

Royal Oak

Latest From Our Sister Village

Mr. Fleishamer has moved to Pontiac.
G. W. Valentine is confined to the house with rheumatism.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sillman and daughter spent Sunday in Detroit.
Mrs. Robert McClure was taken to Harper hospital, Detroit, for an operation.
Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Hartman have gone to the upper peninsula to be absent until spring.
Miss Xenia Puvogel was unable to attend school on Thursday on account of sickness.
Remember the feather party at the town hall next Tuesday evening given by the Royal Oak band.
Miss Martha Baldwin, of Birmingham, was the guest of the Royal Oak Woman's club on Monday.
Now that the election is over we will be able to settle down to business and will be glad to have you send in your items and help us to make the TRIBUNE a little more newswy.
Wm. H. Caulker, of Detroit, wheel fender of the paint shop of the Cadillac Motor Co., has bought two acres of John Currie & Co., located on Currie avenue near the 11 mile road, and will build a residence there.
Mr. H. Murray, of Bakersfield, Cal., was the guest of relatives here this week. Mr. Murray is the son of Mrs. Henry Murray, of this village, and this is the first time he has been here in 12 years. He is dealing in concrete bases for telephone, telegraph and electric poles in Bakersfield.
World's Temperance Sunday was observed in a very fitting manner in this village. Temperance programs were given in the Sunday schools and Sunday evening a union meeting was held in the M. E. church, the pastors of all the churches participating in the service. Special music had been prepared; the choir of the Baptist church rendered a fine selection as did also the choir of the M. E. church. Rev. Hough gave the address, which was forceful and convincing.

The TRIBUNE would esteem it a great favor if you would let us know the happenstances that occur in your vicinity, that we know nothing about. It would only take a moment of your spare time to step to the phone and let us know what is going on, though it may not interest you it probably would the "other fellow," let us have it anyway. If Nancy Scroggins, of Krunk Hollow, has favored you with a visit, let us know it; if your motor-in-law has unexpectedly dropped in on you and signified her intentions of staying six months or so, let us know that. In fact we want all the news we can get as that is what makes a bright newsy paper and we can't make it readable unless we get the news. Send it along and if you have anything to sell don't forget the liner column.

On Monday evening a very enjoyable surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Lapham by a party of their friends, it being their 10th wedding anniversary. Armed with lunch baskets and various articles of tinware, the friends wended their way to their home and amid the rattle of tinware and the toots of horns demanded an entrance which the surprised couple readily granted, the tinware was duly presented and then the party proceeded to spend an enjoyable evening, then the contents of the lunch baskets were brought forth and the tables spread for an oyster supper, which it is unnecessary to say all thoroughly enjoyed, after which the main surprise of the evening was given the host and hostess, when with a neat little speech by Mrs. Kidder, a large cut glass berry dish was presented to them. After wishing the happy pair many more years of wedded happiness, the friends departed well satisfied with their evening.

Have you been vaccinated yet? If you have an item for the TRIBUNE call phone 42.
Mrs. G. L. Valentine, of Oxford, visited at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. E. A. King last week.
Rev. H. H. Hough, pastor of the M. E. church, was sick for a few days the past week with tonsillitis.
Mrs. Fred Brace and son Harry leave Saturday on a short visit with relatives in Belding and Chicago, Ills.
Mr. and Mrs. F. B. McCane, of Oxford, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. King one day the past week.
Mrs. Blanche Goodale, of LaPeer, was entertained at the home of G. W. Valentine and E. A. King recently.
Be sure to attend the Thanksgiving festival at the school building next Wednesday evening given by the senior class.
W. D. Curtis attended the rural mail carrier's association at Pontiac last Saturday evening, it being their regular monthly meeting.
Did you notice that beautiful hand painted lemonade set on display in Caldering's window at 21 to 4? The wind blew a 30 mile clip we knew we were going to win. The special rolled into Oxford at 2:30 p. m. and Prof. Navin, of the Oxford schools was on the way to greet us, and show the way to the dressing room. The band blew promptly at 3:00 p. m., and Purdy received the ball on his own 30 yard line and coraled it back to the middle of the field and the game was on. Around one end, then the other end, then a forward pass which Oxford gobblid. Oxford could not gain on two attempts and punted. Purdy carried the ball back for a good gain. The first quarter ended without score. Our boys had the ball on Oxford's 45 yard line. An end ran netted 5 yards, a cross tackle netted 5 more; a forward pass put the ball on the 20 yard line and Purdy called for a place kick. Ferguson sent the ball fairly between the posts. Score, Birmingham, 3; Oxford, 0. Oxford received the kick, and gained ground on their tackle plays but couldn't keep it up, and the ball went to Birmingham on the 20 yard line. The ball was fumbled, and an Oxford man was on it in a jiffy. Birmingham was on it for a moment and Oxford tore off big gains through the Birmingham line. Oxford's full back carried the ball over for their only touchdown. They also kicked goal. Score, Oxford, 6; Birmingham, 3. Oxford received the kick and tried a forward pass, which fell into Purdy's arms, he running through the entire field crossed the line. Ferguson kicked good making score 9 to 6 in favor of our team. Oxford seemed to be at sixes, and Purdy, Buttraw, Ferguson and Martin made long gains. Purdy ran around left end 40 yards for a touchdown; later on he intercepted another forward pass, and ran through Oxford's whole team for his third touchdown. Mr. Don, Ferguson kicking goals. It seemed to be nearly all Purdy; he played a star game, as did every other member of the team. The end of the game found the score 16 to 6, with Bir. owning the net room. The singing and cheering led the team was a big feature and helped to win. Supper was served at the Oakland House, and on the way home, everybody along the line, knew what had happened, and who did it.

