferdinand Haltka's auction Thursday, Oct. 27. Read advt elsewhere in this paper and big bills.

Corn huskers wanted immediately at my farm. Big prices paid. Good husking. George E. Starr, Royal Oak. 2t

Ira Morrow has gone on a boat again for the remainder of the season while his wife has gone to Plymouth to visit a sister.

The Birmingham high school football team will play the Rochester high school football team Friday, Oct. 21, at 3 p. m.

Miss Katherine Berz has so far recovered as to be able to walk up town. Her many friends are pleased to know of her rapid recovery.

Frank Ford has returne home from the far West, where he has been for the past month; he reports having had a good and successful trip.

The Young People's society of the First Presbyterian church will give an entertainment Thursday, Nov. 3. Watch for program in next week's issue.

The Misses Ida Hanna and Grace Purdy were invited to Ann Arbor to spend the week end with Mrs. Bertha Simpson Steiner. They had a very nice time.

Mrs. John Baldwin is now cosily settled in the Schlaack Terrace and will live with Miss E. Vokes during the winter. Her home on Council Bluffs is closed for the winter.

Charles Algrim has an auction sale of farm property, tools etc., Monday, October 31st. After the sale they will rent their farm, and live in Detroit so that Carl can attend school.

Don't forget to read the Pontiac Rug Co's. advt. If you have any work of this kind leave orders at the ECCENTRIC office. This firm makes handsome and durable rugs from old ingrain carpets.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haines, Mrs. Dickinson, Mrs. Artwine and daughter of Detroit, and Mrs. Armstrong, of Flint, spent Tuesday with Mrs. W. H. McClellan at her home on Pierce street.

Ed. Hulbert, wife and baby arrived at the maternal home last Sunday. Ed. stayed just long enough to say "How dye do" and good bye" and was gone. The wife and baby will stay awhile much to the joy of the Hulbert family.

The B. H. S. team rolled up a score of 17 to 5 against Oxford high last Saturday. It was the cleanest and hardest fought game played here in recent years. The team would like to see some of their lady teachers out at the games.

Another quick trip for J. A. Bigelow's papers and affidavits into Uncle Sam's generosity box. Thusly, in 30 days from sending in the papers for increase of pension for John Nash, an old veteran was rewarded and increase allowed. Good for Uncle Samuel and all.

Without making any great amount of noise or flourish Mr. N. J. Hansen, our village miller, is making good every way. He makes the best of flour He grinds the finest feed and gives satisfaction to all. Have you given him a trial order, if not, why not? Do it now.

Fall opening of millinery goods is now on at Mrs. L. H. Rosseau's. The ladies of Birmingham are now wise to the fact that in hats and other millinery accessories Mrs. L. H. Rosseau is lower in prices, better in quality and more satisfactory than other out of town dealers.

Mrs. Barr, of this village, represents our Woman's club at Battle Creek this week. Mrs. Stearns, of the same club is attending the sessions. Miss Baldwin is the fraternal delegate of the State Suffrage association. Dr. Kellogg of the sanitarium banquets delegates and visitors Thursday evening.

Lowe Hudson Baldock, only child of Dr. and Mrs. Baldock, died Thursday, Oct. 13, 1910, at 11:30 a. m., aged four years, five months and six days. He was sick but one week with scarlet fever. Service was held Friday at 10 a. m. Rev. Pinkerton officiating. Interment was made in Franklin cemetery.

The sudden death of Ira O. Johnson, aged 49 years, general manager of the Walker-Gordon dairy farm last week Thursday was a great shock to his family and friends. He was sick only five days with pneumonia. He leaves a widow, two sisters and one brother. The Masonic order cared for the remains of their brother and he was buried at his old home in Kent county.

Married Wednesday Oct. 12, 1910, Miss Flossie Deer and Mr. Joseph Edgar, by Rev. R. G. Pinkerton, at the U. P. parsonage. The Friday evening previous, this popular young couple were handsomely remembered with a most generous miscellaneous shower by many friends who assembled at the home of Mr. Jas. Edgar, the groom's father. We wish them much prosperity and happiness in their home which will be in Royal Oak for the winter.