John Baldwin and M. S. Osgood have been unloading bran, feedings, corn, oats, hay and straw for the past two weeks and a number in this territory have been saving money by buying of them.
M. S. Osgood informs us that he has succeeded in interesting sufficient capital to commence the building of an elevator the coming winter or early spring, ground having been leased of the G. T. Ry. This enterprise will be of much benefit to our town and surrounding country.
Rolland Yeomans, of Newark, N. J., will superintend the poultry department of M. J. Chapman's Whiteacre farm the coming season. Mr. Yeomans has had 18 years experience in the poultry business and under his supervision will make this one of the best poultry plants in the state.
Mrs. M. J. Carley has resigned her position as manager for the Michigan State Telephone Co., after having satisfactorily filled that position for several years past. She has now gone to Baltimore, Md., and Washington, D. C., to be absent for some time. Here's hoping she will have a very pleasant time.
The Woman's Home Missionary society will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Scott, on Lafayette avenue on Friday evening of this week. The gentlemen are invited to meet with the ladies on this occasion. A good program has been provided and a social hour will follow the program. Light refreshments will be served and a good time is expected. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Whereas, God in his wisdom has removed one of our beloved members of the Home Missionary society, Mrs. M. M. Corey,
Resolved, That while we humbly bow to this dispensation of our kind heavenly Father, we nevertheless mourn our loss and sadly miss her gentle presence and good counsels in our meetings.
Resolved, That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the members of her bereaved family.

Mr. Van Etta continues very ill in Harper hospital.
Ferris Gardner visited friends in Pontiac last Saturday.
Royal Oak Methodist church, H. H. Hough, pastor. Morning service at 10 a. m. Subject, "The Elder Brother." Evening service at 7 p. m. Subject, "Jacob and Esau."
The Royal Oak Baptist church, Rev. J. Mathews, pastor. Morning service at 10 o'clock. Subject, "The Bow Drawn at a Venture." Sunday school at 11:30 a. m. Special music every Sunday.
The Tuesday club met last week with Mrs. Jacob Erb. The prize winners were, Mrs. Erb first prize, Mrs. Sillman second, and Mrs. Peters received the consolation prize. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Lapham on Tuesday next.
A Household Medicine, To be really valuable, must be equalized by good results from each member of the family using it. Foley's Honey and Tar does just this. Whether for children or grown persons, Foley's Honey and Tar is best and safest for all coughs and colds. Sold by all druggists.
Birmingham High School wins second game from Oxford, 10 to 6. It was a report and scored touchdowns with several lines. The following was saved from the report: The wind blew a 30 mile clip we knew we were going to win. The special rolled into Oxford at 2:30 p. m. and Prof. Navin, of the Oxford schools was on the way to greet us, and show the way to the dressing room. GOOD NEWS FROM YOUTH'S COMPANION
We have had to make The Youth's Companion larger to get in all the good things that Companion readers ought to have. The added amount would make 400 pages of standard magazine size and print; but we have kept the price just the same—$1.75 for the 12 weeks of 1911, and all the issues of the rest of this year free from the time you send in your subscription.
We would like to tell you what is in store for Companion readers next year. We cannot do it here, because there is not room. But send us your address on a postal card, and we will send you the beautiful Prospectus of The Companion for 1911, announcing many new features, together with sample copies of the paper.
We think you will agree, when you have read them, that there is no other paper that gives quite so much of such a high quality as The Companion.
The new subscriber receives a gift of The Companion's Art Calendar for 1911, reproducing in 12 colors and gold a beautiful water-color garden scene.
THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, 144 Berkeley St., Boston, Mass.
New subscriptions received at this office.

OUR CLUB NOTES
Mrs. Tucker, of Detroit, gave a very interesting talk on her recent trip abroad.
The club met at Mrs. Carter's in Birmingham, with 28 members and a number of their guests present. "Gems of Thought" was the roll call.
The literary program consisted of an interesting paper on "John Brown" by Mrs. McFerran. The name of John Brown is a household word in our country because of the excitement created by his seizure of the arsenal at Harper's Ferry, Oct. 16, 1859, and his attempt to incite the slaves to rise in revolt against their oppressors. Would that he and many more of the brave boys in blue might have lived to see the gratification of their labors.
This paper was followed by the reading of Whittier's poem, "Brown of Ossawatimie."
"Perish with him the folly that seeks through evil good!"
Long live the generous purpose unstained by human blood!"
Mrs. Tucker, of Detroit, a friend of Mrs. Carter, then took her audience on a very pleasing trip across the Atlantic, stopping at the beautiful islands of Madeira and at the stronghold of Gibraltar, on through the Mediterranean to Naples. Mr. Vasquez to Pompeii with its wonderful excavations, to Rome with its St. Peter's, the Vatican and catacombs, to Florence with its art galleries, to Venice with its Grand Canal, St. Mark's square and Palace of the Doges, to gay Paris with its art treasures, across the straits of Dover, through the beautiful country of England to old London with its historic Westminster Abbey, Buckingham Palace, etc., and finally on a temperate trip to the familiar scenes of New York.
Mrs. Saltzer and Miss Jamieson again favored the ladies with music, and Miss Eva McClellan with two recitations.
The meeting closed with a short sermon, when the hostess served lemonade, to meet at the same place in one week.