Died at the home of Mrs. James J. Davenport, Mrs. Rufus Squires, aged 81. Deceased has been bed-ridden for five years, and the last six months has been unable to speak. She has been kindly and lovingly cared for by her daughter, Mrs. J. Davenport all these years. Deceased came from England when eight years old and always lived in this vicinity. Funeral was held from her late home Wednesday. Rev. G. A. Whitney officiating. Burial at Royal Oak cemetery.

Motorman Harry VanHorn, who lives in Wm. C. Reynolds' house on Willets street met with a painful accident last week Thursday at the car barns in Highland Park. He was running a Pontiac car to Detroit and collided with a Woodward avenue car. It took 10 minutes to get him out of the wreckage. His left foot was crushed and leg broken. It was feared his skull was fractured but fortunately it is not so. Two Polish laborers were injured and all were taken to Harper hospital. Governor-elect Hemans and candidate for lieutenant governor, Stephens B. Williams, sitting in the smoker were showered with glass but not cut.

County Clerk F. B. Babcock has arranged to visit all the larger places in the county in the course of the next 3 weeks for the purpose of accommodating those who desire deer licenses to hunt in the north woods this fall. He will be in the following places on the dates named: Hotel at Clarkston, Oct. 15; National hotel, Birmingham, Oct. 24; hotel at Walled Lake, Oct. 25; Detroit Hotel, Rochester, Oct. 26; Oakland House, Oxford, Oct. 27; Town Hall at Highland, Oct. 28, Central Hotel, Milford, Oct. 29; George Gready's store, South Lyon, Oct. 31; Town hall, White Lake, Nov. 2; Town hall, Novi, Nov. 3; J. H. Judd's store, Waterford, Nov. 4; Hotel at Davisburg, Nov. 5.

Word has been received by Haisey L. Stephens, of Southfield, last week of the death of his uncle, William H. Hyde, of Vincent, Calif. aged 90 years and one month, Herschel Hyde, as he was better known by his early friends, came to Michigan with his father's family in 1832, and in the spring of 1833 settled on a farm on Section 26, township of Southfield, Oakland Co. where he resided till January 1850, when he started for California, going via isthmus of Panama. He settled in San Francisco, and engaged in the house-moving and heavy trucking business; meanwhile investing in that growing town, which increased in value, securing to him a more than competency. For the last 35 years, Mr. Hyde has been proprietor of the well known Hyde ranch of 625 acres in the beautiful Sonoma Valley, 45 miles north of San Francisco. Mr. Hyde leaves three sons and three daughers, all married and living in and around San Francisco.

One of the most mel(o)ncholic jokes of the season was recently perpetrated on a Birmingham cherub — without wings. The young man, (by the way, he is still a student,) with others, has been considerably smitten with a very attractive young lady—a recent addition to our society—who boards in a pretentious residence on Woodward Avenue, and he reached that stage in his first real attachment wherein he MUST do something to distance his competitors in Cupid's race. Worry over the matter caused him to lose flesh, though he still has sufficient adipose tissue on his frame to give him the appearance of plumpness. The question was, What should he do? Presto—he had it! A huge slice from the centre of a luscious watermelon was just the thing to turn the current in his direction. With his heart throbbing like a six-cylinder motor he approached the domicile of his beloved; but, alas! no one responded to his knock! his light had evidently gone out —with the other fellow! Nothing daunted, he placed the juicy emblem of his love beneath a napkin on the porch before the door, and departed. But the landlady was the first to return, and as she partook of the feast, mentally thanked a near neighbor for having so kindly remembered her. And the fat young man is still on the anxious seat.

Forced to Leave Home.

Every year a large number of poor sufferers, whose lungs are sore and cracked with coughs, are urged to go to another climate. But this is costly and not always sure. There's a better way. Let Dr. King's New Discovery cure you at home. "It cured me of lung trouble," writes W. R. Nelson, of Calamine, Arkansas, "when all else failed and I gained 47 pounds in weight. It's surely the king of all cough and lung cures." Thousands owe their lives and health to it. It's positively guaranteed for coughs, colds, la grippe, asthma, croup—all throat and lung troubles. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free at C. J. Shain's and Cobb-Stanley-Harris Co.'s.
